NATION ALMOST READY TO CAST VOTE ON NEW DEAL

ROOSEVELT WILL ASK FOR MIGHTY AIRPLANE FLEET

7,000 TO 10,000 FLYING CRAFT MAY BE NEW GOAL

Possible Army Nucleus Of 400,000 Or More Men Will Be Proposed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Administration circles heard today that President Roosevelt intended definitely to ask congress to authorize one of the world's mightiest air fleets, numbering from 7,000 to 10,000 war planes, for the army.

His far-reaching plans to bolster national defenses were reported authoritatively to include also full war equipment as quickly as possible for a nucleus army of 400,000 or more men.

It was estimated that the program involved outlays next year exceeding by well over $300,000,000 this year's appropriations for all military purposes, including naval.

A separate "emergency" budget for the new rearmament program was one device the president was reported to have under consideration.

The projected reinforcements, the outcome of an extensive resurvey of defense needs which was intensified by Europe's recent crisis, were said to be chiefly for the army and air corps. Also in prospect, however, is a request for increased appropriations to carry out this year's billion-dollar fleet expansion act, which laid out the navy's course for a decade.

Details of the new rearmament program were hidden in confidential budget estimates, but in well informed quarters it was believed the president's recommendations to congress early next year would follow this general outline:

1. At least tripling the army air corps' present goal of 2,320 first fighting planes, fixed in 1935. New planes would be added by mass production

ARMISTICE DAY TO BE OBSERVED

Exercises Will Be Held In Presbyterian Church Friday

Armistice day plans have been completed by the L. B. Faulk post of the American Legion and the Rodney J. Hobbs post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, it was announced Saturday. The veterans will form in St. John street opposite the Ouachita parish courthouse Friday at 10 a.m. and will march north on St. John to DeSiard street, thence through DeSiard street to Catalpa and to the First Presbyterian church where services will be held.

At night there will be a football game at Northeast Center between that college and Pensacola Naval station.

At the close of the game, there will be a dance on Hotel Frances roof in honor of the veterans.

The new American Legion emergency truck will be on display in the parade for the first time since it was completed, it was stated Saturday.

A proclamation received by the L. B. Faulk post American Legion, sets aside the coming week as "American Legion Week" and urges that all citizens of the state appropriately observe Armistice day which will mark the 20th anniversary of the close of the World war.

H. Flood Madison, commander of the L. B. Faulk post, stated Saturday that all posts of the state plan to make Armistice day the biggest event of the kind ever observed and with the Armistice day celebration efforts will be exerted to renew memberships 100 per cent. The state American Legion membership goal is set at 12,000 by Armistice day.

Alton Harper, commander of the Burnette-Downs post, in West Monroe, said that his group is also making every effort to go over the top with its membership campaign by Friday.

AVOYELLES PARISH CORONER SUCCUMBS

MARKSVILLE, La., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Dr. A. T. Barbin, 61, coroner of Avoyelles parish and former mayor of Marksville, died today.

Dr. Barbin was a halfback on the Louisiana State university football team of 1896, and was a graduate of the University of Tennessee Medical school.

The funeral will be tomorrow. His widow, two sons and three daughters survive.

Chest Drive Goes 'Over The Top'

'GABS' WITH KING

When a Yankee feels like "gabbing" with the king of England, he just does it. So when Robert J. Watt, above, American labor delegate attending a royal audience in Buckingham palace, strolled up to King George VI and, hands in pockets, engaged Britain's ruler in conversation he couldn't see why etiquette-bound courtiers gasped in dismay. Watt, who is secretary of the Massachusetts State Federation of Labor, said he and the king "just gabbed." Later he chatted with Queen Elizabeth and reported "that she is a most beautiful and intelligent woman."

STATE TO VOTE ON AMENDMENTS

No Major Opposition To Democratic Candidates; Plans Made For Balloting

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Louisiana and Mississippi voters will go to the polls Tuesday in the general election to go through the formality of ratifying the Democratic primary choice of slates.

There was no major party opposition to house or senate members, although one or two independent candidates expressed the intention of having their names written in on the ballots.

The official ballots carried the names of United States Senator John H. Overton of Louisiana, the seven Mississippi incumbents and the eight Louisiana incumbents in the house to succeed themselves and several other nominees for Louisiana office who were without opposition.

Voters in Louisiana will pass upon 28 constitutional amendments, among them being one to authorize issuance of $15,000,000 in bonds for a union railroad station in New Orleans and another to limit to three years the state's power to grant 10-year exemptions to new industries.

Still another amendment would permit parishes to decide by an election of property taxpayers the question of issuing bonds up to $300,000 for constructing industrial plants for processing farm products and leasing the plants to private operators.

Mississippi has no constitutional amendments to pass upon.

One of the hottest fights in Democratic ranks in the two states was waged in the Fifth Louisiana district, where the official count showed Representative Newt V. Mills nominated by less than 600 votes. The outcome

GERMAN-AMERICANS DECLARED WARNED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—(AP)—House investigators heard today that some German-Americans had been warned their relatives in Germany "would suffer" if they criticized policies of the Nazi government.

Bernhard Hofmann of Milwaukee told the committee investigating un-American activities that friends had informed him frequently of receiving such threats.

One German-American woman told him only last week, he said, that she had been warned anonymously to stop "making remarks about conditions in Vienna."

The witness, a rosy-cheeked, middle-aged radio salesman, said he was president of the Wisconsin Federation of German-American societies and of the Milwaukee German-American federation.

Speaking with a decided German accent, Hofmann said he had received threats—some of them anonymous—because he would not join the German-American bund. He said the bund was trying to overthrow the American form of government.

Another witness, James A. Cobb, Washington negro attorney, told the committee that President Mordecai W. Johnson of Howard university here was "advocating communism."

K. OF C. WILL HOLD REGIONAL MEETING

A class of 50 to 60 will be initiated by the Knights of Columbus at a regional meeting scheduled for Monroe today. The candidates will come from Arkansas, Mississippi and north Louisiana.

Especially large delegations are expected from Natchitoches, Mansfield and Shreveport. This district is under the supervision of District Deputy Thomas H. McMillan and State Deputy Jess DeArmond.

Plans for the ensuing year will be formulated.

Following a parade led by a band there will be a mass at St. Matthew's church at 10 a.m. At noon the 11th regional meeting will be held at Hotel Frances with banquet. A number of prominent men will make addresses.

Following the banquet there will be the initiations in the first, second and third degrees.

PUBLISHER'S DAUGHTER TO WED

The engagement of Miss Dorothy Aylesworth, above, to Robert G. Knott of New York and Glen Cove, L. I., was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Hall Aylesworth of New York. The marriage will take place at St. Bartholomew's church in New York on January 4. Miss Aylesworth's father is publisher of the New York World-Telegram and was president of the National Broadcasting company, which he founded. Mr. Knott, connected with an insurance firm in New York, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Knott.

NEW VIEW GIVEN ON PAY-HOUR LAW

Attorney Says Hours Can Be Lengthened By Lowering Basic Rate

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Conflict developed tonight between counsel for the National Association of Manufacturers and Elmer F. Andrews, the wage-hour administrator, over an interpretation of the fair labor standards act which may affect thousands of salaried workers.

The manufacturers' association sent its members a legal opinion that salaried workers may be employed for more than 44 hours a week at their existing weekly compensation, provided that the employer promulgates for them a basic pay rate of not less than 25 cents an hour for the first 44 hours and 37 1-2 cents an hour thereafter.

Andrews immediately issued a statement to the press declaring congress evidently had intended to bring down the customary work week to 44 hours.

"The question now is whether this expectation can be defeated by various devices, with the probable result that the coming congress will renew consideration of more far-reaching proposals," Andrews said.

He added that the opinion prepared by John C. Gall, counsel for the association, seemed to adopt an interpretation which, in effect, would make overtime benefits of the law available only to employes compensated at the

BRITISH PLANES ON DISTANCE FLIGHT

LONDON, Nov. 6.—(Sunday)—(AP)—Three British royal air force planes, seeking to wrest the world's distance record from Soviet Russia, sped past the half-way mark early today in their attempted 7,160 mile flight from Egypt to Australia.

The air ministry announced the planes reached the east coast of India at 2 a.m. (9 p.m., eastern standard time) and headed southeast across the Bay of Bengal toward Port Blair, in the Andaman islands south of Burma.

The planes, which took off from Ismailia, Egypt, at 3:55 a.m. (10:55 p.m., Friday, eastern standard time) for Port Darwin, Australia, were maintaining speeds ranging between 166 and 170 miles an hour.

At 12:30 a.m. plane No. 1 reported its position as near Vizagapatam, on the eastern seaboard of India and approximately 3,340 miles from Ismailia.

Plane No. 2 gave its position at 11:45 p.m. as 30 miles west of French-owned Yanam and about 3,240 miles from the starting point.

The position of plane No. 3 at 12:10 a.m. was reported as 40 miles west of Yanam and 3,230 miles from Ismailia.

RICHARDSON NAMED ON STATE BAR BOARD

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Governor Richard Leche today appointed E. Leland Richardson, attorney for the collector of revenue, as member of the board of governors of the state bar to succeed the late George McSween of Shreveport.

Richardson, a native of Minden, is Democratic nominee for member of the board of governors of the state bar from the Fourth Congressional district.

Richardson would have taken office January 1 by virtue of his formal election next Tuesday but the appointment by the governor gives him the place about two months earlier.

VAST BUILDING INDUSTRY WELL AHEAD OF 1937

Employment Estimates Indicate More Than Million Returned To Work

NEARLY HALF OF GROUND LOST IN SLUMP REGAINED

Recovery Aided Last Month By Passing Of September War Scare

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—(AP)—The nation's business, entering the fifth month of recovery, had reclaimed today nearly half the ground it lost in the slump from the relatively high industrial levels in the spring and summer of 1937.

Employment estimates indicated well over a million workers had been restored to factory payrolls and pay envelopes fattened through added working hours as plants on curtailed schedules speeded up production.

October figures, presenting a sharp contrast with the rapid decline of industrial barometers in that month last year, showed the vast building industry far ahead of 1937 levels.

Heavy construction awards, trade sources reported, were largest for the month since 1929. The Associated Press index of residential building, where signs of vigorous revival first were visible last spring and early in the summer, by the end of October had more than doubled the figure at the 1938 low point.

Building has been industry's sleeping giant since 1931. Business men have waited for its reawakening as probably the strongest assurance of an enduring rise in employment and payrolls.

Widely-spread October gains helped make the four-month climb out of the trough of the 1937-38 depression one of the fastest in years, Wall Street analysts noted.

It now stands at 83.6, up about 27 per cent from the year's low. This index is based on the average for the years 1929 and 1930 as 100.

LA. NURSES TO MEET IN MONROE

Convention Is Scheduled For November 14-16; 300 Are Expected

The next important convention to be held in Monroe will be that of the Louisiana State Nurses association which will be in session at Hotel Frances November 14-16.

There will be speakers of nation-wide fame, it is said, in both the medical and nursing line and 300 or more are expected to attend as delegates and visitors.

The securing of this convention is said by A. B. Clarkson, convention committee chairman of the Chamber of Commerce, is largely done through compliment to Miss Edith Faris, of Monroe, who is the state president.

An interesting and instructive program is being prepared and there will be various entertainment features arranged.

HUNGARIANS ENTER SLOVAK REGIONS

BUDAPEST, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Hungarian troops crossed the Danube today for the first time in 20 years in beginning the reoccupation of 4,875 square miles of their former homeland awarded Hungary from Czechoslovakia through Italo-German arbitration.

The soldiers advanced with flowers bobbing on their shiny helmets or falling underfoot and by nightfall they had moved approximately 12 1-2 miles into the Slovak regions of Medve and Doborgaz, north of the Hungarian towns of Gyor and Magyar Ovar.

Military administration was applied at once.

Passage between the old and new Hungary was permitted only on military passes. Assemblies were forbidden. Inns and cafes were ordered to close their doors by 1 a.m. each night

SPURNS RICHES

Love and happiness come before riches in the plans of 26-year-old Janet White, above, who sticks to her $30-a-week job in a Rochester, N. Y., department store, demonstrating sewing machines in preference to marrying Leonard Marler, 35, son of Sir Herbert Marler, Canadian minister to the United States. Miss White publicly renounced her love for Leonard, who now is suing his father for $300,000, charging illegal confinement in a mental hospital.

TRUCK ACCIDENT AT RUSTON FATAL

Wesley Ballard, Gravel Hauler Of Ida, Killed When Two Vehicles Collide

RUSTON, La., Nov. 15.—(Special)—Investigation into the death of Raymond Wesley Ballard, about 25, of Ida, who was killed in a traffic collision here Saturday morning, will be conducted by a coroner's jury at 9 a.m. Monday, Dr J. J. Bennett, Lincoln parish coroner, announced tonight.

Ballard, employed in hauling gravel for the new Ruston-Farmerville highway, was driving his empty truck west on California avenue when his vehicle and a bakery truck being driven north on Trenton street by Elton Sumlin of Ruston collided at the intersection. Ballard was knocked from his truck, which had no cab, and was crushed between the two trucks, it was reported. He died at the hospital about an hour later.

He is survived by his widow, Gertrude, a daughter, Janice, nine sisters and three brothers. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Monday at the Munnerlyn chapel church, between Ida and Myra. The body was removed from a local funeral establishment to the Ballard home at Ida Saturday night.

The coroner's jury investigated the wreck from 6 to 7 o'clock Saturday night, at the funeral home here and will reconvene Monday at the coroner's office. The jury includes Sam Gullatt, H. S. Hester, K. F. Hewins, Fred R. Crosby and J. M. Fielder.

RETIRED HEAD OF SOUTHWESTERN DIES

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Dr. Edwin Lewis Stephens, 65-year-old president emeritus of Southwestern Louisiana institute, died at his home here today. He had been ill several weeks.

Dr. Stephens retired January 4, 1938, from the presidency of the school at Lafayette which he had headed 35 years.

Services were held at the residence this afternoon but the funeral will be tomorrow at 8:30 a.m. in Natchitoches, his birthplace.

After graduating from Louisiana State university Dr. Stephens attended New York university and was a faculty member of Louisiana State Normal college from 1892 to 1898.

He started the institute in 1900 with 146 students. He raised the standards of the school until in 1925 it met the requirements necessary for recognition by Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

He was a past president of the Louisiana Teachers association and of the L. S. U. Alumni federation and edited the Louisiana School Review from 1905 to 1908. Also he was founder of the Louisiana Live Oak society.

BALLOT TUESDAY TO SHOW POWER OF ROOSEVELT

President Closes His Case With Nation-Wide Appeal To 'Jury'

ENDORSEMENT OF MURPHY CONSIDERED SIGNIFICANT

Arouses Fresh Speculation Over That Governor To Play In 1940

By Kirke L. Simpson
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—(AP)—The case of the Republican party versus Franklin D. Roosevelt, et al, is virtually ready for submission Tuesday—for the third time since 1932—to the jury of American voters from whose verdict there is no appeal.

The president himself closed the case for the defense Friday night in a nation-wide appeal to that jury to sustain his policies and the New Deal. Tonight the air waves vibrated to the Republican prosecution rebuttal, led by former President Hoover in the far northwest and by Republican National Chairman John D. M. Hamilton from the nation's capital.

Elsewhere lesser party figures carried forward the final argument in all but one of the 48 states. (Maine has already conducted its election.) But they dealt primarily with local candidacies and issues, as they will again tomorrow and on Friday, when the last verbal guns will be fired.

One Tuesday, for the 75th time since the constitution became effective, the nation will conduct its unique biennial referendum on a national administration midway of a presidential term. It will elect a new house of representatives, more than a third of the membership of the senate and 32 state governors.

The only modern instance of a direct mid-term presidential appeal to the electorate, like that of Mr. Roosevelt from Hyde Park, was that of President Woodrow Wilson in asking for the election in 1918 of a Democratic majority in the senate.

The Wilson plea was aimed at preparing for American entry into the League of Nations and a world collective security partnership. External

BALLOTS READY FOR ELECTION

No Independent Candidate Files For Any Fifth District Office

Registrars of voters in parishes of the Fifth Louisiana district had received Saturday the ballots to be used in the general election Tuesday.

The Ouachita parish registrar, Miss Lillian Collins, had placed all required election paraphernalia in the poll boxes and was ready to issue the boxes Monday to deputy supervisors of the polls.

Chairs, tables and booths will be delivered to the polls Monday. The polls will open at 6 a.m. Tuesday and close at 7 p.m.

The period for casting absentee ballots closed last night with only several citizens having cast the ballots. Late arrival of these ballots, along with the regular ballots, provided only a brief period for casting them.

All details for setting the election machinery in motion have been completed, with one change in the location of a polling place having been made. Residents of Precinct 4 in Ward 10, instead of voting at the Episcopal parish house as usual, will vote at B. W. Biedenharn's garage, 1303 North Third street. The change was made only for the general election, because the church building will be used for a convention Tuesday.

One ballot has been prepared for the election. It carries the state and district Democratic ticket, and spaces for voting on each of the 28 proposed constitutional amendments.

The top portion of the ballot carries the names of the Democratic nominees in one column, and in an opposite column carries blank spaces for writing in names of independent

BRITISH STEAMER BOMBED AND BURNED

LONDON, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Lloyd's received reports tonight from Aguilas, Spain that the 996-ton British steamer Eleni had been bombed and set afire leaving the vessel a total wreck.

The ship's crew was said to be safe.

TWO COMMERCE BOARDS TO MEET

Joint Session Will Be Held On Tuesday At Local Offices

Both the junior and senior boards of the Chamber of Commerce will meet in joint session Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. Special reports from committee chairmen and other business matters will be considered, and all members are urged to be present.

One of the matters will comprise the setting of the date for the holding of the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce which it is planned will be more elaborate than usual this year with a speaker of note delivering the principal address.

The election of members of both boards also is to be held shortly and plans for this event will be perfected.

The annual report of Secretary George D. Holland will be comprehensive and will review the constructive program that has been completed the past 12 months. In the report will be handsome half-tone pictures of 62 of the outstanding civic and business leaders of Monroe and West Monroe.

NEW HEALTH OFFICER FOR WEST CARROLL

OAK GROVE, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—Dr. W. J. Buffalo, formerly resident physician of the Summit Memorial hospital in Shreveport, has arrived in Oak Grove to take up his duties as health officer for West Carroll parish, succeeding Dr. M. D. Lang.

BUDGETEERS LOOK INTO NATIONAL POCKETBOOK

The three budgeteers charged with determining how wide to pull open the national purse-strings next year are pictured at the White House after a long conference with President Roosevelt. Final Plans Completed For Annual Red Cross Roll Call

Final preparations for the annual roll call campaign of the Ouachita chapter of the American Red Cross have been completed, it was announced Saturday night by E. C. Gibson, the chapter chairman. Herbert Rosenhein, who has been named general roll call chairman, will have complete charge of the campaign and will be assisted by a group of leading citizens representing various civic and other community organizations of Ouachita parish.

The roll call campaign, so far as it affects the public at large is concerned, will begin Armistice day, November 11, and will continue until Thanksgiving day, dates which are coincident with those observed throughout the nation by the national organization. The committee on special gifts, however, will begin its work Monday morning under the direction of Sam Davis and E. E. Pritchard, it was announced. This phase of the campaign is expected to be virtually completed Thursday night, the eve of the opening of the general roll call.

Tomorrow at 12:15 p.m., in the Frances hotel, a pre-campaign luncheon will be attended by a group of ministers of all denominations throughout the parish, to make plans for the participation of those bodies in bringing the service of the Red Cross and the purpose of the roll call before the different congregations next Sunday. This feature of the roll call campaign is in charge of Rev. Ernest Holloway, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

In addition to the ministers in attendance, the group of public speakers who will take part in the campaign will meet at the luncheon in Hotel Frances. Fred Williamson will have charge of this group.

Roll Call Chairman Rosenhein, in announcing his plans for the campaign, stated that he hoped for a larger enrollment of the public in the Red Cross membership than ever before.

"The need of the Red Cross is greater than it has ever been in recent years," Mr. Rosenhein said, "because of the greater demands on the service it renders. In addition to its required work on behalf of ex-soldiers and their families, its first-aid instructional activities and its care of scores of persons who are not eligible for any form of government relief, the Ouachita chapter is sponsoring a new program of health and hygiene classes for expectant mothers, through its own registered Red Cross instructor. Besides this, it is engaged in establishing highway first-aid stations, designed to give essential help in cases of motor accidents on the public roads. These services emphasize the year-round work of the Red Cross, which must be carried on through the co-operation of the public, which is the direct beneficiary. Only by full support of the people of the parish will it be possible for the local chapter of the Red Cross to do its work efficiently and satisfactorily."

Campaign headquarters will be opened Monday morning at 124 DeSiard street.

Chairman Rosenhein announced the names of the chairmen of committees who will aid in the roll call campaign as follows:

Newspaper pubicity and speakers bureau—Fred Williamson.
Radio publicity—J. C. Liner.
Chairman "Red Cross Sunday"—Rev. Ernest Holloway.

MILL OFFICERS CLOSE MEETING

Two-Day Convention Brought To Close On Saturday At Hotel Virginia

The closing sessions of the two-day conference of the American Pulp and Paper Mill Superintendents' association were held at Hotel Virginia Saturday.

A round table discussion was held Saturday morning, after which committees reported and the meetings closed at 1:30 p.m. The afternoon was devoted to a golf tournament at McGuire park.

Saturday morning the ladies had a sightseeing tour in the Twin Cities, ending with a luncheon and afternoon bridge party at the McGuire clubhouse.

The outstanding social event of the conference was the banquet followed by dance at Hotel Virginia on Friday night.

All the delegates of whom there were more than 100, indicated that they were well pleased with their stay in Monroe and West Monroe.

For Backache Kidney And Bladder Trouble

Stop Getting Up Nights and Feel Younger

Ask your druggist for a 35-cent box of Gold Medal Haarlem Oil Capsules—a splendid safe and harmless diuretic and stimulant for weak kidneys and irritated bladder.

Besides getting up nights, some symptoms of kidney trouble are backaches, puffy eyes, leg cramps, and moist palms, but be sure to get GOLD MEDAL—it's the genuine medicine for weak kidneys—right from Haarlem in Holland. —Adv.

FUNDS FOR WPA PROJECTS READY

Mills Announces Approval Of School Lunch, Sewing Room Programs

Congressman Newt V. Mills said yesterday he had been notified by David K. Miles, assistant WPA administrator, that funds had been approved for a WPA school lunch project and several sewing room and school rest room matron service projects in northeast Louisiana.

Heading the list of the projects was $21,959 for preparing and serving school lunches to needy and undernourished in Lincoln parish, and for operating gardens and canning donated and surplus foodstuffs for use in the lunches.

Another project approved for Lincoln parish was $3,344 for matron service.

The other projects are: Ouachita parish, $3,444 for matron service; Catahoula parish ,$8,599 for sewing rooms; Madison parish, $8,673 for sewing rooms and $468 for matron service; East Carroll parish, $1,963 for matron service; West Carroll, $9,449 for sewing rooms; Jackson parish, $3,344 for matron service.

In each of the projects calling for matron service, with the exception of the Madison parish project, the allotted fund will provide the service in elementary and high schools. In Madison parish the allotted fund provides the service only for the Tallulah High school.

School boards of the various parishes sponsored the matron service projects. Police juries sponsored the sewing room projects and the school lunch project.

DEDICATE NEGRO SCHOOL

A negro group, headed by Frank Perkins, will dedicate the negro grammar school at Richwood which was recently constructed by the WPA. Those expected to take part in the dedication exercises include the Tabernacle church choir; members from the Colored Welfare association and the X. Y. Z. club. Members of the Ouachita parish school board have been invited to attend the ceremonies which will be held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

A new simple four-ounce rubber nosepiece and artificial lung type mask for use in the stratosphere has recently been perfected. The mask, attached to mobile tubes of oxygen, enables the wearers to move about freely.

COOL IN FIRE

Courageous Helen Kuzak, above, 19-year-old business girl from Cleveland, O., roused 26 young women from their sleep and led them to safety when a fire broke out in the Clare club, Baltimore, Md., residence club. Friends hailed Helen as a heroine for her coolness in the face of the emergency.

HONOR ROLL OF CENTER GIVEN

Both First And Second Lists Are Announced By Dean C. C. Colvert

The honor roll of Northeast Center for the first six weeks of the first semester of the current year was announced Saturday at the office of Dean C. C. Colvert. Three names were on the first honor roll: Ted Ferguson, Marguerite Ikerd and Albert Myatt.

Honorable mention was given Joe Ady, Joe Evelyn Bales, Mary Virginia Beard, Rebecca Boies, Nora Frances Brakefield, Elaine Canady, Martha Cook, Joyce Flanagan, Seymour Glazer, Dorothy Grayson, Mack Fay Hammons, Peggy Harper, Sara Frances Hinkle, Wilsie Marie Howe, Fred Hudson, John Hundley, Aletha Louise Jones, Massey McConnell, Robert McKay, Jane McMullen, Norma Mayo, Anna Nichols, Clothylde Read, Ulma Doyle Register, Frances Reitzell, Catherine Rivoire, Alice Jeannette Roe, John Semago, Mary Ella Sims, Patsy Slack, Estelle Thames, Fred Thatcher, Vola Frances Thompson and Yvonne Williams.

A newly developed plane powered with two 260-horsepower engines united side by side in the nose and geared to a single propeller operated by a free-wheeling clutch is being perfected. If one motor should fail the other will work the propeller without drag from the dead unit.

POW WOW STAFF TO RETURN HOME

Northeast Center Pow Wow delewho have been attending the Associated Collegiate Press convention in Cincinnati, O., will return home Tuesday. Those making the trip were Mrs. Annie Lee West Stahl, Pow Wow sponsor; Seymour Glazer, Pow Wow editor; Albert Newburn, "Chacahoula" editor; Tommy Gilhula, associate Pow Wow editor; and Ronnie Bounds, Pow Wow business manager.

Thursday night the address of welcome was delivered by Daniel Laurence, vice-president of the University of Cincinnati. The guest speaker of the evening was Ross Bartlet, former Associated Press White House correspondent and former secretary to Vice-President Charles Dawes. He talked on "Twenty Years of Public Relations."

A banquet and dance were highlights of the entertainment features. Round table talks on newspaper problems were on the program during the convention.

ST. MATTHEW'S PLANS CARNIVAL

Will Be Held November 15-17; Goal Established At $1,500

St. Matthew's Catholic church is planning its annual carnival November 15-17 when a goal of $1,500 has been set. Last year $1,200 was raised.

There will be the usual turkey dinners and suppers under the supervision of Mrs. J. B. Filhiol, who will be assisted by Mrs. L. V. Tarver and Miss Evelyn Ammon.

The Knights of Columbus have planned unusual games and many booths to interest the public.

Ice cream and soft drinks will be sold and booths will open mornings at 10 o'clock and will remain open for the remainder of the day. Meals will be served from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., and from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.

One of the interesting features will be the fancy work booth of Mrs. J. Williamson which will furnish many dainty linens and crocheted pieces.

The next meeting of the committees in charge of the carnival will meet Tuesday night at St. Matthew's church.

THOMAS H. HARRIS FOUNDATION CLUB FORMED AT TECH

RUSTON, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—Fourteen Louisiana Tech students, holders of T. H. Harris scholarships, have organized a Thomas H. Harris Scholarship Foundation club to promote "a spirit of scholarship and friendship among ourselves, and also with the students who hold similar awards in other colleges."

The 14 students represent 12 north Louisiana parishes. The awards were issued for the first time this fall to 102 students in the state who are benefiting from a state-appropriated fund.

State Superintendent Harris, who makes the awards, bases his selections upon the records of outstanding students in the state colleges, and also upon the financial status of the eligible student's family. The scholarships, in many cases, take care of room and board. The amount, however, depends upon the need.

WHERE HUNGARY TAKES NEW SLICE OF CZECHO

For the third time this fall another nation has sliced off a big chunk of Czechoslovakia. The beneficiary this time is Hungary. The above map shows the 4,635 square miles of Czech territory along Hungary's northern border that has been parceled out in this latest re-mapping of central Europe. Earlier German and Polish acquisitions also are shown. The indicated Hungarian territory is not official, but is sketched on the basis of latest information as to Czech towns ordered ceded to Hungary by an Italo-German conference. Note that Hungary did not achieve the common boundary with Poland she had hoped to gain. Important Bratislava still belongs to the Czechs.

D. C. Black, Pastor's Associate

It is reported that during last Sunday night's panic in connection with a dramatization of H. G. Well's "The War of Worlds," broadcast over a national hook-up, a man gathered his children in his car and said "I am going somewhere; where is safe?" If that man lives in driving distance of the First Baptist church, Monroe, he is invited to come Sunday night with his family and learn "Where Is Safe?" The pastor will take as his text Revelation 6:16, 17: "(They) hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains, and said to the mountains and the rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb. For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?"

At the morning hour the pastor will preach on "Do the Scriptures Teach 'Once Saved Always Saved?'" Many have asked this question of late and he promises to give a satisfactory answer from the "Thus saith the Lord." The choir will song "Unfold, Ye Portals" (Gounod). The Sunday school, B. T. U., Brotherhood will be held at the usual hours. The deacons will have their regular meeting Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH
812 Mississippi Street
I. J. Brooks, Pastor

The Kingdom Builders Bible class is engaged in an attendance contest, the two sides using the class colors of purple and gold to indicate their group. D. R. Brown is captain of the "Gold Group" and H. S. Clawson is captain of the "Purple Group." Great interest is being manifested. The enrollment of the class was 65 before the contest started.

The B. T. U. had the highest attendance record last Sunday night, in the history of the organization.

H. K. Litton of the First Baptist church filled our pulpit on Layman's day, October 23, and delivered a very inspiring address to an appreciative audience.

J. K. Blue of the First Baptist church addressed the Kingdom Builders Bible class last Sunday, and as usual brought a splendid message. The pastor's subject for Sunday morning will be: "Working for Christ" (John 9:4). The evening message: "The Turning Point." (Psalm 119:59.) We invite all people who are not affiliated with some other church to join us in this great work for the Lord. Visitors are always welcome.

Church school, 9:45 to 10:45 a. m. We have a class for you, no matter what your age.

Morning service of worship, 10:50 to 12 a. m. Observance of Lord's Supper. Sermon theme, "The Christian Way to Peace."

Intermediate C. E. society at 6:30 p. m. Young People's society meeting at 6:30 p. m. Both these societies are going strong. All young people invited. Come once, and you will come regularly.

Evening service of worship, 7:30 to 8:30 p. m. Colored chalk picture (in frame) given to person bringing the most people. Another picture drawn. Large crowd last Sunday. Come, and enjoy this informal service. Sermon theme, "An Introduction to Jesus' Miracles."

Mid-week service Wednesday evening at 7:30. Choir practice Friday evening at 7:45.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST
Corner Auburn Avenue And North Second Street

Sunday services 11 a.m., Sunday school 9:30 a.m., Wednesday evening testimony meetings 8 o'clock. Reading room, 709 Ouachita National Bank building, open daily, except Sunday and holidays, 11:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The public is welcome to all services and the use of the reading room.

"Adam and Fallen Man" is the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, November 6, 1938.

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name Jesus." (Luke 1.)

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "In Science man is the offspring of Spirit. Spirit is his primitive and ultimate source of being; God is his Father, and life is the law of his being." (p. 63).

GRACE CHURCH
Fourth and Glenmar Streets
Edward Farren Hayward, Rector

Services for the Sunday in the octave of "All Saints'" which is also the 21st Sunday after Trinity are as follows: The Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at 7:30 a. m. Church school will convene at 9:30 a. m., and a choral celebration of the Eucharist and sermon by the rector at 10:45 a. m. The rector will read evensong and preach in St. David's, Rayville at 4 p. m.

Note on teaching for Sunday: Pardon, peace and cleansing from sin, and a quiet mind—all these are the burden of the collect. The epistle shows where unrest, disquietness and sin come from—even from the devil. The holy gospel teaches us the importunity in prayers, the power of the Saviour to work miracles, as well as afar off as when near at hand.

The church is open daily. Come in and pray.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

J. P. Lowrey, Pastor

Bible study 9:45 a.m. Preaching 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Communion morning and evening. Ladies' Bible class Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. Prayer and song service Wednesday 7:30 p.m.

GORDON AVENUE METHODIST CHURCH
J. M. Alford, Pastor

All the regular services will be held today at the appointed hours-church school exercises opening at 9:45 with E. K. Reeves, general superintendent, in charge. This will be followed by a service at 11 o'clock at which time the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed. This will be the last communion service of this conference year. Both the Senior and Intermediate leagues will meet at 6:45 p.m. At the evening hour (7:30) Rev. "Bill" Byrd will bring the message and at the same time the pastor will hold services at Bosco, closing out his work there for the year.

Last Friday evening Rev. H. L. Johns, the presiding elder, delivered his last message to the congregation at Gordon avenue and held the business session of the fourth quarterly conference of the year. The reports of the pastor and leaders of the various departments of the church show substantial gains made in the work for the year.

The subject of the pastor's discourse at 11:00 a.m. will be: "Four Reasons Why We Should Take The Communion." The usual program of songs and music will be presented. It is expected that all our members and friends will attend the services today and next Sunday, the last day of the conference year.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH
C. Karlos Smith, Pastor-Evangelist
West Monroe

"Benevolence day" will be observed by our church Sunday, November 6, that is to say this is the day when we will complete the work of this year and at time when all our obligations will be met for the year. All our people are urged to attend Sunday school and church today. At 11 a.m. the pastor will preach the sermon. At 7:30 p.m. Dr. H. L. Johns will preach, and following the message of the evening the Fourth Quarterly conference will be held.

Next Sunday, November 13, will be observed as "Home Coming day." Dinner will be served to all those in attendance. Our people are urged to bring their baskets and be ready for a fine day of worship and fellowship. A great musical program has been arranged for the occasion and if you appreciate fine music you will be delighted with the program.

All our people are urged to attend the last two Sundays of this conference year, even if the weather should happen to be bad, services will be conducted as usual.

"The Church With a Welcome."

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH
"The Church With The Lighted Steeple"
Jackson At Wood Street
Walter C. Scott, Minister

Only two more Sundays in our church year! Only two more Sundays with our present minister unless the Bishop sees fit to return him to us for another year! Every member will want to be present at all four of the remaining services. Visitors are cordially invited to worship with us. There will be no church services in this church on the third Sunday as all ministers in the conference will be in attendance at annual conference which convenes on November 16 at Rayne Memorial church, New Orleans. The officials of the church are busy winding up the year's work. Efforts are being made to collect all outstanding pledges that we may be able to go to conference with all claims paid in full. Members are reminded that today is "Pay-Up Day" in the church. The finance committee will meet tomorrow night to make a final check-up to see what remains to be done. Having paid off all the indebtedness on our real estate this year, we hope to have the best report in the history of our church.

The local board of Christian education will meet in the office Wednesday evening at 7:30. The woman's Missionary society will this week observe week of prayer with special services held at the church Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. The prayer specials this year are Houma Mission in the home field and the Wartorn areas of China in the foreign field, and the offerings will be directed to these specials. Circle meetings will not be held but all members attend the meeting at the church.

METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH
Stone Avenue And South Third St.
I. L. Yeager, Pastor

Public worship begins with Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. Delivery of gospel message at 11 a.m. Christian Endeavor at 6:45 p.m. Mrs. K. D. Lenard will have charge of the program. Evening evangelistic service 7:30. Circle meetings Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Choir practice Tuesday evening at 7:30. Midweek prayer service Thursday evening at 7:30. Mrs. Frank Langford will direct the meeting.

In these days of strife and disturbance, with the world peace threatened, and but little offered by the material realm that contributes to contentment, what a comfort are the words of our Lord: "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

—John 14-27.

CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE
Thomas At Diamond Streets
G. M. And Mrs. Akin, Pastors

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m., Mrs. S. P. Quigley, superintendent. Preaching by the pastor at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Young people's meeting, 6:30 p. m. Mrs. E. L. Hoskins will sing. On Tuesday at 2 p. m. the ladies of the Nazarene church will have their annual convention. The annual district assembly will convene Wednesday at 9:30 a. m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN
Grammont At Catalpa
Ernest Holloway, Pastor

A memorial service will be held at the close of the Sunday school period in honor of Mrs. A. M. Wills, who served the Lord well and faithfully. The Women's Bible class will be dedicated to her and be known hereafter as the Elizabeth S. Wills Memorial Bible class. Can we have a large attendance? Your presence will contribute to our aim.

Sunday morning our thoughts will be given to this subject—"When God Lets Us Down." Human nature never changes. The needs of men are the same in all ages. Holy Writ reveals human experiences and God's response. Our Heavenly Father deals with us as He dealt with the people of Bible times. He leaves us to our own devices. Is there an explanation?

Sunday evening we think about the return of the Christ. Is He to come back? If so, when? What will He do when He does return? Can man be dogmatic in his views? This is one of the uplifting doctrines of the faith.

The Synod of Louisiana convenes in our church auditorium Tuesday, November 15, 10:00 a.m. We expect about eighty commissioners. Will you, the members of our church, cooperate with the people charged with providing entertainment that homes may be had?

Our purpose in all worship programs is spirituality. A cordial greeting awaits you.

The Red Cross Roll Call

Observance of Armistice day, November 11, marks the opening of the annual Red Cross roll call, an event that has an important bearing on every community in the land. No other organization in the country has a corresponding relationship to the task of meeting the great problems of human welfare as the Red Cross, which is the one group in the nation to which the people as a whole instinctively turn in times of great disaster and emergency.

No matter where catastrophe may strike, in the great centers of population or in the remotest corners of the country, the American Red Cross is the agency that immediately begins the task of relief and rehabilitation. No matter how widespread the effects of disaster, it is only the Red Cross that is equipped to render instant, efficient and comprehensive help. The Red Cross has made a place in the scheme of national succor and welfare that is absolutely essential to the well-being of the entire people of the United States.

But it is not alone in times of great disaster that the Red Cross performs its great task. The great "Mother of Humanity" is an every day, week to week and month to month agency for helpfulness to the communities it serves throughout the nation. Ouachita parish has every reason to be grateful for the service this organization renders day in and day out in accomplishing the work to which it is dedicated. Problems of relief which cannot be touched by any other welfare group, because of statutory limitations and other considerations, of necessity come to the Red Cross for solution. Service on behalf of families of veterans soldiers is one of the particular functions of the Ouachita chapter. That is a task assigned to it by its charter and no other organization can do the needful work of helping and encouraging those families who are deserving the best at the hands of the nation as the Red Cross.

The accident prevention program of the Red Cross is another phase of its essential work that is of the utmost importance to public welfare at a time when the whole nation is concerned over the appalling volume of fatalities which each year make an increasingly black mark in the country's vital history. Establishment of first aid stations on the highways, in addition to its educational program available to all classes of citizens, emphasizes the value and importance of this work.

Its life-saving department, through which hundreds of our young people are instructed each year how to aid those who have been overcome while swimming, has been the means of saving countless lives. Its classes in home hygiene and prenatal care of mothers and children have brought to homes throughout this parish a service that cannot be estimated in dollars and cents, because it relates to the problem of conserving potential life, and saving for future contribution to human welfare and progress the precious lives that annually are snuffed out by the hundreds because of lack of intelligent care and attention on the part of prospective mothers.

Thus the Red Cross goes into every department of human needs and brings its great power to bear in contributing to the welfare of the community, the state and the nation.

This task cannot be done without full cooperation of the public, and it is to enlist this interest and active support that the annual roll call is held from Armistice day to Thanksgiving day. Every citizen owes it to himself as a demonstration of his interest and appreciation of the Red Cross and its work, to enroll in its ranks and to give to this great humanitarian agency the full effect of his cordial help. Because the Red Cross is doing the work that the individual would have to find some way of doing were it not that such an agency is already established to accomplish this absolutely essential task.

THE UNIVERSAL TRAGEDY

"Fire," says a leaflet issued by the National Board of Fire Underwriters, "is attacking the foundation of America's prosperity by destroying vast quantities of materials annually and depriving men of work and wages."

That is not an idle statement. Fire is the enemy of industrial development—the enemy of productive jobs—the enemy of progress.

The figures are proof of that. For, astounding as it seems, 43 per cent of business concerns suffering a fire never reopen!

You may think that is of little consequence to you. If you do, you're about as seriously wrong as a man can be. For the effects of fire can never be limited to the business struck. A factory on the other side of town with which you have had no direct dealings may be destroyed, yet you are vitally involved—men who have lost their jobs can no longer pay for food, clothing, insurance and other commodities and services. They cannot build new homes or renovate old ones. Some of them must apply for relief, and so become a drain on the taxpayers. Others move away, and their purchasing power is lost to the community.

Fire, in short, is a universal tragedy. It spares no one. It has no mitigating circumstances. That is why it is everybody's problem.

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By PRESTON GROVER

WASHINGTON—John Barrett, minister to a half dozen South American republics at various times and first director-general of the Pan-American union, died a few days ago but he long will be remembered for some of the fastest thinking the state department recalls.

The Pan-American union building had just been completed and Barrett was walking toward the doorway of the structure with Andrew Carnegie, who had come to inspect the costly building for which he had supplied the money.

"Anything else you need?" asked Carnegie.

Barrett hadn't given the idea a thought—and he knew that he had to speak out before Carnegie left. He saw an ugly patch of mud at one end of the building. It clicked.

"If we had a sunken garden to replace that mud it would be mighty handsome," he suggested.

"How much would it cost?" asked Carnegie. Barrett hadn't the foggiest idea, but he shot back:

"Thirty thousand dollars."

Ghosts Of The Court

Not all ghost writers are in literature or politics. Some of the most forlorn "ghosts" are lawyers. They draft extensive law briefs on important cases, year after year, for presentation to the supreme court without having their names appear on them as counsel. Big shot members of the firm get that honor.

But there are exceptions. Even youngsters occasionally get such breaks. Francis Kirkham, former secretary to Chief Justice Hughes, recently appeared at the supreme court with the first brief to which his name had been attached as member of a large San Francisco law firm. As a "ghost" he had drafted dozens before, all to be signed by senior members of the firm.

"What this country needs," cracked a New Dealer after reading a headline on a speech by the conservative junior senator from Nebraska, "is more Burke control."

But New Deal critics are getting even by refurbishing an old Dockstader. They tell of a New England druggist who advertises:

"ABC rat poison—25 cents—kills 'em slower."

Army Waits For Braid

And at this point we must report that the army is held up by a shortage of gold-braid embroiderers. Recently an order was published requiring all officers to wear blue uniforms for evening functions. There are 12,000 officers in the army and when you begin sewing gold braid on 12,000 blue uniforms, or even on half that many, you have started something.

Uniform makers were swamped. They could cut and sew the costly blue cloth but the gold embroidery was a job for specialists—and there weren't half enough. It was a "bottle neck" such as harasses the army in times of emergency. If it isn't gold braid, it's a shortage of freight cars.

The order for blue dress uniforms had to be suspended until the embroiderers could lay on the gold braid.

NON-VOTERS HANDICAP

By BRUCE CATTON

According to all the newspapers, the coming congressional elections are a highly important event in American politics. We shall see, through them, how much of a reaction there is against the New Deal; the voters will get their chance to express themselves, and in one way or another our democracy will register its verdict on this, that and the other thing.

So registration lists are up, interest is at fever heat, and all the signs indicate a heavy vote.

But when the smoke has cleared away and all the votes have been counted, it will be found—as usual—that only a little better than half of the electorate bothered to go to the polls at all. The stay-at-home who never pokes his nose into a polling booth will once more be a significant if little-noticed feature of the election.

There are lots of reasons for this. A certain amount of this stay-away business is due to the fluid nature of our population; people move about, find themselves ineligible to vote, fail to transfer their registration, forget about the absentee-ballot provision, or through some other oversight are unable to vote even though they would rather like to.

Another thing which must account for a large proportion of the absentees is the fact that in many districts—probably in most—the outcome of the election is pretty clear before the votes are cast. Many a man, in such circumstances, reasons something like this: "Well, I'd vote for Candidate Blank, but he's going to win anyhow and I'll be pretty busy Tuesday so it won't hurt if I don't vote."

But when all such excuses are made, the fact remains that there are some millions of the citizens who fail to vote simply because they are too lazy, too indifferent or too cynical about politics to take the trouble.

Of course, this is a free country. The right to vote carries with it the indisputable right to refrain from voting.

Nevertheless, the non-voting voter is decidedly a handicap to democracy. For if voting is a privilege, it is also a duty. The theory of democracy assumes that each man will perform that duty; each man who fails does his bit to weaken the democracy he lives under.

For the "special interests"—the pressure groups, the political machines, the factions, the something-for-nothing people—none of these ever fails to vote. It is only the man who has nothing at stake but the welfare of the country as a whole who stays away from the polls. And because he does stay away, a disciplined minority can, and very often does, run things with scant regard for the interest of the whole.

That is why non-voting is a peril to democracy. And if you have been a non-voter, now is an excellent time for you to think over and decide to stop being one.

Human Side Of The News

By EDWIN C. HILL

(Copyright, 1938, by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

"Ringer" is now almost a forgotten word in the colleges. Professional football partly accounts for that. There is today a fine opening in a legitimate business for former college players good enough for pro rating. It is true that they have to write off a lot for wear and tear and the period of obsolescence is short, but it's all out in the open and on the up-and-up and gives the lads a way-station on the road to a permanent job.

I remember back in Indiana, around the turn of the century, the big tramp athletes who used to circulate among the colleges of the kerosene circuit until they began to get gray around the ears. Some of them had been given a split-second exposure to some college curriculum, but usually there wasn't much pretense that they were certified students. After the football season, they would snooze through a few classroom sessions, sometimes to the end of the semester, but usually they drifted off quietly without causing the professor the bother of flunking them.

There was some heavy betting in the early days of cross-roads football. College rivalries pulled in the whole town and the leading hardware dealer, or perhaps a syndicate of the boys who made book in the poolroom were sometimes geared in with undergraduate politicians. And sometimes the latter got orders to "go buy yourself a load of beef," for which the funds were, not too mysteriously, provided. That was shaded down a lot as the years went by, but the general renovation of college football has come along with the rise of professional football. It suggests an analogy with prohibition days and repeal. The bootlegger and the "ringer" both flourished in a foggy no man's land and passed with the light of clearly defined legality—that is they almost passed.

The New York Giants, playing to an average of 35,000 last year, had a bigger gate than Fordham. While the price of admission is less than that of the college games, the crowd pull is steady and strong and professional football is a solvent and rapidly becoming a booming industry. Sunday afternoon in a big city can be pretty dreary. Here's an entertainment that fills a long-felt want. "Sunday in the Park" is a more cheerful song than it used to be.

Pro football fans are drawn mainly from the baseball mobs and are similar in behavior, ardent hero-worshippers and hero-baiters and gluttons for "dope" about players and teams and past performance. They insist on a fast game. That is one reason why in the professional game, the goal posts are on the zero yard line, rather than 10 yards back, as in college football. That makes for more kicking and field goals and more excitement. The pro can throw a forward pass from anywhere, instead of having to step five yards back as under college rules. That yields a faster game, with more scoring—and scoring is what a public of any kind wants. It isn't classical football, but it has been gradually devised to satisfy the big mixed crowds which crave action and that's what they get.

They get some all-American players but not a great many. These luminaries of latter days are apt to be pretty serious lads, headed to scholastic, professional or business careers as soon as they graduate. Colorado's "Whizzer" White finally accepted that $15,000 offer from the Pittsburgh Pirates, but he has merely put that Rhodes scholarship on ice for the season and expects to go to England before long. "Slingin'" Sammy Baugh of Texas Christian is with the Washington Redskins, but it is understood that he, too, is looking for a hole in the business, rather than the football line. Run-of-the-mill players in the ten big-city teams of the National Football league, earn from $100 to $150 a game.

The league has a rigid rule against raiding any of the colleges. It takes only graduates or players who have left college for good. But the colleges find in the professional game an interesting laboratory and many college coaches are now being drawn from the professional ranks. I am told that, so distinctly set apart are the amateur and professional fields, the colleges do not feel the competition of the professional game.

STAMP NEWS

EXECUTIVE-MINDED FLAVIUS JUSTINIAN held no patience with the red tape and the intricacies of the law. So one of the first steps of his administration was a move to simplify the whole body of Roman jurisprudence.

Immediately after his accession, he appointed a commission to codify the imperial constitutions. The task was completed in 14 months, and so successful was the effort that the emperor chose next to revise the entire field of legal writing. And he did.

But first he wisely took the preliminary step of settling the more important legal questions about which the great jurists still disagreed. A series of 50 historic decisions was handed down as a general basis. Then Justinian appointed the famous lawyer, Tribonian, who had already served on the first commission, to codify the remainder of Roman legal lore.

The commissioners took about four years to complete this next exhaustive codification, Tribonian presenting his work to Justinian in 533. This was known as the Digest, or Pandects. It comprised nearly 10,000 extracts from 39 Roman authors. It proved a significant accomplishment, although badly arranged as we view it today.

But this was not enough for the emperor. He decided finally to simplify all elementary law. This was published as the Institutes of Justinian. A great many additional ordinances were codified at the same time, leaving a striking record for the courts. Tribonian, presenting the Pandects to Justinian, is shown here on a 1934 stamp of Vatican state in Rome.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

There are still people who tell us that our schools are not doing the good work the old schools did. Those were the fine old schools. Those were the fine old teachers. In that fine day children were made to mind or they knew what disobedience meant. Yes sir-ee.

"Why, I remember when I was a lad, going to school, we used to have men teachers. None of these pretty ladies you have these days. We had one that was a holy terror. I remember once when Stubby Baker—he stuttered some, and he couldn't spell—Well, sir, one day he missed his spelling lesson and Old Man Ready grabbed his ruler, a long, thick, brass-edged ruler, and he made Stubby bunch his fingers together and he came down on them. Bang! Once for every word he missed. I can hear Stubby scream yet.

"Well sir, when he got through the blood was streaming from Stubby's fingers and the girls were all yelling and crying and some of the boys, too, and he just laid round him with that stick until the whole place was crying. Stubby's mother took him to the doctor, and then she hauled the Old Man before the magistrate. No-o, nothing happened. The magistrate just told her to go home and make her boy behave himself.

"They were the tough old boys, but they taught us. I'll say there was no fooling in their classrooms. Some of them were a little too rough. One I remember used to swing back and slam a child with the flat of his hand, right on the ear. One little girl had a broken ear drum and had a running ear all her life. A couple of boys were deaf in one ear, because of him. They got rid of him at the end of the term, though. Yes sir, in those days there was no fooling."

And yet there are people who, knowing those stories, knowing the children that were treated that way—maybe had been treated that way themselves—will tell us that we don't know how to control children because we don't beat and maim them. We don't have to, and we won't. We believe that the best control we have lies in our power to interest children in their growth, their joy, their ability to work and to serve happily. We believe that our work should be directed toward developing the intelligence of children, and we know that fear and pain and the dread of them kill intelligence.

We have the best schools in the world, here in America. We have the best teachers obtainable, the best trained, the best paid, in the world. No other country has as fine a system of public education as we have. We are never going to treat children in the barbaric fashion of the old school of miserable memory. We are going to, year by year, do all we know how to do to help these children become intelligent, useful, happy men and women.

A happy childhood is the best start a child can have in life. The hours in school should be happy, carefree hours devoted to learning in the association with scholarly ladies and gentlemen—of the New School, if you please.

Mr. Patri has prepared a leaflet entitled, "Convalescent Children," in which he tells parents how to help such children to entertain themselves without fatigue. Send for its, addressing your request to Mr. Angelo Patri, Child Psychology Department of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed stamped (3-cent) envelope.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

By Rodney Dutcher

WASHINGTON—The nation's outstanding 100 per cent New Deal governor and the only two "third party" governors are up before the voters this year in elections which may cost them their political heads.

Here is the lineup:

MICHIGAN: Governor Frank Murphy, handsome red-haired, pro-labor intimate of President Roosevelt vs. Republican Ex-Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald, a conservative beaten by Murphy two years ago, vs. B. F. Stephenson, Detroit real estate man entered as a "Constitutional Democrat" to take votes from Murphy.

MINNESOTA: Governor Elmer A. Benson, Farmer-Labor, vs. Harold Stassen, aggressive 31-year-old Republican county attorney backed by all conservative forces, vs. Thomas Gallagher, Democrat, to whom no one concedes a look-in.

WISCONSIN: Governor Phillip F. La Follette, Progressive and hopeful founder of the new party "National Progressives of America," vs. Julius P. Heil, millionaire Republican manufacturer of Milwaukee, vs. Harry W. Bolen, 75-year-old conservative Democrat whom most observers count out of the running.

Murphy Has Hard Fight

Michigan nearly always has been a strong Republican state and Republicans claim to be confident they can beat Murphy, whose friends are worried although they think his chances lately have been looking up. Murphy won by only 49,000 two years ago while Roosevelt was carrying the state by 300,000. Michigan since has had its sitdown strikes and Michiganders, according to Republicans, have grown hostile to John L. Lewis and C. I. O. Murphy managed to have the strikes settled without bloodshed, but Republicans and business men connect him with them and say he should have been firm against the strikers. Fitzgerald attacks federal and state spending and has support of numerous Townsendites but not of many WPA workers. Farmers are largely for him because they dislike low farm prices, C. I. O. and New Deal spending.

Murphy benefits from Roosevelt's popularity, from a record of a clean, efficient administration.

C. I. O. is working hard for him and he has A. F. of L. support, although C. I. O. lost the Detroit mayoralty election to a city machine which is helping Fitzgerald. Murphy boasts he settled the sit-down strikes without bloodshed and says he is no "killer." He displays letters from Alfred P. Sloan and other motor magnates praising his handling of the strike situation. His defeat would be both a personal and political blow to Roosevelt, who would promptly offer him a high New Deal post—perhaps the present supreme court vacancy.

Benson Target Of Conservatives

Benson of Minnesota, whose friends call him "a fine, honest, idealistic fellow with no political sense," suffers from defection of right-wing Farmer-Laborites, some of whom tried before the Dies committee to connect him with communism. All "big business" elements are against him, which may help or hurt. Stassen is a better campaigner and attracts conservative Farmer-Laborites as well as conservative Democrats.

Democratic National Committeeman Joseph Wolf has urged Democrats to back Benson, but Stassen and Democratic Congressman Elmer J. Ryan openly support each other. Benson energetically preaches Roosevelt and New Deal. Labor is behind him, but most farmers seem hostile. Although Stassen wages a relatively clean campaign, followers launch red-baiting, anti-Semitic propaganda against Benson and his administration. Benson has lost ground by losing his temper against certain Lutheran clergymen and Lindbergh relatives. It's a nasty close fight. Experts predict the victor will win by a small margin.

Phil La Follette will either win or lose to Heil by no more than 25,000 votes, according to one sagacious Wisconsin observer. Things looked black for Phil until Heil forces were revealed to have offered John B. Chapple, senatorial candidate on a Townsend ticket, $2,600 for his withdrawal and 26 speeches for Heil. Chapple called this a "bribe" and La Follette partisans make the most of it.

Republican candidates polled 225,000 primary votes as against but 155,000 for La Follette and conservative efforts are being made to smash the La Follette dynasty. Republicans appeal to farmers on a basis of low dairy prices. Friends of Congressman Thomas R. Amlie, defeated in the Progressive senatorial primary by but 9,000 voters, support the La Follette ticket lukewarmly and many Progressives accuse Phil of using "fascist" techniques, although he has labor support. Many on both sides say the result's a toss-up.

Liberalism, the New Deal and the "$30-every-Thursday" pension plan of which the Roosevelt administration wants no part figure in the campaign of Democrat Culbert L. Olson against Republican Governor Frank F. Merriam of California. So do proposed referendum laws, denounced by Olson, drastically limiting labor activities. Democrats are confident because their registration outnumbered that of the G. O. P. by 3 to 2. Merriam was elected in the state's feverish revolt against Upton Sinclair's candidacy and William Green's endorsement of him has been repudiated by the big A. F. of L. San Francisco Central Labor union. Olson has promised to free Tom Mooney if elected. Republicans also are definitely hopeful, believing reaction against C. I. O. and the "funny money" pension plan favor Merriam.

NEGROES ORGANIZE RED CROSS DRIVE

A special meeting of negro citizens of Monroe has been called for Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, at Martin temple, for the purpose of organizing for the American Red Cross roll call drive which gets under way November 11 and continues through November 24, according to an announcement Saturday by Rev. Irvine Garland Penn, pastor of Martin Temple C. M. E. church.

"Interest among negroes of Monroe in this year's Red Cross roll call is greater than ever before," Rev. Penn stated. "The reason for this is due to the American Red Cross rehabilitation program for negroes in their home life which has been one of the principal Red Cross activities. Also because of the immense help rendered negroes by the American Red Cross during recent floods in southern districts.

"In Monroe more than 196 visits have been made to homes of unfortunate negroes this year," Rev. Penn stated. "Nursing service, food, clothing and shelter are some of the benefits which hundreds of poor negroes in Monroe have received from the American Red Cross during the past year."

Through the department of home hygiene and care for the sick, the Ouachita parish chapter of the American Red Cross is teaching two large classes of negro women for better service as nurses, housemaids and cooks.

CHAPTER XIII

Sarto resumed his seat on the bench. Steve thought: Maybe with two of them coming in at once something will happen. Then he remembered that they would have only one gun. Woody had lost his in the landslide just as he and Nikki had lost theirs.

The two came into the clearing and Steve's hope fell when he saw Woody in the lead carrying one rifle. He didn't know Fiske's part in this game, but he felt sure the man was playing a leading role of some sort and any change would be better than the present situation. But with Fiske unarmed he couldn't do much.

Woody started to speak when he saw the quartet sitting tensely by the tree. But Sarto cut the words short before they were uttered.

"Get 'em up." The pistol made a menacing arc.

"You, bandylegs, drop the rifle. Now go over by the tree.

"Don't move, Fiske." The words cut like a knife. "Turn around and keep those hands up." He wrenched a blue revolver from a holster under Fiske's left arm.

"Now go over with the rest of them before I give you the works just for the fun of it."

Fiske's face was a quiet mask as he joined the others. Rance was tense. Like an animal ready to spring, Nikki thought. Her uncle was quiet, too. She felt Steve's shoulder against her own, saw his hand braced on the ground. Woody was a seething fury.

Sarto stood off and surveyed them. Only Fiske spoke.

"Where's Bancroft?" he asked.

"Ask Mallory," said Sarto contemptuously. "He'll tell you—if he doesn't get too jumpy and collect a bullet too. And that goes for the rest of you. I'm gettin' out of here, right now. But you're not going. You'll stay here. All but one of you. We'll take the horses. The rest of you can stay on this lousy mountain and starve for all I care.

"Hey, sheepherder. You, bandylegs. Get up. You're going back to the ranch with me. You're going to lead the way. But I got a job for you first. You can tie your friends up."

Woody rose slowly to his feet. His arms hung loosely at his sides. Every move he made was deliberate. His face was cold rage.

"Careful," said Uncle Jim. "Take it easy."

"Shut up," said Sarto. "I'm doin' all the talking. Bandylegs, get those ropes off the wall." He pointed to coiled riatas hanging against the cabin. To get them Woody had to pass directly in front of Sarto. He walked slowly, still deliberately. He didn't look at Sarto. His eyes were on the coiled lariats.

"Hey, Sarto," cried Uncle Jim. Sarto turned his head. Woody sprang.

He didn't try for the gun. He made a flying dive for Sarto's feet. The pistol went down in a clubbing arc. It struck a glancing blow and Woody went limp.

Rance was three feet away when Sarto raised the gun and fired point-blank. Rance twisted half sidewise as the bullet struck, but he went on. He hit Sarto like a fullback plunging into right tackle.

His shoulder caught Sarto high and knocked him sprawling to the ground. He landed with a cursing grunt and that vicious pistol spat blue flame again, but Rance's momentum carried him too far. The bullet thudded dully into the logs of the cabin.

Steve was on his feet with Rance, but his first thought was of Nikki. For the briefest split second of time thoughts in half-formed sentences ran through his mind. Then he remembered something once vaguely noted. Before the first sharp crack of the pistol he swung a swift left to Nikki's chin. He remembered the shock of surprise on her face as she straightened flatly.

Sarto was struggling to his feet after the second shot when Steve hit him. The blow behind the ear spun him around and Steve grabbed desperately for the gun. Sarto swung it above his head. Steve drove his fist into Sarto's stomach. The clubbing pistol grazed Steve's ear. It struck his shoulder with sickening force and he butted upward viciously. Sarto staggered back and Steve drove forward blindly, both fists hammering. They were on the ground and suddenly Sarto seemed to have only one arm. Then he went limp.

Steve opened his eyes and looked up. Fiske was pinning down the arm that held the pistol. Uncle Jim stood at Sarto's head holding the rifle that Steve sensed he had used to knock Sarto out.

A thousand red-hot needles jabbed at Steve's shoulder when he got up. Uncle Jim had started over to Rance. He was sitting up, dazedly. A red stain was spreading slowly on his shirt. They helped him to the bench and Uncle Jim ripped the shirt away with one swift motion.

"Flesh wound," he said after a minute's examination, and Steve felt a swift surge of relief. He looked at Woody. That little man was trying to get to his feet. With one hand he felt gingerly of his head. Steve helped him to a bench.

"What about Sarto?" Steve asked Uncle Jim.

"I reckon Fiske will look after him when he comes to—which won't be for a minute or two yet. I hit him a mite hard."

* * *

Steve saw Fiske squatting by Sarto. He was examining the pistol he had wrenched from the gunman's fingers. Then Steve heard his name called in a small voice. He hurried over and helped Nikki to her feet.

"Wh—what happened?" she asked faintly.

"You were right in line of fire, so—"

"So you hit me," she finished. "I know." She cradled her jaw gently in the palm of her hand. "You certainly did a swell job of putting me out of the battle." Then she saw Rance. Her eyes turned questioningly to Steve.

"Only a flesh wound," he said.

Then Fiske called.

"I expect we'd better truss this gentleman up before he comes to," he said. "Easiest that way."

"Sure," said Uncle Jim. "Steve, lend him a hand. Take one of these riatas and be darn sure you do a good job. He's a pretty bad hombre, judgin' from what he did to the rest of us. But I thought he'd call Woody bandylegs once too often." He grinned at Woody.

"Called me a sheepherder, too," muttered the guide.

Steve walked over to the cabin, but instead of reaching for one of the coils of rope, he leaned over the bench and came up with a rifle. The movement sent sharp pains through his shoulder, but he knew by this time it was only bruised.

Turning easily so he could cover Fiske by merely raising the gun, Steve said, a little wearily:

"We'll tie up Sarto, but first I want to know who Fiske is. One man's been murdered and a couple of others half killed on this trip. Before we go any further, I want to know why Fiske carries a revolver in a shoulder holster and just what his part is in this business anyway."

Fiske turned swiftly.

TWO GRASS FIRES

Two grass fires, one at 1016 North Eighth street and the other at 2917 DeSiard street, were extinguished early yesterday afternoon by members of the Monroe fire department.

SHREVEPORT LEGION PLANS CELEBRATION

SHREVEPORT, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—The most elaborate Armistice day program in the history of Shreveport will be held November 11, and members of Lowe-McFarlane post No. 14 of the American Legion, sponsors of the program, expect a large attendance from northwest Louisiana, east Texas and south Arkansas.

Highlights of the day's events will be an address by Lieutenant-General Robert Lee Bullard, one of the outstanding American generals in the World war, and a concert-dance at the Municipal auditorium with music by Henry Busse and his orchestra.

The day's program will open at 9:30 a.m. Armistice day with one of the longest parades ever scheduled in Shreveport. Included in the procession will be mechanized units from Barksdale field, the army air corps base, several bands and representative groups from ex-service men's organizations.

Memorial services will open, following the parade at 11 a.m. in the Municipal auditorium, with Commander Harry V. Booth of the Shreveport Legion presiding. "To the Colors" will be played by the Veterans of Foreign Wars drum and bugle corps, after which there will be a moment of silence and taps.

Invocation will be by Dr. Dana Dawson. "America" will be played by the Centenary college band. General Bullard, the speaker of the day, will be introduced by W. T. Mayo, chairman of the Legion's Armistice day committee. The Byrd and Fair Park bands will be heard in brief concerts before the closing prayer by Dr. M. E. Dodd at noon.

The annual Legion first aid contest will be held from 3 to 6 p.m. at the auditorium, with 20 teams from Texas, Oklahoma, Mississippi, Arkansas and Louisiana competing. Registered nurses from Shreveport hospitals will do the judging and the United States bureau of mines will be represented by seven of its safety experts.

OFFICERS INSTALLED

RED CROSS ROLL CALL

TALLULAH, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—The Red Cross roll call in Madison parish will begin November 11, according to Mrs. Charles Coltharp, secretary. The goal for the 1938-39 roll call is 1,000 members and the budget for the work in Madison parish is $2,500. Mrs. E. O. Edgerton is roll call chairman.

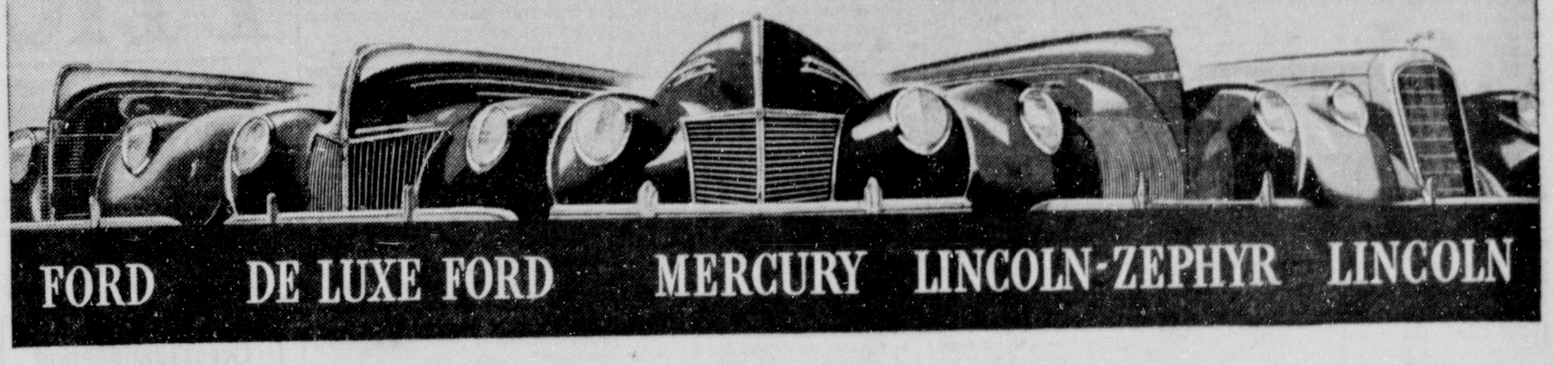
The Ford Motor Company now offers
FIVE QUALITY CARS


FORD DE LUXE FORD MERCURY LINCOLN-ZEPHYR LINCOLN

THE FORD V-8 is built to provide comfortable, dependable transportation at the lowest possible cost. It offers a choice of two V-type 8-cylinder engine sizes—the famous 85-horsepower engine for better performance—or the thrifty 60-horsepower engine for better economy. "60" owners regularly report 22 to 27 miles a gallon. The 1939 Ford is a handsome big car, inside and out. It has more room and an unusually large luggage compartment. It has big hydraulic brakes, built to strict Ford standards of safety and precision. There are three body types, three colors. Lower prices.
PRICES BEGIN AT $584
(Delivered in Detroit—taxes extra)

THE DE LUXE FORD V-8 is designed for people who want the basic Ford advantages with a little more luxury and style. Its flowing lines for 1939 are more modern than ever. It is roomy and richly appointed. Like the Ford V-8, it embodies important improvements in comfort, as well as big hydraulic brakes. The smooth efficiency of its 85-horsepower V-type 8-cylinder engine has been proved by millions of owners. In appearance and performance, in completeness of equipment, the De Luxe Ford sets a new high for low-price cars. Five body types, six colors. Lower prices.
PRICES BEGIN AT $684
(Delivered in Detroit—taxes extra)

THE MERCURY 8 is an entirely new car—and a new value. It takes its place between the De Luxe Ford and the Lincoln-Zephyr, promising in its price class the same satisfaction and pride of ownership. Skilful streamlines and a wide, roomy body give the Mercury something of the character of the Lincoln-Zephyr. Rich interior appointments reflect its outward beauty. Advanced engineering makes it unusually quiet and comfortable. It has a big new 95-horsepower V-type 8-cylinder engine and hydraulic brakes. Choice of four body types, eight colors.
PRICES BEGIN AT $894
(Delivered in Detroit—taxes extra)

THE LINCOLN-ZEPHYR V-12 is acknowledged to be the style leader of its era. It has turned modern automotive design in a new direction. Beneath the car's graceful streamlines, in closed types, is the first structure of its kind—the unit-body-and-frame. Steel panels are welded to a steel, truss-type framework. Powering the Lincoln-Zephyr is the V-type 12-cylinder engine—giving outstanding performance with unusual economy. Owners report from 14 to 18 miles on a gallon of gasoline. Performance is brilliant. The 1939 car has hydraulic brakes. Six body types, eight colors.
PRICES BEGIN AT $1326
(Delivered in Detroit—taxes extra)

THE LINCOLN V-12. "As nearly perfect a motor car as it is possible to build." Such is the Lincoln. This magnificent automobile is created unhurriedly in one of the world's famous precision plants, where the tradition is to build the best regardless of cost. The result is a car which provides luxurious transportation through the first and the second hundred thousand miles. The Lincoln V-type 12-cylinder engine is admired wherever motor cars are mentioned. There are many body types, including a wide range of designs by leading custom body builders.
PRICES BEGIN AT $4800
(Delivered in Detroit—taxes extra)

THE FIVE CARS in the Ford-Lincoln line for 1939 give you a choice of more than thirty different models—from which you can pick the one that fits your own ideas of size, style, power and price. Whichever you choose, whatever you pay, you'll get top value for your money.

That's true of the lowest priced Ford. It's true of the highest priced Lincoln. And it's true of the cars in between. All of them have one important thing in common—inherent quality.

The quality of Ford and Lincoln cars comes first from the fine materials that go into them—and the precision workmanship that produces them. But quality comes most of all from the fact that back of these cars is the only automobile plant of its kind—where production processes are controlled from iron ore to finished car—and savings passed along as extra value.

Typical of the quality in each car is its V-type engine—once found only in very expensive cars—and brought to all price fields only by Ford. V-type engines are compact and efficient. They deliver high power in proportion to their size—and smooth performance with unusual economy. They hold world's records on land, on sea and in the air.

Things are happening in the automotive world this year! Nowhere is the advance more marked than in the Ford Quality Group. It's sensible to see our dealers before you buy any car at any price.

ARMISTICE WEEK SEES ARMS RACE

World Prepares Feverishly For War 20 Years After Big Conflict

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—(AP)—The world enters Armistice week—20 years afterward—preparing feverishly for war at a cost which may reach $20,000,000,000 this year and even more in 1939.

In totalitarian and democratic countries alike the economic structure is burdened by the staggering cost of the arms race which has blotted out the bright hopes and expectations of November 11, 1918, when the World war ended.

Many foreign nations are devoting nearly 50 per cent of their national budgets to arms costs, paying none of their arms bill out of current revenue.

Except the United States, virtually every strong nation is operating on a war economy, diverting capital and savings into non-productive enterprises and forcing and expansion of heavy industry well beyond normal peace-time requirements.

This government itself is formulating a program of greatly increased armament outlays.

Many nations, particularly the dictator countries, have wiped out unemployment by rearmament. The question arises, in the opinion of some economists, whether disarmament is possible without throwing the world into a depression far greater than the last.

Political implications of the arms race have been called even more menacing. The foreign policy association, a private research organization, had this to say recently:

"For the democracies the ultimate cost of unlimited armament competition may be the loss of their free economies and the undermining of democracy itself. In order to accomplish its purpose (rearmament) the state is forced to appropriate a larger share of the national income, accelerate its own investment activity, intervene in the operations of the national economy, and suppress civil liberties."

President Roosevelt rejected recently a proposal by Governor Poindexter of Hawaii that more federal funds be devoted to municipal works at the expense of defense projects.

He has declared this country must continue to rearm unless and until other powers take positive steps toward disarmament.

STATE TO VOTE ON AMENDMENTS

was contested by Will Harvey Todd of Bastrop, first and second primary opponent of Mills.

The supreme court decided the case in favor of Mills less than a week before the election, with scarcely time enough left for printing and distribution of the ballots to the polls.

Democrats whose nomination will be affirmed Tuesday are: Louisiana: Senator John H. Overton and Representatives J. O. Fernandez, Paul H. Maloney, Robert L. Mouton, Overton Brooks, Newt V. Mills, Dr. John K. Griffith, Rene L. DeRouen and A. Leonard Allen.

Wade O. Martin, public service commissioner; Wynne G. Rogers, associate justice of the supreme court; Appellate Judges W. W. Westerfield, J. Hugo Dore and R. M. Taliaferro and two members of the state board of education, Mrs. E. H. Meade and George T. Madison.

Mississippi:

Representatives John E. Rankin, Wall Doxey, W. M. Whittington, A. L. Ford, Ross A. Collins, W. M. Colmer, Dan R. McGehee.

Independent candidates who filed notices with the Louisiana parish court clerks applying for the privilege of having voters write their names in on the ballot included:

'MYSTERY WOMAN' IN SPY TRIAL

Senta de Wanger, 31, the government's "mystery woman" witness in the espionage trial of three defendants at New York, here is shown leaving court after testifying that Otto Hermann Voss, one of the defendants, had associated with agents of a German spy ring operating in the United States. Miss de Wanger said that since last February she had been guarded by federal agents because "I was afraid for my life."

NEW VIEW GIVEN ON PAY-HOUR LAW

required basic minimum wage of 25 cents an hour.

"If this had been the intention of congress it could have been simply expressed," Andrews said. "No such intention can be derived from a fair reading of section 7 (of the law)."

In his opinion, Gall said the meaning of section 18 of the act had been the subject of much controversy. It reads:

"No provision of this act shall justify any employer in reducing a wage paid by him which is in excess of the applicable minimum wage under this act, or justify any employer in increasing hours of employment maintained by him which are shorter than the maximum hours applicable under this act."

"The administrator," said Gall, "at one time pointed out that it was nothing more than a 'pious hope' on the part of congress. At other times he has said that it could not be assumed that congress had written a meaningless provision into the law.

"It should be pointed out that there is no specific provision in the law penalizing a violation of this provision. Nevertheless, assuming that employers will wish to respect the spirit of the provision irrespective of penalties, it is important to note that there is no reference whatever in this provision to wage rates. The provision is aimed at 'reducing a wage.'

"Therefore, having in mind the purposes of the act, we are clearly of the opinion that at least so long as the total weekly compensation of an employe is not reduced there can be no violation of the act by a change in his wage rate, provided such change does not carry the regular rate below 25 cents an hour for the first 44 hours and 37 1-2 cents an hour thereafter."

Gall advised employers to "take all necessary steps by agreement with employes or otherwise to determine the new basic hourly rate which shall apply for the first 44 hours and the overtime thereafter."

If any other view were taken, Gall asserted, this would be the effect:

"The employer who has been paying a fairly high rate of compensation to his employes in the past is penalized by now having to increase compensation more than the low-wage employer, who thus becomes a beneficiary of the act. Furthermore, this anomalous situation would be created:

"That an employer could without violating the law employ new people at 25 cents an hour for the first 44 hours and 37 1-2 cents thereafter, but that if he keeps the present employes their rate must be determined entirely by what they were making prior to October 24. The result would be to encourage dismissal of some present employes and to substitute for them new employes whose base wage rate could be whatever the employer fixed unless he went below the absolute minimum of the act."

Administrator Andrews can give only an advisory opinion in interpreting the act. The final decision regarding its meaning rests with the courts.

INDUSTRY WELL AHEAD OF 1937

it seemed to have been aided last month by the passing of the September war scare, which threatened to halt the climb.

The automobile industry, leader of the 1933-37 business rise, came out of its downspin to make a powerful recovery teammate for building. Producers, riding the rising business tide, hurried the shift to manufacture of 1939 models and thousands of workers trooped back to assembly and accessory plants in the automotive centers.

Here is part of the record that made October, normally a month of expanding business in fat years, notable in the 1938 rise:

Steel production for the first time this year crossed the 1937 line, lifting the industry's operating rate to 56.8 per cent of capacity from 46.7 at the end of September and 22.5 early in July.

Automobile output rose to the highest level this year, approximating 80,000 units weekly at the end of the month compared with about 20,000 at the close of September, before production of 1939 models was in full swing.

Electric power consumption, again close to a new record cut down the year-to-year lag to 1.3 per cent at the end of October compared with six per cent at the finish of September. Power use was running more than 400,000,000 kilowatt hours a week ahead of the 1929 figures, although most barometers were well under the levels of that year.

Railroad traffic went about 700,000 cars weekly and also shortened the year-to-year decline.

The Associated Press industrial index, which makes allowance for seasonal fluctuations, moved up to 83.6 from 78.4 at the end of September.

NEW CENTRAL CHINA REGIME SEEN SOON

PEIPING, Nov. 5.—(AP)—At least preparatory framework of a new central Chinese government under Japanese auspices and the nominal leadership of a retired Chinese war lord is expected to be announced shortly.

This was learned today from sources which said Japan's ace political manipulator, Lieutenant-General Kenji Doihara, conferred for two hours yesterday with General Count Juichi Terauchi and emerged triumphant, having reached an agreement on details of the plan.

These sources predicted flatly the new regime would mean eventual elimination of western, including American, economic interests in China.

Major General Seichi Kita, Japanese military attache for China and often called father of the Peiping provisional government, did not attend the Doihara-Terauchi conference.

Kita was in Nanking at the meeting of the United Council of China. The council was organized in September to supervise affairs common to the Japanese-sponsored regimes at Peiping and Nanking.

With Kita were Wang Keh-Min, Chinese head of the Peiping regime and chairman of the new council, and other Peiping officials.

It was said the new central government would absorb the Peiping and Nanking governments.

GROWS TALL OKRA

HAMMOND, La., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Joe Boyd was bragging about his okra patch today. He exhibited a stalk of okra 14 feet long, containing 86 pods from 12 to 19 inches long. Boyd said he had many stalks 10 feet tall, and used a 16-foot high stepladder to clip the pods.

BALLOT TUESDAY TO SHOW POWER

policy, not domestic affairs, governed his action. Wilson's appeal failed to halt the party trend against him.

The circumstances make the Roosevelt campaign address of Friday night a unique document in political Americana. It contained surprises not only in the warmth and vigor of its intervention in the gubernatorial contests in New York and Michigan; but in the fireside chat form of its discussion of the liberal versus conservative issue.

He began his personal campaign activity on the note of liberalism at the White House last summer. He reiterated it in Georgia, South Carolina and Maryland in an unsuccessful effort to read out of his party Democratic senators he rated too constructive or "yes—but" obstructionists to his policies. He ended his campaign from Hyde Park on the same fighting note.

A point of interest in the Hyde Park address, to political observers, was the reiteration of the Roosevelt endorsement of Governor Frank Murphy of Michigan for reelection. That followed closely an even more strongly worded statement by the president, defending the Michigan executive against charges of "treasonable" conduct in handling the automotive sit-down crisis there a year ago.

His action raises afresh speculation as to what larger role Governor Murphy may be cast for, two years from now, if he is reelected next Tuesday.

MANY ORATORS MAKE LAST-MINUTE APPEALS

(By Associated Press)

Charges and counter-charges of responsibility for the country's economic woes came last night from Republican and Democratic orators making last-minute appeals for popular support at the polls Tuesday.

Both sides assumed that the paramount issue before the electorate in choosing new governors and congressmen, was the New Deal. Democrats rose vigorously to its defense while Republicans as spiritedly criticized it.

Former President Hoover, speaking in Spokane, Wash., charged the Roosevelt administration with ham-stringing its own efforts to restore prosperity by the use of "coercive" methods. He made this appeal:

"Give us the election of a new congress of independent men and watch America come back."

Across the continent at Greenwich, Conn., in his home state, Attorney General Homer Cummings appealed for support of the administration in an address entitled "America Must Not Turn Back." His theme was much like President Roosevelt's of Friday night, that continued "liberal government" is necessary to preserve New Deal enactments.

Hoover, making the last of three campaign speeches, traced recovery measures from the start of the 1929 depression and said the Democratic charge that the people were "neglected and starving" when his administration ended six years age "is a lie."

Recovery processes had halted the world-wide depression in 1932, he said, asserting that only America hesitated when Roosevelt took over the presidency. A second "depression" resulted, he declared, when the present administration's "artificial structure" encountered adverse court decisions and suffered from "coercive action against prices and bank credit."

"The major problem America confronts today is whether we shall shape our economic system on free men or whether we shall introduce into it a mixture of personal power with coerced or regimented men. That is the flaming conflict in the world today.

"With Mr. Roosevelt's election, America became involved in this conflict of systems. * * * With beguiling phrases Mr. Roosevelt has mixed some of the working parts of these coercive systems into American life.

"* * * My curiosity is whether it leads to complete fascism, to complete socialism or just plain economic nonsense."

Democratic Chairman James A. Farley, commenting yesterday on President Roosevelt's appeal from Hyde Park for the election of candidates "known for their experience and their liberalism," declared it was "devastating" to Republican chances in New York state.

Meanwhile, other leaders of both major parties assayed their prospects and issued optimistic predictions as to the outcome of congressional races.

Representative Martin of Massachusetts, chairman of the Republican congressional committee, said in a broadcast speech that "our last-minute reports from the field indicate notable Republican gains in the house and senate."

He forecast also "the election of Republican governors in half a dozen states now under Democratic administration and the return of several important state legislatures to Republican control."

"These results," he said, "instantly will release a strong flush of solid business recovery."

On the Democratic side Representative Drewry of Virginia, chairman of the congressional campaign committee, predicted that the Democrats would lose less than 50 house seats.

Recalling that the rule in most other mid-term elections had been for the party in power to suffer serious losses, he said:

"Such a victory (holding losses to fewer than 50 seats) would definitely establish that the people of this country approve the administration of national affairs by the Democratic party and wish its continuance in power for some time to come."

"The Republican high command," Drewry said, "has been repeatedly claiming that the Democratic loss this year will be from 50 to 80 seats. Even if this claim should be accurate, the Republican party would still be the weakest minority party since 1892, but we are not only not conceding any such loss, but we have reliable information that we will capture a number of seats now held by Republicans."

The senate campaign investigating committee gave promise of remaining one of the focal points of capital political interest right on through election day and beyond.

Chairman Sheppard, Democrat, Texas, reported yesterday that 50 candidates had spent from $5,000 to $100,000 in their primary races. He said the individual expenditures of many candidates were more than they would receive in salary for their entire six-year terms—if they were elected.

Sheppard said 208 candidates reported aggregate expenses of $1,018,111 in the primaries.

The General Welfare Federation of America, sponsoring a proposed two per cent gross income tax to finance pensions for all persons over 60 years old, reported that a "preponderant majority" of congressional candidates "favors larger old-age security pensions than now provided."

ROOSEVELT WILL ASK HUGE FLEET

methods over a period of several years. There has been no hint of a proposal to increase further the navy's new goal of 3,000 planes, set in the expansion act.

2. Undertaking immediately to equip the army's "initial protective force" of about 400,000, which includes the regular army and national guard, with "essential" semi-automatic rifles, anti-aircraft guns, bombs, tanks and gas masks.

3. Hastening the acquisition of war reserves for a force of 1,000,000 which, under war department plans, would take the field within a few months in the event of United States involvement in a new world war.

4. Various means to prepare industry to shift quickly and effectively in an emergency from peace-time production to mass output of planes and munitions.

By war department estimates the full war equipment for the initial protective force, excluding such things as readily obtainable motor trucks, would require an appropriation of $142,000,000.

General Malin Craig, chief of state, gave congress an estimate this year that the cost of this program would be $160,000,000, and $18,000,000 was provided toward meeting deficiencies, mostly in anti-aircraft guns and equipment.

The augmented air force, a fleet rivaling Germany's in size, would require a far greater sum, but the outlay would be spread over a number of years.

Without undertaking to predict definitely the war department outlay which the chief executive will recommend, some who have had a part in the defense resurvey believe the increase over this year's figure will at least match the $150,000,000 increase Mr. Roosevelt has projected for the navy.

The navy must have $150,000,000 additional, the president has said, to carry forward its warship construction program.

Applications for certificates of convenience and necessity for 19 new air routes have been filed with the civil aeronautics authority. These routes, largely in the Mississippi valley, would add more than 9,000 miles to the air transportation system.

Communications Chief Would Limit Use Of Words 'Flash' And 'Bulletin'

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Terror caused by a simulated news broadcast led Chairman Frank R. McNinch of the communications commission to issue a call today for a conference with radio chain presidents on the question of limiting radio use of the terms "flash" and "bulletin" to important bona fide news.

Using a news bulletin technique, the Columbia Broadcasting system presented last Sunday night an adaption of H. G. Wells' play, "The War of the Worlds."

Although it was explained at the start of the program and subsequently that the story was a dramatization, the broadcast account of the landing of strange men from another planet caused mass hysteria in many sections of the nation.

McNinch, who commented immediately that the incident was "regrettable," announced today that he had asked William S. Paley, president of Columbia; W. E. MacFarlane, president of the Mutual Broadcasting system, and Lenox Lohr, president of the National Broadcasting company, to meet with him next week. While McNinch did not specify the day, it was indicated the meeting might be Tuesday.

The purpose of the conference, McNinch said, would be to discuss "subjects pertaining to broadcast programs and especially the frequent and, at times, misleading use of the newspaper term 'flash' in radio programs of various types." He added:

"It is hoped and believed that a discussion of this subject may lead to a clearer differentiation between bona fide news matter of first-rank importance and that which is of only ordinary importance or which finds place in dramatics or advertising."

Under the communications act, the commission is expressly denied the power of censorship over the broadcasts of any station. It does, however, have a measure of "post-censorship." Each station must renew its license every six months. If the commission decides that its broadcasts have not been in the public interest, it may refuse to renew a license.

ALABAMA DEFEATS TULANE WITH FIELD GOAL

BRADFORD HERO OF GAME WITH PERFECT BOOT

Green Wave Outplayed By Crimson Tide; Score Comes Near End Of Battle

By Kenneth Gregory

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Repulsed at the goal line on numerous occasions by Tulane's brilliant defense, Alabama's Crimson Tide scored a field goal in the closing minutes to defeat the Green Wave 3 to 0 today.

For the second year in a row the victory margin was a goal from the field. Alabama won from Tulane at New Orleans last November as Sandy Sanford kicked the ball across for a 9 to 6 triumph with less than three minutes to play.

This afternoon it was Quarterback Vic Bradford who was the hero, with slightly more than four minutes of play remaining, Bradford, a product of a Memphis, Tenn., high school, stood at the 17-yard line with Herky Mosley holding the ball, and kicked it at dead center of the uprights.

Tulane, pre-game choice and previously undefeated in the Southeastern conference, was bottled up all afternoon by the crimson-shirted gridders. The Wave registered but two first downs to Alabama's 12 and only twice was able to cross midfield—then just to the Tide's 45-yard line.

The Crimson Tide, in registering its third conference victory against a lone set-back by Tennessee, struck early after the opening kickoff with a drive that carried 66 yards to Tulane's nine. From there on the Greenies were in the hole, never to recover to a point where they could display any of their offensive tactics.

On three other occasions the Crimson Tide struck at the Tulane goal only to be stopped by great defensive stands. In the second period, after Mosley had tossed a 29-yard pass to Fullback Charley Holm, Alabama got to the 14. Early in the third quarter the Tide took the kick-off on its 34 and Mosley led an aerial assault with the aid of End Perron Shoemaker and Bradford that ended on the Wave two. A first-period drive also was checked at the 14. The winning field goal followed an Alabama drive from its own 35 with Charley Boswell, a substitute back, providing the spark.

Boswell started it with an 18-yard sprint off tackle and connected with a 9-yard pass to Hal Newman and a 12-yard toss to Holm. On fourth down, Bradford was rushed into the fray and produced with a perfect kick.

PASS ENABLES ARIZONA TEAM TO BEAT GENTS

Wildcats Score In Fourth Quarter To Nose Out Centenary, 7 To 6

SHREVEPORT, Nov. 5.—(AP)—A goal line pass, nabbed just inside the end zone in the first minutes of the fourth period, carried the University of Arizona Wildcats to a 7 to 6 victory over the Centenary college Gents that was witnessed by a homecoming crowd of 6,000.

Fred Erdhaus, a six-foot-one-inch reserve wingman, made the grab that put the Wildcats back into the game after trailing the Gents by six points from the second period. George Ahee, guard, booted the extra point from placement to decide the battle.

The Gents scored by the air in the second quarter after a pass from Bynum to Manson had gained 45-yards and put the ball down on the Wildcats' 20. Weenie Bynum and Ed Whitehurst combined for an aerial shot to the five-yard stripe, from where the latter sprinted to the goal for a touchdown. Whitehurst's kick from placement was bad.

Their running attack held well in check through two and one-half periods, the Wildcats went to the air in the last minute of the third quarter. Calvert Svob, a reserve back, made a five yard backward pass to John Black who tossed 37 yards to Erdhaus, who caught the ball on the Gents 34 and raced to the 25-yard line before he was hauled down by Bynum. Svob, John Barringer and Black completed a lateral that put the ball on the ten. After Curtis Jones had tossed back for a three yard loss and Svob had picked up two and one-half yards Black and Erdhaus pulled the pass that scored the touchdown. Erdhaus caught the ball near the outside stripe of the end zone. Ahee then added the extra point.

Hattiesburg School Chalks Up 7-0 Victory Over Louisiana College

ALEXANDRIA, La., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Mississippi State Teachers college of Hattiesburg chalked up a hard-fought 7 to 0 victory today over the Louisiana college Wildcats.

Alessandri, hefty Mississippi back, plunged over for the lone touchdown in the third period after Watwood had broken loose around right end for 32 yards. A series of short drives brought the ball to the one-yard line for Alessandri's victory thrust.

Louisiana college made nine first downs to eight for the visitors. The Wildcats completed seven of 23 attempted passes for a gain of 73 yards, while the Mississippi Teachers completed two out of ten for 29 yards.

The Wildcats failed to take scoring advantage of six fumbles, five of which came during the first half.

LOYOLA BEATEN BY TEXAS TECH

LUBBOCK, Tex., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Texas Tech's undefeated and untied Red Raiders retained their perfect record today by smothering plucky Loyola of the South, 55-0.

The Raiders loafed through the first period, then ran up two touchdowns in the second period, two in the third, and four in the final.

Tech gained 301 yards on ground plays and 184 through the air. Loyola was hard-pressed to pick up 82 on running plays and 60 on passes.

The first touchdown came on a 35-yard heave from Barnett to Webb. Barnett also engineered the second score with a 26-yard pass to Tarbox.

In the third, a 35-yard aerial to Webb, and Webb's five-yard canter scored again. Hardly had the crowd settled back in their seats before the Raiders marched the ball back down the field, Tarbox spun over from the three.

McKnight scored in the fourth on an 83-yard broken field surge, and Milton followed with a 55-yard scoring dash through the line. The other scores were made by Balfanz, who plunged over from the 3, and Rankin, who swept across from the 4.

TRIBE TO FACE ARRAY OF STAR GRID PLAYERS

'Buzz' Borries, Former All-America At Navy, In Visitors' Backfield

The Northeast Center of L. S. U. Indians will be faced by the greatest array of gridiron stars ever to invade Monroe next Friday night, when they meet the United States Naval Air corps eleven here at Brown field.

The Naval Air corps' squad is bulging with former outstanding collegiate performers from Minnesota, Alabama, the U. S. Naval academy, Indiana, Villanova, Tennessee, Duke, Rutgers, Washington State and other colleges.

Leading the invasion from the air corps base at Pensacola, Fla., will be "Buzz" Borries, former all-America halfback for Navy. Borries, playing in the air corps backfield, is expected to be the hardest runner the Tribesmen have ever been called upon to stop.

Two other outstanding air corps players are Coffman, a 195-pound tackle, who starred as a member of a couple of Alabama's great teams, and C. E. Savage, 175-pound end, who hails from the College of the Pacific.

The Naval aggregation has been undefeated this year and is playing an all-collegiate schedule.

The game, which begins here at 8 p.m. Friday, will be played as a part of the American Legion's Armistice day program, it was announced last night.

The Naval Air corps' roster and former affiliations of the players has been announced as follows:

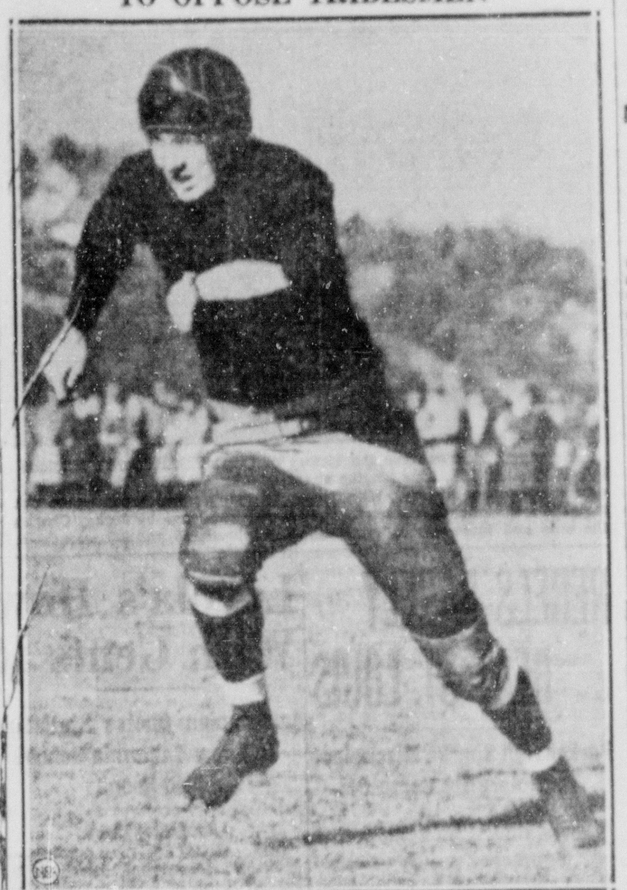
TO OPPOSE TRIBESMEN



"Buzz" Borries, shown above as he was burning up eastern gridirons as the Navy's all-America back, will come to Monroe next Friday night as a member of the United States Naval Air corps eleven of Pensacola, Fla., which will tangle with Coach Jim Malone's Northeast Center Indians. Borries is one of the air corps' outstanding backs and the invading team is replete with former collegiate stars from all over the nation.

OTHER FAVORITES TAKE TROUNCINGS ALONG WITH PITT

Northwestern, Michigan State, Princeton, Ohio State Among Defeated

By Herbert W. Barker

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Pitt's supposed all-but-invincible Panthers suffered their first defeat in 22 games today as football form took its worst shellacking of the season and the fine art of booting field goals was suddenly revived.

Hailed as perhaps the greatest team in Pitt history and rated for several weeks as the nation's No. 1 array, the Panthers were soundly whipped by their bitter city rivals, Carnegie Tech, 20-10. Carnegie, beaten only by Notre Dame, thus contributed its second major upset to the season's fun. Previously the Engineers had beaten Holy Cross.

If Pitt's downfall caused the greatest consternation among football followers, the Panthers had plenty of company for such other favorites as Northwestern, Michigan State, Princeton, Colgate, Ohio State, and Texas A. and M. all went down.

The greatest crowd of the day, 95,000, gathered in Los Angeles and saw California's previously unbeaten Golden Bears take a 13-7 beating from Howard Jones' Southern California Trojans, who moved into full command of the Pacific Coast conference race. Washington stopped Stanford, 10-7, while U. C. L. A., paced once more by Kenny Washington, halted Washington State, 21-0.

Wisconsin's Badgers and Purdue's Boilermakers together tied the Big Ten championship race into a terrific knot. Wisconsin upset Northwestern's hitherto unbeaten Wildcats, 20-13, while Purdue spilled Ohio State's Buckeyes, 12-0, with a last period surge.

Michigan State's Spartans, who had held Santa Clara to a 7-6 count, were

CARNEGIE TECH UPSETS PITTSBURGH, 20-10

TARTANS COME FROM BEHIND TO BEAT PANTHERS

Pitt Scores On Opening Kick-off, But Opponents Rally To Win

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 5.—(AP)—A valiant band of Carnegie Tech gridmen rose up today to pull mighty Pittsburgh from the nation's football throne and accomplish a feat other teams from coast to coast have been trying unsuccessfully to do for two years.

Pittsburgh was beaten, 20 to 10.

The Tartans, 3-1 short enders, made the famed Pitt forward wall look like a pile of cards, as Merlyn Condit, Ray Carnelly and George Muha plunged and drove furiously.

The game left most of the throng of 61,000 stunned. It was crammed with thrills from the minute Curly Stebbins took the opening kickoff and ran 97 yards for a Panther touchdown until the final seconds, when the desperate Panthers took to the airlanes.

Many a club might have taken it lying down after that heart-breaking (for Carnegie) dash of Stebbins. But six minutes later, Condit faded to Pitt's 33-yard line and looped a high pass over the goal to Muha.

Carnelly's placekick knotted the count. In the same first period Bill Daddio booted a neat field goal from the Carnegie 12, sending the Panthers in front again.

With seconds to go before the whistle ended the half, Carnelly's pass from the Pitt 33 landed in the arms of "Chick" Chickerneo and caromed over the goal into the arms of Karl Striegel, sub Tech end.

In the last period Carnegie struck pay dirt again. Petey Moroz, reserve back, got off a beautiful punt to the Pitt three-yard line and Larry Peace, reserve Panther back, responded with a sad return boot from behind his goal to Pitt's 22. Six plays later Muha rammed over from the two-yard line.

With the game drawing near its close, Dick Cassiano broke loose for a long dash to the Tartan 47 and a series of passes advanced Pitt to the 16 but four more passes over the goal fell incomplete behind the goal.

Carnegie Tech out-gained Pitt, 196 yards to 135, rushing the ball and made 13 first downs compared to Pitt's nine.

The victory broke a 22-game string of conquests run up by Pitt since they lost to Duquesne in 1936.

L. S. U. TO BATTLE AUBURN SATURDAY

Two Teams Will Meet On Gridiron For Fourteenth Time November 12

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—Louisiana State university and Auburn, football rivals for nearly four decades, will meet on the gridiron for the 14th time at Legion field in Birmingham next Saturday afternoon, November 12.

Louisiana State has won eight of the games played since the series opened with a 28-0 victory by Auburn here November 20, 1901. The Plainsmen have taken four games since then.

Coach Jack Meagher's team will be seeking its first victory since 1924. A 30-yard field goal by Williams gave Auburn its last win at Birmingham October 25, 1924.

L. S. U. will be after its seventh straight victory over the Plainsmen next Saturday. The Tigers won 10-0 and 9-0 in 1926 and 1927 respectively, both games being played at Montgomery.

Then followed a seven-year lapse with the Ole War Skule winning 20-6 here October 13, 1934. The Tigers won again here in 1935, 6-0, and took last season's game before 30,000 here by a score of 9-7. L. S. U. won 19-6 at Birmingham in 1936.

The results of other games:

1902: L. S. U. 5; Auburn 0, at Baton Rouge.

1903: L. S. U. 0; Auburn 12, at Auburn

1912: L. S. U. 0; Auburn 7, at Mobile.

1913: L. S. U. 0; Auburn 7, at Mobile.

NATCHITOCHES DEFEATED

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 5.—(AP)—The American High school of Mexico City defeated the Natchitoches, La., High school football team 19-0 today. The visitors never threatened while Halfback Llanero tallied twice for the American school on 20-yard runs and Constantine, quarterback, made the other touchdown.

NEW TURF KING GETS BIG HAND

REBELS BARELY BEAT ST. LOUIS

Parker Hall Sparks Mississippi To Victory By Score Of 14 To 12

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Inspired by the celebration of its golden anniversary of football, St. Louis university held the University of Mississippi, one of the nation's top elevens, to a 14-to-12 score today in an intersectional game before a homecoming crowd of 8,500.

The kicking toe of John Hartle, substitute St. Louis end, turned cold and cost the Billikens at least a tie. Hartle had missed only two placements for extra points in two years until today, when both his attempts failed.

Led by Parker Hall, 195-pound halfback, Ole Miss ripped through St. Louis for touchdowns the only two times they had the ball inside the opposition's 50-yard line.

Hall passed to Mississippi's first touchdown, set up the second and kicked both extra points.

Stunned momentarily by St. Louis' first-period touchdown, manufactured literally out of impending disaster, the Rebels hit their stride to score on a drive from their own 34-yard line on just four line plays and two long passes from Hall to Harvey Murphy, the second being received in the end zone.

Outclassed in the second and third periods, the Rebs cut loose their other touchdown drive midway in the fourth quarter and marched all the way from their own 38 in eight plays. John Lehnhardt plunged over from the five after Hall had gained most of the yardage.

St. Louis' first counter resulted from a midfield running play that didn't click. Mel McGonnigle was crowded back to his own 45 and passed 25 yards to Denny Cochran, sparkplug of the St. Louis team. Cochran ran 35 yards unmolested for the touchdown.

Aided by two stiff Rebel penalties, St. Louis drove from its own 37 for the second score in the last two minutes of the game. The Bills outgained Mississippi 100 yards to 72 through the air but gave ground in all other departments. The first downs were 12 to 7 and the Rebels outgained them, 198 to 63 yards, by rushing.

NORMAL NOSES OUT STEPHEN F. AUSTIN

NACOGDOCHES, Tex., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Wiggins pitched a 27-yard pass to Perkins for a touchdown to give the Louisiana Normal Demons a 6-0 victory over the Stephen F. Austin college Lumberjacks here last night.

The pay-off pass came as the climax of a 54-yard surge near the end of the first period. The Lumberjacks threatened twice in the first period, advancing to the Normal 2-yard line at one time and driving to the 15 later.

Loyola's Howl About Game With Gents Riles Mr. Brush

Louisianian Quotes Statistics To Show California School Also Rough

By Robert Myers

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 5.—(AP)—A gentleman identifying himself as W. Paxton Brush of Louisiana called up today and said he might bust wide open if he didn't get a chance to speak.

Pressed for further personal background, for it was evident W. Paxton Brush was breathing fire, he advised he once lived on Tchoupitoulas street in New Orleans but had grown weary of spelling it for strangers and had moved to Opelousas, which is quite a long way from Shreveport unless they've fixed the roads since he left.

Anyhow, Mr. Brush said he was "getting mighty riled up," to quote a familiar saying down in Opelousas, of reading, in the papers here how Los Angeles' Loyola university football team was defeated by Centenary's Gentlemen last Saturday at Shreveport.

"The boys kept repeating they were robbed, slugged, maltreated, mismanaged and man-handled by Centenary and the officials.

"And worse than that," exclaimed Mr. Brush, with mounting passion, "they said southern hospitality was a myth, I tell you, I have to speak. I must speak.

"Now we in Louisiana won't claim that the Gentlemen don't forget their manners once in a while on a football field, but neither was Loyola guilty of parlor etiquette when the Gentlemen played out here last year.

"But look at Loyola's record for this season. I did and am prepared to give it," said Mr. Brush, a rustle of papers coming with his words.

"In five games Loyola played before Centenary the Lions were penalized 325 yards for various offenses. Their opponents were penalized 70. Against the Gentlemen, Loyola was penalized 150 yards, Centenary 25.

"Now don't tell me," said Mr. Brush, "that Loyola was offside or took too many times out to the extent of 325 yards. I know differently, because I've seen them play. Against Arizona they lost, not only the game, but 65 yards—for holding! They held themselves right out of that game.

"Against little Cal-Tech, which hasn't won a game in years, Loyola lost 90 yards on penalties to Cal-Tech's nothing. Redlands, another weak one, was penalized 20 yards, Loyola 70. Amos Stagg's helpless Pacific lost 15, Loyola 65; St. Mary's 15, Loyola 35. The total count, including Centenary, on penalties, shows Loyola with 475 yards lost to its opponents' 95.

"That is my speech, with one further addition," said Mr. Brush. "It has to do with the pot calling the kettle black. Maybe you've heard of it. Goodbye."

Mr. Brush hung up.

BULLDOGS DROP PANTHERS FROM CONFERENCE RACE

LAKE PROVIDENCE, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—The Lake Providence High school Panthers were eliminated from the Class B race yesterday by the Wisner Bulldogs who nosed out the locals, 7 to 6. The defeat of Lake Providence left Ferriday, Newellton and Waterproof the leading contenders for the district crown held last year by Columbia.

The Bulldogs, although already beaten this season, have played their best games against teams over which they were conceded little chance of victory. Wisner also held the Clarks Lumberjacks to a scoreless tie, which is the only blot on the Lumberjacks' record.

According to Chinese tradition, the use of cloth was evolved from the practice of women carrying their children in fiber nets.

VILLANOVA DROPS AUBURN, 25 TO 12

Undefeated Eastern Eleven Humbles Stubborn Southern Team

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Undefeated Villanova uncovered a new forward passing sensation in Sophomore Nick Basca today to humble a stubborn Auburn eleven, 25 to 12, before a crowd of 17,000 and stretch an unbeaten streak to 17 straight games.

Basca, a 165-pound halfback, completed nine of 20 forwards for a gain of 249 yards. Three of the nine resulted in touchdowns while another pass was completed on the Auburn four, leading to the Wildcats' other score.

The southerners outgained Villanova on the ground, 183 yards to 114, and piled 15 first downs to 11, but except for McGowan's 19-yard forward to Pearson in the second quarter and Haynsworth's plunge from the Villanova two in the last period, the Wildcats frustrated all of Auburn's scoring threats.

The game was only a few minutes old when Basca passed to Bukowski in the end zone to complete a 60-yard drive. A few minutes later, with the ball on the Auburn 45, Basca faded back and heaved a long forward to Bukowski on the goal line.

Auburn came back in the second quarter and drove 55 yards for a touchdown, with McGowan leading the way.

Nowak's recovery of an Auburn fumble on the visitors' 43 started the Wildcats off in the second half. Basca passed to Nowak on the 18, then on a tackle-eligible play, passed to Monago on the four, from where Mazzei went over.

Villanova's last score came on a 45-yard forward lateral pass, Basca to Nowak to Kuber.

CIFERS SETS NEW GRID SCORING MARK

KINGSPORT, Tenn., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Eighteen-year-old Bobby Cifers, sensational halfback of the Kingsport High Indians, was hailed today as the new high school scoring sensation of the nation after bettering the mark of 211 points run up last year by Bill de Correvont of Chicago's Austin High.

Cifers boosted his season's total to 213 last night, scoring five touchdowns and three extra points in leading his team to a smashing 41 to 0 victory over Bristol.

In nine games played this fall, Bobby, 183-pound triple-threater, has scored 32 touchdowns and 21 extra points. His wildest spree was at the expense of Jacksonville, Fla., High when he romped to six touchdowns and kicked three extra points from placement for a total of 39 points.

Bobby says his scoring exploits are made possible by Kingsport's fine line.

"Why, without those boys to make the holes and clear the way, I wouldn't be able to get to first base," he explained. "All I have to do is run."

TIGERS TRIUMPH OVER MAROONS BY 32 TO 7 MARGIN

Chambers, Soph Halfback For Losers, Gives Bayou Bengals Jitters

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Louisiana State swept to victory today over Mississippi State, 32 to 7, in a loosely played football game but Frank Chambers, little sophomore halfback for the losers, gave the Bayou Tigers the jitters all afternoon.

Chambers set the stage for Mississippi State's only touchdown with a dazzling 53-yard run. Harvey Johnson carried the ball over for the Maroons a few plays later.

L. S. U. clearly outclassed the Mississippians and the Bayou Tigers had little trouble taking the honors in the 33rd renewal of the rivalry between the two schools.

Mississippi State fumbles gave L. S. U. its first two touchdowns. Charles Erdman, L. S. U. sophomore back, scored on a neat 23-yard run after one fumble and Red Whitman, Tiger first-year tackle, grabbed the ball in the air on another hobble for a second touchdown. Whitman ran 24 yards.

Chambers came in in the first quarter as a substitute for Bruce for Mississippi State. He dashed off tackle through a half dozen L. S. U. linemen, twisting and turning, and sidestepped one tackler after another down the field until Jake Staples of L. S. U. downed him on the L. S. U. 18. Mississippi State made a first down and Johnson carried over for the only Maroon touchdown.

L. S. U. linemen drove deep holes through the lighter Maroon line in the second period, clearing the way for a 70-yard march. Roy Joe Anderson plunged over for the score and Guy Milner, who came in just for the kick, made the extra point from placement.

The prettiest play of the game gave L. S. U. a touchdown in the third, when Jabbo Stell lofted a pass to Ken Kavanaugh who stood close to the sidelines. Kavanaugh sped down the edge of the field, dodging tacklers at full speed, on a 52-yard touchdown play.

Chambers ran back the L. S. U. kickoff at this stage of the game nearly 60 yards but the Tigers were offside and the play was called back for another kickoff. Stell and Bob Fife alternated carrying the ball for L. S. U. in the fourth period on the final touchdown march. Stell spun through tackle for a dozen yards to within inches of the goal and Fife carried the ball over.

Colorful celebrations before the game and between halves marked "Army day" for L. S. U., during which Brigadier General John J. O'Keefe, adjutant general of the Mississippi national guard, and Brigadier General Ray Fleming, adjutant general of the Louisiana national guard, reviewed the L. S. U. cadet corps. Governor Richard Leche also reviewed the troops. O'Keefe represented Governor Hugh White of Mississippi, who was unable to attend.

Beasley Winner Of Annual Superintendents' Tourney

Brown Paper Mill Executive Cops First Prize In Play At McGuire Club

With approximately 50 players competing, Bun Beasley, of Brown Paper mill, won the annual golf tournament of the American Pulp and Paper Mill Superintendents association at McGuire Park Golf club yesterday afternoon.

The golf tournament is a feature of the annual fall meeting of the southern division, which attracted mill superintendents and other paper mill executives from Maine to Texas. The convention was held here Friday and Saturday.

George Koehke won second prize in yesterday's tournament and Leonard L. Vann, of New Orleans, took third prize. The tournament was an 18-hole event.

A sweepstakes event also was held in connection with the tournament, and was won by A. D. Lever. M Nauver took second prize, third place went to L. Simpson and H. Vandenberg took fourth prize.

A number of low scores were registered during the afternoon's play, according to Jim McKenzie, McGuire club pro, who termed the tournament one of the most successful of the annual fall meeting.

Following the completion of the tourney, prizes were awarded at the McGuire clubhouse to the participants, all of whom were high in their praise of the West Monroe course.

GEORGIA TECH BEATS KENTUCKY IN WACKY TILT

Failure To Cover Blocked Point-After Kick Costs Wildcats Game

ATLANTA, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Georgia Tech caged a rip-tearing Kentucky Wildcat, 19-18, today in as wacky a football game as was ever lost by blocking a point-after.

The payoff point came after Tech's first touchdown when Carl Combs smashed through and blocked "Buck" Shaw's dropkick cleanly, but the alert sub snatched up the bounding ball and raced wide around left end for the extra point.

The supposedly toothless Bluegrass Cats turned up with a mouthful of fangs that ripped the heretofore stubborn Engineers' defense for 350 yards by land and air while Tech could go but 186.

Dave Zoeller, No. 1 tooth, started the first score from the Kentucky 15 and cashed in by passing 27 yards to End Bill McCubbin who scampered 30 yards more.

A minute later Bartlett quick kicked to the Kentucky 1 where Page recovered a fumble by Zoeller and Bartlett bucked over on the next play. The screwy point after episode followed at once.

Tech grabbed another break to go ahead soon after when Cushing recovered Combs' fumble on the Blue Grass 32 and the Engineers pounded over, Thrash going the last 14 on an end around.

It looked like a runaway in the second frame when Tech took a punt at the enemy 40 and pounded down with Wheby, sub back, going the last 3 on a reverse.

But Gibson punted out short on the Cat 37 and Combs and Sub Davis ripped through and over the enemy to the 8. Ishmael, another sub, smashed across.

Kentucky drove the home customers crazy in the last stanza by marching 86 yards on 17 plays, Zoeller passing the last 17 yards to Shepherd, who snatched the ball from two defenders' hands on the goal line. Again Davis' kick missed.

The lineups:

Kentucky	Pos.	Georgia Tech

AGGIE-PEL BATTLE ENDS DEADLOCKED

GILBERT, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—The Gilbert High school Aggies and the Louisiana Training institute's Pelicans from Monroe battled to a scoreless tie here yesterday afternoon on a rain soaked field. The Pels had slightly the better of first downs, 10 to 9.

Both teams threatened to score twice, but good defensive work by the opposing forces checked each touchdown drive. The Pels looked good on passes, despite the wet ball and muddy field, and their blocking was a feature of their commendable performance.

Kimball, quarterback, and Wilson, fullback, were outstanding for the locals, while Davis and Phillips were the luminaries of the L. T. I. combination.

MISSISSIPPI COLLEGE DEFEATS SPRING HILL

CLINTON, Miss., Nov. 5—(AP)—Captain Joel Hitt of Mississippi college, second place man in the Dixie conference scoring race, added 23 points today as he led his mates to a 35-0 triumph over Spring Hill college of Mobile.

Hitt caught passes for two touchdowns, ran 42 yards for another on an end-around play, added a point from placement, and blocked a pass and a punt behind the Badger goal line for automatic safeties

Spring Hill threatened twice on passes but lost the ball on interceptions after approaching the Mississippi goal. Captain Olaf Fink might have been a Badger hero with better support, but was held to short gains.

HEADLINE BATTLE IN SOUTHEASTERN WON BY ALABAMA

Tennessee, Loop's Only Unbeaten Team, Easily Defeats Chattanooga

ATLANTA, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Alabama's once-defeated Crimson Tide tilted the Southeastern conference gridiron balance slightly today with a 3 to 0 field goal victory over powerful Tulane in the circuit's headliner.

With about four minutes to play, Vic Bradford, Alabama quarterback, booted a goal from the nine-yard line.

Tennessee's great team, the loop's only undefeated member, coasted to a 45 to 0 victory over a light University of Chattanooga eleven and prepared for an important test next Saturday against once-beaten Vanderbilt, which defeated a stubborn Sewanee outfit, 14 to 0, today.

The University of Georgia played and won its first conference game, breaking down a stubborn Florida team at Jacksonville in the final period and emerging victorious, 19 to 6.

Louisiana State university easily defeated Mississippi State at Baton Rouge, 32 to 7, in the 33rd annual renewal of their rivalry.

Georgia Tech at Atlanta won by one point for the second time this season, nosing out a pass-mad Kentucky team, 19 to 18. Tech credited its victory to the heady work of Buck Shaw, a substitute, whose drop kick for extra point was blocked. Shaw picked up the ball and raced around end for the point.

The University of Mississippi continued its brilliant play against intersectional opponents, defeating St. Louis university at St. Louis, 14 to 12—a margin of two points after touchdown. The Mississippians trounced George Washington university, 25 to 0, last week.

On the other hand, Auburn lost its second successive game against outside opposition, bowing to Villanova, 25 to 12, at Philadelphia. The easterners scored three of four touchdowns on passes.

NAVY EASY VICTIM FOR NOTRE DAME ELEVEN

IRISH, HELD IN CHECK, DEFEAT SAILORS, 15-0

Game Far From Close; Third Stringers On Field Before End

By Paul Mickelson

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Notre Dame's greatest football team since the last glorious 1930 model, turned out by Knute Rockne, rolled over Navy, 15-0, today as 62,000 half-soaked spectators wondered what the score really could have been if Coach Elmer Layden hadn't hooked the leash on his touchdown makers.

Statistics very often lie and today they did just that. While they gave Navy 11 first downs to Notre Dame's six and 127 yards gained from rushing to 150 for the Irish, the game was far from close. Before it was all over, the third team was on the field, forcing a safety for the final Irish score.

Navy, now twice-beaten and twice-tied as against a clean slate for the Irish, threatened several times.

Notre Dame, outplayed in the first period, which saw the Middies fail in a field goal attempt after reaching the Irish three-yard stripe, struck with its first team midway in the second period, scoring on a bewildering march of 79 yards by deceptive reverses and end sweeps.

Bob Saggau opened the drive and finished it. He and Louis Zontini rushed the ball for gains from four to 22 yards a whack at the tired Navy wall to the 16. There, Saggau faked a pass and raced around his right down the sidelines for a touchdown. Zontini place-kicked the added point.

In the closing seconds of the second period, Navy brought the spectators to their feet with a rally that just missed. The ball was on Notre Dame's four, but a penalty for excessive time out and the alert Irish secondary snuffed the chance just as the half ended.

A fumble by Anderson, recovered by John Kelly for the Irish on the Sailors' 18, opened the gates for Notre Dame's second touchdown. Six plays later and the Irish, aided by an offside penalty, were over the line.

It was desperation that netted the final two Irish points. From behind his own goal, Cliff Lenz, another of Navy's fine aerial artists, tried to get off a pass. Badly rushed, he was four yards behind his goal when he made the throw. In rushed George Kassas. He batted the ball and it fell for a safety.

JONESBORO-HODGE TROUNCES ARCADIA

JONESBORO, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—The Jonesboro-Hodge Tigers, sporting their best team in years, walloped the Arcadia Hornets, 38 to 0, here last night in a non-conference game.

The Tigers, ranking right along with Ruston, Minden and Tallulah as the north Louisiana district's leading Class A contenders, have three more tough opponents to face, however, to remain in the conference championship race.

Coach "Sonny" Maroney's Bengals meet Mansfield, conqueror of Homer, defending state champions, 32 to 6, here next Friday night. On the following Thursday they engage Homer's Pelicans at Homer, and then return home on Thanksgiving day for a battle with the Ruston Bearcats.

The locals have scored four conference victories and beaten two Class B foes. Their remaining games are all with conference opponents.

The Jonesboro-Hodge aggregation held the Hornets, defending district Class B titleholders, completely in check here yesterday, while the Bengal offensive went wild.

A feature play of the victory over Arcadia was the 55-yard return of a punt by Hayward Hargrove behind spectacular blocking by Cercy Frey. On another occasion, Livy Eiland, end, blocked a Hornet punt, recovered the ball and raced 30 yards for a touchdown.

Touchdowns were scored by Hargrove, Eiland, Frey, Whitten and Richardson. Whitten, on an intercepted pass, ran 80 yards late in the game to cross the Arcadia goal only to have the play called back when Jonesboro was penalized for clipping.

SEWANEE EASILY BEATEN BY VANDY

Commodores, Using Reserves Most Of Game, Triumph By Score Of 14 To 0

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Vanderbilt, using reserves for three quarters of a thrill-less game, won its 11th consecutive victory over stubborn Sewanee today, 14 to 0, before 7,000 spectators.

The Commodores, beaten only by Louisiana State this season, stuck to straight football, punched over touchdowns in the first and second periods and then coasted while the Tigers vainly tried to puncture the Vandy defense.

Only once, late in the final quarter, did Sewanee threaten to score and then the attack was repulsed on the 6-yard line.

Vanderbilt, getting a punt on its own 47, wasted no time and effort in driving across the double stripes in the first quarter. Almost effortlessly, Bert Marshall and Roy Huggins battered the Tiger line for consistent gains before Marshall slipped off right tackle for the tally.

In the next period the second team started a drive on its own 38 that ended when Turney Ford, sub for Huggins, cracked center for the second touchdown. Junius Plunkett, Marshall's sub, dropkicked the point after.

The naval aggregation hasn't been beaten this year and their goal remains uncrossed, according to reports here, and evidently Coach Malone didn't know what he was getting into when he put the air corps eleven on his schedule.

Coaching the invading force are Lieutenant J. W. Byng, head coach; Lieutenant E. J. O'Neil, line coach; and Lieutenant J. E. Dalquest, backfield coach.

It will be Center's first game with the aggregation from Pensacola. A game was scheduled for last November but was cancelled.

After battling Southeastern Louisiana to a scoreless tie here Friday night, the Indians were allowed to rest yesterday, but Coach Malone will have them back at hard work tomorrow.

O'BRIEN SPARKS T. C. U. TO VICTORY OVER TULSA

TULSA, Okla., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Texas Christian's power and precision kept it in the select circle of undefeated football teams today. The University of Tulsa was the Horned Frogs' seventh victim of the season, 21 to 0.

Striking during the first ten minutes of the game, the swift Christian attack made two touchdowns before the Golden Hurricane could find its wits. Then Tulsa stiffened and fought on comparatively even terms until the fourth, when T. C. U. put another touchdown count of seven points on the scoreboard.

Little Davey O'Brien, brilliant on the ground and in the air, was, as usual, the spearhead of the Christian drive.

OTHER FAVORITES TAKE TROUNCINGS

upset by Missouri, 6-0, as Paul Christman scored the lone touchdown of the game. Rutgers and Princeton renewed the oldest of all intercollegiate football rivalries and the former won, 20-18, for its second victory in a series that began in 1869. Syracuse, meanwhile, scored its first victory over Colgate in 14 years, 7-0.

Texas A. and M. bowed to Southern Methodist, 10-7, as Joe Pasqua booted a 45-yard field goal in the last 30 seconds of play. Five other major games were decided by field goal margins. Fordham whipped St. Mary's 3-0 on Wilbur Stanton's boot from the 22-yard line; N. C. State bowed to Manhattan by the same count on Manlio Boverini's kick from 27 yards out; Joe Schuehle's field goal from the 25 yard line in the last 50 seconds gave Rice a 3-0 decision over Arkansas, and Vic Bradford's kick from the 17-yard line enabled Alabama to turn back Tulane, also by a 3-0 count. Utah State won from Brigham Young by the same method and score.

The wave of form reversals failed to affect such leaders as Tennessee, Dartmouth, Notre Dame, Oklahoma, and Texas Christian while Duke, undefeated and unscored upon, remained idle.

Notre Dame easily swept past Navy, 15-0; Oklahoma continued its march toward the Big Six crown by whipping Kansas State, 26-0; Texas Christian toppled Tulsa, 21-0; Tennessee pushed over Chattanooga, 45-0, and Dartmouth toyed with Dickinson, 44-6.

Iowa State, Western Reserve, Boston college and Villanova also maintained their unbeaten status. Iowa State topped Drake, 14-0; Western Reserve edged out West Virginia, 7-0; Boston college ripped through Indiana, 14-0, and Villanova trounced Auburn, 25-12.

Harvard and Columbia contributed intersectional victories for the east, the former spotting Chicago two touchdowns and then winning, 47-13, while Columbia trounced Virginia, 39-0. Furman, of the Southern conference, tripped Marshall, 18-13.

Penn's last period drive at Ann Arbor failed to overtake Michigan's early lead and the Wolverines won, 19-13.

Holy Cross' passing attack buried Temple under a 33-0 count as Yale rallied late to trip Brown, 20-14; Lafayette upset Penn State, 7-0, and Army had to call on its first-stringers to whip Franklin and Marshall, 20-12.

Minnesota stayed in the running in the Big Ten by routing Iowa, 28-0, while Nebraska scored its first victory of the season, a 16-7 conquest of Kansas. In the Southwest conference, Baylor scored over Texas, 14-3, to join S. M. U. and Rice among the day's winners.

Vanderbilt, Georgia, Georgia Tech and Louisiana State all won Southeastern conference decisions. Vanderbilt had trouble with Sewanee, 14-0; Georgia Tech just managed to nip Kentucky, 19-18; Georgia whipped Florida, 19-6, and Louisiana State mopped up Mississippi State, 32-7.

South Carolina and Clemson scored notable intersectional victories for the Southern conference. The former tripped Duquesne, 7-0, while Clemson was mowing down George Washington, 27-0. Conference play was marked by Virginia Military's 6-6 tie with Wake Forest and North Carolina's hard-earned 7-0 victory over Virginia Tech.

Brigham Young's defeat by Utah State enabled Utah to take the lead in the Rocky mountain "Big Seven" race although the Utes got only a scoreless draw with Colorado.

CLARKS LUMBERJACKS BEAT LEESVILLE, 24-6

CLARKS, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—The Clarks Lumberjacks returned home today with a 24-to-6 victory over the Leesville Class A aggregation, which they defeated at Leesville last night. It was the first time in four years that Leesville had been beaten on their own field.

TROJANS WALLOP BEARS, 13 TO 7 BEFORE 95,000

Winning Streak Snapped With Forward Passes And Power Plays

By Robert Myers

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Southern California's Trojan warriors derailed the California Rose Bowl special here today, taking to themselves the inside track to the Pacific Coast conference football championship and the Pasadena bowl game January 2.

A record-breaking crowd of 95,000 saw the Trojans dynamite California, 13 to 7.

California's streak of 18 consecutive victories, topped by its triumph in the Rose Bowl last New Year's day, was snapped by lightning and powerhouse thunder.

The crowd sat stunned as the Bears, 10-7 favorites, were held to two lone first downs, the first of which came 54 minutes after the game began.

Leading the Trojan climb back to triumphant heights was Grenville Lansdell, flashy quarterback who pitched strike after strike to his pass receivers, and scored the first Trojan touchdown in the third quarter on a sweep around California's left end after a six-yard jaunt, ending a drive of 40 yards in six plays.

Troy forged into a further lead in the fourth quarter when its second string backfield lugged the ball on straight running plays 50 yards, Jack Banta crashing the California right side for the touchdown from the one.

California battled furiously to stem the Trojan tide, and twice stopped it within the one-yard line, but was unable to generate a scoring punch worthy of moment until late in the final period.

The Bears took to the air and Vic Bottari, who had been expected to prove his all-America claims but who failed dismally, got hot enough to pass his mates 66 yards with Morely Matthewson, right end, snagging a final pass good for 38 yards and the lone Bear touchdown.

California was lucky the score wasn't bigger. The Trojans rolled up a total of 378 yards via air and ground to the Bears' 68, and 20 first downs to the Bears' two.

HIGH SCHOOL BOWL BATTLE IS PLANNED

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 5.—(AP)—The Louisiana Sports association, a corporate body, announced today it would stage its "national high school football championship" game here at Louisiana State university stadium New Year's eve.

The announcement was made by Walter W. Cunningham, president of the association.

Cunningham said the association's executive committee was convassing leading high school teams over the nation and would invite the two best to participate in the game.

The Louisiana State High School Athletic association has endorsed the game and given permission to the association to consider the Louisiana high school champion team as a candidate in the selections.

Promotion of the high school classic is the idea of Governor Richard Leche of Louisiana, who fostered formation of the association, a non-profit organization. Cunningham said a group of 225 businessmen and sports enthusiasts have contributed enough money to guarantee the game.

MINNESOTA SWAMPS IOWA ELEVEN, 28-0

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Tuning up for a comeback bid against Notre Dame next Saturday, Minnesota smothered Iowa's hapless Hawkeyes, 28 to 0, before 42,000 persons today.

The Golden Gophers won as they pleased, leading 14 to 0 at the half and using regulars sparingly.

Iowa never threatened, getting only four first downs to the victors' 19 and reaching Minnesota territory only once. That drive ended at the Gophers' 41.

The winners got most of their tremendous yardage on straight football although a plunge by Marty Christiansen followed by a lateral to Bob Paffrath, sub back, gained 45 yards and set up the third touchdown.

Winnfield Smothered, 47-0, By Neville High's Eleven

By Paul Martin

The Tigers of Neville High school, after disastrous results with several of the state's outstanding Class A and double A teams, enjoyed victory in a big way last night as they handed the Winnfield High school Tigers a 47-to-0 defeat at Northeast Center of L. S. U.'s stadium here.

Neville scored in every period and the second team, which started the battle, played about half of the game.

The local Bengals got a safety to start their scoring and from then on the touchdowns came regularly with the inexperienced Winnfield aggregation unable to check the surging Neville forces. However, with the exception of a touchdown by Guy Miller, reserve quarterback, the old Neville regulars accounted for six touchdowns.

Miller scored the first touchdown soon after Neville had gained two points by a safety when he slipped through left tackle for 40 yards and the tally. Vaughan Payne, regular quarterback, scored twice, on 20 and ten-yard jaunts through the line; "Red" Rivers added a touchdown on a seven-yard plunge through the line; Bilbo Duke scored another on a 25-yard jaunt; Earl Vigg took a 28-yard pass from Payne and raced 15 yards more to score; and Jack Lanham accounted for the final touchdown on a 47-yard dash through the line.

Neville drove to the Winnfield three-yard line early in the first quarter on four straight first downs, but fumbled and the invaders recovered on their own 5. Broussard attempted to kick out, but the punt was blocked. Broussard, however, covered the ball behind his own goal and it was a safety for Neville.

Tinnerello, a reserve Winnfield back, then kicked off to Jasper Haddad on the local 45, and the oval was returned to the Winnfield 41. Miller got one yard at right tackle, a pass fell incomplete, and then Miller broke into the clear through a big hole at left tackle and raced to the visitors' goal. The kick for the point was low.

The old Neville regulars entered the fray in the second period and scored on the fourth play. With the ball on Winnfield's 35, Duke got ten yards and a first around left end. Payne lost two, but Duke got seven more through the middle. Payne then went through right guard untouched to score. Lanham added the point on a pass from Payne.

Midway of the second quarter, the locals scored again. A kick by Coody was downed on Winnfield's 49. Duke circled right end for 20 yards and a first. A pass fell incomplete, and Rivers went around left end for 14 and a first. Duke got eight more around right end, and Rivers circled left end to score. Lanham crashed through the middle for the point after touchdown.

A Winnfield fumble started the locals off again early in the third quarter. "Scotty" Scott, guard, recovered the fumble on Winnfield's 36, and Payne skirted left end for a first on the invaders' 25. Duke made it four touchdowns for Neville when he got through right tackle. Lanham's drop kick for the point was no good.

Then a poor punt by Coody sent the Neville Bengals on their way once more. With the oval on his own 40, Coody kicked the ball straight up and it was downed behind him on his own 36 and in Neville's possession. Payne gathered up 19 yards around left end. Duke got seven more at left tackle, putting the oval on the Winnfield ten, and Payne hit the middle of the line to score. Lanham's drop kick for the point was again bad.

Coody kicked from his 18 to Haddad in midfield and Haddad was downed on the Winnfield 43. In came the Neville regulars again. A pass fell incomplete and then Payne passed to Vigg on Winnfield's 15 and Vigg went over for the tally. Rivers' kick was bad.

Rivers kicked off out of bounds on Winnfield's 35. Coody got four through the middle and then elected to punt. The kick was partially blocked and was downed on the Winnfield 47. Lanham slipped through right tackle for 47 yards and the longest run of the game to score the final touchdown. Payne place kicked the extra point. Lanham then kicked off to Coody on Winnfield's 20 and the oval was returned to the visitors' 36 as the game ended.

The Neville aggregation will play the Homer High school Pelicans, Class A champions of 1937, here next Thursday night.

CROWD MENACES REFEREE BELL

Irked By Officiating In Rice-Arkansas Game; Owls Win, 3 To 0

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Referee Alvin Bell of Little Rock had to be escorted off the field by state policemen today after Rice won a hectic Southwest conference grid battle from Arkansas 3-0.

The Owls made three attempts to placekick before Fullback Jake Schuehle booted the pigskin through the uprights from the 27-yard marker with only 50 seconds of play remaining. Two of the three plays were the most highly disputed ever to occur in Fayetteville.

On the first field goal try which was blocked, a Rice substitute was on the field and officials said the whistle was blown before the kick. Guard Bill Haner, holding the ball for the second attempt, fumbled. Schuehle picked up, was chased back 20 yards then tried to pass to a teammate who turned out to be an ineligible receiver. Players and fans contended the ball was grounded deliberately but no penalty was called. Schuehle split the crossbars with the aid of a strong wind on the next play.

The university R. O. T. C. joined officers in helping to protect Bell. Coach Fred C. Thomsen of Arkansas walked beside the official to the players dressing room. Approximately 1,500 fans surrounded the dressing room for more than 30 minutes. Then the crowd began breaking and Bell left under police guard.

COLORED HIGH AND RUSTON TO BATTLE FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

The Monroe Colored High school Bulldogs, undefeated in three years, will be seeking their second straight state negro high school football championship when they meet the undefeated Lincoln Parish Training school's Lions of Ruston here next Friday night at 8 o'clock at Casino park.

The two negro elevens are the only remaining undefeated aggregations in their class in the state and in Friday's battle the state championship will be at stake.

The state conference for negro high schools was organized last year, and the local Bulldogs, who had gone undefeated the year before, chalked up another perfect record to become the first negro state champions.

The Bulldogs and Lions have about the same record for the season. The locals have scored 197 points against 12 for their opponents, and the Ruston aggregation has scored 190 points against 18 for the opposition. The Lions, however, have been unable to cross the Monroe goal in the past four seasons. Last year's battle ended in a scoreless tie.

Probable lineups for Friday have been announced as:

Ruston: Mayfield and Wilkerson, ends; Heard and Hendricks, tackles; Lewis and M. Newby, guards; Robinson, center; Dunn, quarterback; Henderson and A. Newby, halfbacks; and Oliver, captain and fullback.

Monroe: Clay and G. Smith, ends; Buford Smith and Gray, tackles; C. Smith and Cooper, guards; Van Buren, center; Williams, captain and quarterback; Flentroy and Buford, halfbacks; and Gulley, fullback.

FRANKLIN AND MARSHALL HARD FOR ARMY TO BEAT

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov 5.—(AP)—Franklin and Marshall's football Diplomats, counted upon to provide a rest for Army's varsity, turned out to be tough customers today and forced the Cadets to use most of their first-string team before they could win, 20-12.

The visitors opened the scoring in the second period, when Manotti took Roeder's long pass and ran 25 yards for a touchdowns. The Cadets tied the count, then took a 13-6 lead when "Huey" Long came in to spark a drive at the start of the second half.

The Diplomats rang up another touchdown when Flowers took a lateral behind the line and went 53 yards around left end. Army's final score came when Martin tried a pass with the ball on his own 15 and Long took it 85 yards. F. and M. continued to dominate the play in the final period, keeping the ball in Army territory.

NEBRASKA WINS

LAWRENCE, Kans., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Taking advantage of two late breaks, the Nebraska Cornhuskers picked up 10 points in the fourth period for a 16 to 7 victory over Kansas today.

The word "monkey" comes from monkin, the diminutive of mona, an animal of this group from West Africa.

FAIR PARK NEXT ON LIONS' LIST

Ouachita Eleven To Play Indians In Shreveport Thursday Night

The Ouachita Parish High school Lions, conquered by Byrd of Shreveport here Thursday night, will go to Shreveport Thursday night for an engagement with the Fair Park High school Indians, last district Class AA foe of the Lions this year.

But the game will have little bearing on the double A conference race as both elevens have suffered defeats in their division. Fair Park, bowing to Vivian, 6 to 0, Friday night, took its second setback of the year in Class AA competition. The Lions' only conference defeat was at the hands of Byrd, 20 to 6.

Coach "Lefty" Haynes' charges came out of the Byrd battle in much better condition than they did in the Haynesville squabble and the team as a whole will be stronger when it goes up against Fair Park.

Clayton Brown, regular fullback, and Howard Griffith, regular guard, both out of the Byrd game with injuries suffered at the hands of Haynesville's Golden Tornado, will be back in the linsup Thursday night, Coach Haynes said.

The game will be the first ever played between Ouachita and Fair Park, but the battle will become an annual affair from now on. With only four other Class AA teams in the district besides themselves, the Lions must play them all, since a conference ruling is that a team must play not less than four teams in its class in order to win recognition in a claim for a championship. Thus, Ouachita's schedule can be expected to include Byrd, Haynesville, Vivian and Fair Park each year at least until more schools graduate to the double A division.

Fair Park has turned in some impressive games this year and the defeat Friday by Vivian came as a surprise. The Tribe had beaten Texarkana, Tex., a team that stopped Homer, 24 to 0, while Byrd beat Homer by almost the identical score, 24 to 2.

Other Fair Park victories were: Leesville, 14 to 6; Texarkana, Ark., 12 to 0, and Bossier City, 13 to 0. The Indians were held to a scoreless tie by Ruston and, other than Vivian, have lost only to Haynesville, 13 to 0. Two blocked punts aided Haynesville in victory.

FIELD GOAL ENABLES RAMS TO BEAT GAELS

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Wilbur Stanton enjoyed a fleeting moment of football fame today when he trotted out on the Polo Grounds before 44,000 hushed spectators and kicked a 32-yard field goal to give Fordham a 3 to 0 triumph over the St. Mary's university Gaels.

That was all anybody saw of Stanton, because he went right on back to the bench. But it was enough to justify the long hours he has spent practicing his specialty the last three seasons and to keep the Rams near the forefront of the nation's football teams. Fordham proved in every respect a better team than St. Mary's, but it took Stanton's boot to make it official.

HARVARD SPOTS CHICAGO TWO TALLIES, THEN WINS

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 5.—(AP)—After spotting Chicago's razzle-dazzling Maroons two quick touchdowns, Harvard's well-trained football forces ruined Clark Shaughnessy's magic and rolled up a 47-13 victory today before a crowd of 20,000.

The Harvards set off their touchdown barrage on a 25-yard aerial thrown by Torbie MacDonald to Austie Harding. MacDonald set up the second Harvard counter with a 25-yard runback on Wasem's punt. Mike Cohen and Frank Foley started banging off the tackles on Chicago's 25, the latter scoring from the one-yard line.

Harvard closed the third period with a 27-13 lead.

RUTGERS SCORES 20-18 TRIUMPH OVER PRINCETON

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Rutgers scored a 20 to 18 football victory over Princeton today—the first for the Scarlet over the Tigers since the two universities inaugurated the intercollegiate game in 1869.

GEORGIA WHIPS FLORIDA, 19 TO 6

Bulldogs Score Two Touchdowns In Last Period To Beat 'Gators

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Billy Mims connected with two last period touchdown passes today to give Georgia a 19 to 6 football victory over a scrapping Florida team.

Some 17,000 persons saw the third period end with the score 6-6. Then Ned Barbre intercepted a Florida pass on the Bulldog 33. Vassa Cate raced to the 'Gator 49 and Mims whipped a long touchdown pass to Cate.

The Bulldogs were off again. From their 46 Jim Fordham, Cate and Mims rushed to the 'Gator 31. Mims lashed a pass to Alex McCaskill, who sprinted over.

As the second period got under way, Walton fumbled and Walter Wilfong, Georgia guard, recovered on the 'Gator 24. Fordham went over in two plunges.

Florida tied the score shortly after. From the Georgia 25, Bobby Johnson shot a pass to Frank Yinshanny on the six and Tom Scott went off tackle for the touchdown.

The lineups:

Georgia	Pos.	Florida

TENNESSEE SWAMPS CHATTANOOGA, 45-0

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Tennessee's greatest football team maintained its unbeaten and untied record today, crushing the University of Chattanooga 45 to 0 before 7,000 spectators.

With the great George Cafego and his halfback running mate, Bob Foxx, sitting on the bench nursing injuries received in the Louisiana State game, Tennessee's reserves went on a spree, amassing 313 net yards in scoring seven touchdowns.

The Volunteers struck early in the first period, scoring twice from the air with Captain Bowden Wyatt grabbing both payoff tosses. The first was good for 41 yards and the second 46.

The Moccasins battled the Vols virtually on even terms in the second quarter, holding them scoreless and starting a drive of their own from the nine-yard line that carried to Tennessee's 40, where the end of the period stopped it. It was the Chattanoogans' lone threat.

The Volunteers, using their aerial game effectively for the first time this season, routed the Moccasins in the third period, piling up three more markers. Two more in the fourth completed the scoring.

The Chattanoogans presented two shifty runners in Orend and Thurman Scott, both of whom might have given Tennessee considerable trouble had they been cavorting behind a more formidable line.

PATTERSON HURLS BAYLOR TO VICTORY OVER TEXAS

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 5.—(AP)—The phenomenal hurling of Baylor university's spindly, blond Bill Patterson, today added the ninth straight defeat to the grid records of the University of Texas Longhorns. The score was 14 to 3.

Coach Dana X. Bible's impotent Steers made a fight of it the first half, emerging with a 3-0 lead due to Wallace Lawson's 27-yard field goal. Except for shortlived thrusts thereafter, however, the game was all Baylor's and Patterson's.

Today at 1 p.m., the public is invited to tune in on KMLB and hear a surprise program on the air which will be in connection with the close of the campaign. The big party will be held on Cherokee terrace of Hotel Frances Monday, November 14, at 8 p.m., when the $1,000 of gifts donated by Twin City merchants will be auctioned off, "medicine money" being used as medium of exchange. The party promises much amusement and will be announced over KMLB. The public, those who were not actually engaged in the campaign, while unable to bid with perfectly "good money" can watch the auction sale and see how many "million dollars" will be paid for radios, quilts, blankets and other commodities.

Mr. Clarkson, campaign manager, issued the following statement last night: "Workers in the campaign have done a remarkable job in this drive. There were nearly one-third of the workers engaged in this drive who had never been on a drive in the Twin Cities before, due to the fact that they realized that this one drive would take the place of a series of similar drives.

"I feel that employes of the firms of the two cities are due a vote of appreciation for without their cooperation the goal would not have been reached. The ladies' division, under the direction of Mrs. Fagan Cox, in which 18 teams were engaged, has done an outstanding job in house-to-house solicitation. Contacts made by the ladies have comprised an outstanding piece of work in enabling us to exceed the goal of the Twin City Community Chest. To one and all we must return our most sincere appreciation and hearty thanks.

"We have made some mistakes, but our experience in this drive—the largest ever attempted here—will be such as to enable those who will be in charge next year to profit by our mistakes and to accomplish greater results in the years to come."

Mr. Hatchell, chest president, stated: "I am most grateful at results obtained in this great campaign. It affords me great pleasure to be able to announce that we have gone over the top in this great project. I am most grateful first to the loyal workers who have been untiring in their efforts to secure pledges and also to firms and individuals who have received the teams and have given most readily of their means. I wish also to express appreciation of the employes of various firms and institutions who have given to those less fortunate than themselves. To every one who has had a part in the successful conclusion of this campaign, I wish to express from the inmost depths of my heart my sincere gratitude and appreciation."

Mr. Burns, who was one of the tireless campaign office workers throughout the campaign, issued the following statement: "Handling details of the Community Chest has been a most pleasant task, despite the fact that it has been laborious at times. It has afforded me an insight into individuals as well as firms who have made this campaign a success. I wish to express, in behalf of the officers and directors of the Community Chest, grateful appreciation to Messrs. J. L. Ewing and Wilson Ewing, as well as to KMLB, in lending publicity and full cooperation in this great undertaking. This has undoubtedly been the biggest undertaking ever accomplished in the history of our Twin Cities and I point to its success with a great deal of pride, but I am not unmindful that it has been accomplished through the loyalty of individuals as well as that of the firms who have carried on this work in the past. I also wish to express appreciation of the contributions received from colored contributors, who have been most generous in this great humanitarian project. Naturally, we have made mistakes in handling details of the campaign but I trust, as this is the first attempt in handling a Community Chest, that any errors of omission or commission will be accepted in the proper spirit.

"The people of Monroe and West Monroe have never failed in an undertaking that benefited the people of the Twin Cities as a whole, and I am proud to say they have not let us down in this great undertaking."

In England and Wales, flowers and vegetables to the value of more than $10,000 an acre are grown under glass.

RE-WORKING WASTE LAND IN TECH BEAUTIFYING PLAN

BALLOTS READY FOR ELECTION

candidates. To vote for a straight party ticket, the voter will merely "stamp the rooster." To vote for an independent candidate, the voter must, in addition to writing in the candidate's name, make a "stamp" mark opposite this candidate's name in the space provided, and must also make a similar mark opposite the name of each Democratic candidate to show that the voter is voting a split ticket.

At the office of the Ouachita parish clerk of court, only one independent candidate, as required by law, filed a statement certifying that he was making a race for office. This candidate is Maurice Clark of New Orleans, who is opposing John H. Overton, United States senator who is seeking reelection.

The complete Democratic ticket, as it appears on the ballots, is as follows: Overton, Newt V. Mills, candidate for United States representative; George T. Madison, candidate for state board of education; K. K. Kennedy, candidate for member of board of governors of state bar; Judge R. M. Taliaferro, candidate for judge of the court of appeal, second circuit.

THREE ARRESTED FOR HUNTING ILLEGALLY

Fred Parker, Elbert Darden and Charles Frank Reed, all white men of Ouachita parish, were arrested early Saturday in Lafourche swamp on charges of illegally hunting with headlights, it was reported yesterday afternoon. Each man was free under $50 bond, it was reported.

The men were arrested by Groves Brown and Ford Hines, Ouachita parish-state conservation officers.

S. C. Mathis, also a white man, was reported arrested in Richland parish on a charge of hunting fur bearing animals out of season. He was also released under $50 bond, it was said. Mathis was arrested by Bill Taylor, Richland game warden.

The Methodist Missionary society enjoyed a deeply spiritual week of prayer program in an all-day session at the parsonage, with Mrs. Mitchell as leader. The entire forenoon was devoted to the China service. Many interesting and emotional articles were presented by Mesdames Collins, White, Rice, Tims, Miller, Jr., and Hunter.

The meeting adjourned at noon for a luncheon of baked chicken and dressing with all the "fixin's" brought by the ladies. Twenty-four plates were served to the members attending and to Professor Person and Mr. McCain as luncheon guests.

The afternoon session was dedicated to the McDonnell French mission at Houma. Many interesting and touching facts were revealed in talks and papers on this work given by Mesdames Lancaster, Person, Miller, Jr., Boger and Channault.

Mrs. Lancaster gave an interesting paper on the Virginia K. Johnson school in Dallas. Mrs. Rice gave additional information about this school as her mother had been a home economics teacher there for a number of years.

Mrs. J. J. Rice was delightfully surprised when, immediately after returning home from the Week of Prayer service, the entire attendance of 20 members "invaded" her new home for a "house varming." An attractive plaque was presented to her and Mrs. Guthrie to adorn their lovely home.

Guy N. Hunter and Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Hunter entertained the faculty of the Waterproof High school at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter. After several games of hearts were played, first prizes were awarded to Miss Ann Lancaster and L. Montalbano and consolation prize was awarded to Mrs. N. Hale. Others present were Misses Lucille Barlow, Doris Naff, Frances Miller, Anna Rogillio, Pauline Jordan, Rose Guice and Frances Frillon and Messrs. W. E. Person and E. S. Crosby and special guests, who were Mrs. W. E. Person, Mrs. E. S. Crosby, Miss Agnes Neal and Philip Neal.

Oak Grove

The Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church met for a business session at the church. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. J. T. Williams, and opened with the Lord's prayer. Mrs. Williams read from the "Missionary News." The scripture, Romans 8th chapter, was read by Mrs. Mary B. Thompson. "The Week of Prayer" will be observed in the church with a joint meeting being held at the Wednesday night prayer meeting and with programs on Thursday and Friday, November 10-11, at 3 p.m. Several are planning to attend the zone meeting to be held at Rayville November 8.

The nomination committee for new officers was appointed as follows: Mrs. A. C. Monroe, Mrs. J. D. Herring and Mrs. Mary B. Thompson. Dismissal was given by Mrs. Jesse James.

A triple birthday party was given recently at the residence of the Rev. J. R. Campbell complimenting his niece, Elizabeth Anne Weaver, Virginia Anne Keller, and Barbara Lou Smith. Several games were enjoyed by the little guests and Johnece Lee won the prize for pinning the tail on the Halloween cat.

A lovely Halloween party was given at the Legion hut by Mrs. Joel B. Dickinson and her two little daughters, Joyce Rae and Joeldine. The hut was decorated with Halloween decorations and games were played including bobbing for apples and the dance of the ghost by Marjorie Keller. The closing treat of the evening was when the guests were invited to toast weiners at the open fire-place and to make their own hot dogs.

The first prize for pinning the tail on the horse went to Martha Dea Briggs and second to Betty Joe McBride.

Adults attending were Mrs. Dickinson assisted by Mrs. K. Edwards, Mrs. Bert Abernathy, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. T. J. Nix, Mrs. Bessie Dickinson, Mrs. W. H. Keller, Mrs. J. S. McKenzie and Mrs. D. M. Copeland, Arden Smith and Joel B. Dickinson.

DEATHS

JACKSON FUNERAL

E. D. Jackson died at a local hospital Friday night. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. J. W. Humphries, and a brother, Herbert L. Jackson of San Antonio, Tex.

The funeral was held at Davis-Lawhead funeral home Saturday afternoon with interment in Colony cemetery.

Oil And Gas News

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Seven new wells in Louisiana oil fields, with total initial daily capacity of 1,344 barrels, were listed today in the weekly report of the minerals division of the department of conservation. Date of completion of the wells ranged from October 26 to November 2.

All of the new producers were in south Louisiana fields, with two of them in Terrebonne parish fields, east of the Atchafalaya river. All but one were flowing through unusually small openings, reducing the initial output.

Twenty-four permits for new operations were issued by the department during the week of which half were for south Louisiana wells. There were permits, however, for drilling east of the Atchafalaya river, although some applications were pending.

Production of crude petroleum in Louisiana during the week ending October 29 was estimated by the department at 269,645 barrels a day, of which 194,200 barrels came from south Louisiana fields and 75,445 barrels from north Louisiana.

New producers listed in the report follows:

Big Lake, Cameron parish, Union Sulphur company, No. 1 P. D. Hebert, 7 barrels (distillate); Jefferson island, Iberia parish, the Texas company, No. 1 State-Lake Peigneur, 252 barrels; Jennings, Acadia parish, Superior Oil company, No. 8 Jennings-Heywood, 391 barrels; Lake Barre, Terrebonne parish, the Texas company, No. 42 state, 10 barrels (distillate); Lake Pelto, Terrebonne parish, the Texas company, No. 21 State, 65 barrels; Ville Platte, Evangeline parish, Continental Oil company, No. 2 Vidrine-Deville, 417 barrels, same operator, No. 2 Hattie Haas, 202 barrels.

Permits for new wells were issued to the following:

Acadia parish, Atlantic Refining company, L. and L. Oil company, Superior Oil company; Beauregard parish, Republic Production company; Bossier parish, H. M. Harrell et al; Caddo parish, Arkansas Fuel Oil company, F. W. Burford, Mrs. Joe Manziel, (two permits).

Calcasieu parish, J. R. Turnbull; Cameron parish, Union Sulphur company; Claiborne parish, Sinclair Prairie Oil company; Evangeline parish, Continental Oil company (two permits); LaSalle parish, Alfred Black; Ouachita parish, Hope Producing company.

Sabine parish, M. J. Kissick, H. L. Nutting; St. Mary parish, Peterson Petroleum corporation, St. Mary Oil company, J. P. Scranton et al (two permits); Union parish, Interstate Natural Gas company, (two permits).

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Wheat prices slipped backward almost a cent a bushel early today as a result largely of the disappointing response at Liverpool to the upturn in this market yesterday.

Liverpool quotations were due 1-4 to 1-2 higher on the basis of action this side of the Atlantic Friday. However, the English market closed 1-4 to 3-8 lower after being as much as 3-4 cent off at one stage. Pressing of wheat for sale was a factor abroad.

Opening 1-4 to 3-4 lower, Dec. 64 to 63 7-8, May 65 3-4 to 5-8, Chicago wheat then steadied. Corn started 1-8 off to 1-8 up, Dec. 45 1-4 to 1-8, May 48 7-8.

Wheat closed 1-8 to 1-2 lower compared with Friday's finish, Dec. 64 1-8 to 64, May 65 7-8 to 3-4; corn 1-4 to 5-8 higher, Dec. 45 1-2 to 5-8, May 49 1-8 to 1-4; oats unchanged to 1-8 higher.

ELECTION QUIETS MARKET TRADING

Stocks Loaf, Generally, With Losses And Gains Hardly Discernible

By Victor Eubank

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—(AP)—The stock market loafed in a pre-election fog today and gains and losses, except in scattered instances, were so narrow they were hardly discernible in the apathetic haze.

Business news was still a bolstering factor but, with the exchange closed Tuesday and Friday of next week, most traders inclined to keep commitments light either way.

Motors and steels were supported as mounting production in these fields was forecast for the near future.

A little buying cropped up in coppers near the finish on reports the new Chilean government, which comes into power next month, was expected to maintain a friendly attitude toward American interests. Anaconda and Kennecott, with important holdings in Chile, tilted upward, along with Phelps Dodge and American Smelting. The copper group has been notably laggard recently.

With the ticker tape frequently nodding, transfers for the two-hour proceedings were around 500,000 shares. Relatively good performers included United States Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Chrysler, United States Rubber, American Telephone, Westinghouse, Southern Pacific, Santa Fe, Union Carbide and General Electric.

Utilities did little, still being somewhat depressed by yesterday's anti-trust suit filed by the government against Columbia Gas.

Rails held to a slim groove, although hopes here were sustained by contra-seasonal traffic expansion and prospects of legislative relief for ailing roads following withdrawal of wage cut demands on recommendation of the president's fact-finding committee.

In view of the more cheerful outlook for the automobile makers, there was considerable guessing regarding next week's meetings of General Motors directors.

The president's political address to the country last night was studied carefully by analysts, but most found a scarcity of real market clues in the chief executive's comments.

Marked down fractionally in the curb were Electric Bond and Share, Niagara Hudson Power, United Light and Power "A" and Columbia Oil and Gas.

COLUMBIA HEARS HOLLAND FRIDAY

COLUMBIA, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—The Kiwanis club of Caldwell parish entertained at a banquet in the basement of the Methodist church here last night. There was attendance from Olla, Grayson, Clarks, Riverton and elsewhere. C. A. Minard is president of the club and the program was arranged by Kiwanian George Rogers.

The principal address was delivered by George D. Holland, secretary of the Monroe Chamber of Commerce, who talked on "Prospects for Future Business in Caldwell Parish."

He told them that they would be compelled to work out their business salvation by their own cooperative efforts and urged that in so doing that they lay aside all personal prejudice and work together for a larger and better parish and city of Columbia.

Tallulah

Mr. and Mrs. William LaFave entertained a group of friends informally complimentary to Mr. LaFave on his birthday. The Halloween spirit prevailed in the decorations adding interest and pleasure to the occasion. A two-course luncheon was served. Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lancaster, Edgar Lancaster, Jr., Donald B. Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. McCaa, and Mr. and Mrs. Erle Read and children.

Mrs. J. L. Coleman and daughter, Sarah Louise, Mrs. J. W. Richards of Dallas, and Mrs. A. B. Kelly, visited the Louisiana State fair in Shreveport recently.

The Wednesday Afternoon club was entertained by Mrs. W. H. Pierson at her home here. Mrs. W. R. Gilfoil was the winner of the high score prize and Mrs. A. L. Sevier, consolation. Their gifts were pyrex baking dishes. For consolation Mrs. Alex Blanche received a candy jar. A two-course luncheon was served at the conclusion of the games to Mrs. Horace Maxwell, Mrs. C. S. Utz, Mrs. J. S. Agee, Mrs. Neal T. Holt, Mrs. Alex Blanche, Mrs. W. C. Starrett, Mrs. Dan James, Mrs. J. A. Gilbert, Mrs. A. L. Sevier, Mrs. Mason Spencer, Mrs. R. R. Taylor and Mrs. W. R. Gilfoil.

Miss Edna Mae Kelly has returned to Tyler, Tex., after a visit with her mother, Mrs. A. B. Kelly.

The November meeting of the Madison Parish Garden club was held at the home of Mrs. A. L. Lane, with Mrs. A. M. Hebert and Mrs. W. D. Ziegler as co-hostesses. Mrs. Albert Sevier presided over the business session and Miss Annett Beers acted as secretary. Roll call was answered with the name of a new shrub planted. It was voted to change the date of the beginning of the new club year from September to April to conform with a request from the State Garden Club federation.

Mrs. Davis Whitfield as leader of the program gave a most interesting and informative address on mulches, hay and straw, peat moss, servall, mulch paper, grass cuttings and leaves. Mrs. Horace Maxwell had charge of the question box.

A social hour followed the program when a salad course, tea and coffee were served to Mrs. D. H. Allen, Mrs. R. K. Boney, Miss Annette Beers, Mrs. Charles Coltharp, Mrs. George Eggleston, Mrs. F. D. Naylor, Mrs. E. T. Purnell, Mrs. Davis Whitfield, Mrs. T. P. Kell, Miss Amy Holmes, Mrs. Horace Maxwell, Miss Bertha Keller, Mrs. Albert Sevier, Mrs. W. B. Williams, Miss Evelyn Schregleman and Mrs. Erle Read.

Mrs. T. Ed Williams entertained the members of the Tuesday club and several additional guests at her home. The bridge games resulted in Mrs. C. H. Calhoun winning the high score club prize, Mrs. J. C. Lee the guest prize, Mrs. Herman Lancaster low score, and Mrs. Leander Grace, consolation. A hot plate luncheon was served after the games to Mrs. L. G. Storey, Mrs. Harry Anderson, Mrs. L. S. Grace, Mrs. J. D. Halbach, Mrs. C. H. Calhoun, Mrs. J. W. Huckabay, Mrs. J. C. Lee, Mrs. Douglas Lee, Mrs. James E. Luster, Mrs. H. S. Provine, Mrs. Jesse Anderson, Mrs. Will Harvey, Mrs. W. M. Strickland, Mrs. W. E. Regenold, Mrs. Nathan McKie. Tea guests were Mrs. W. H. Rogillio, Mrs. Paul Schwartz and Mrs. John O'Shea.

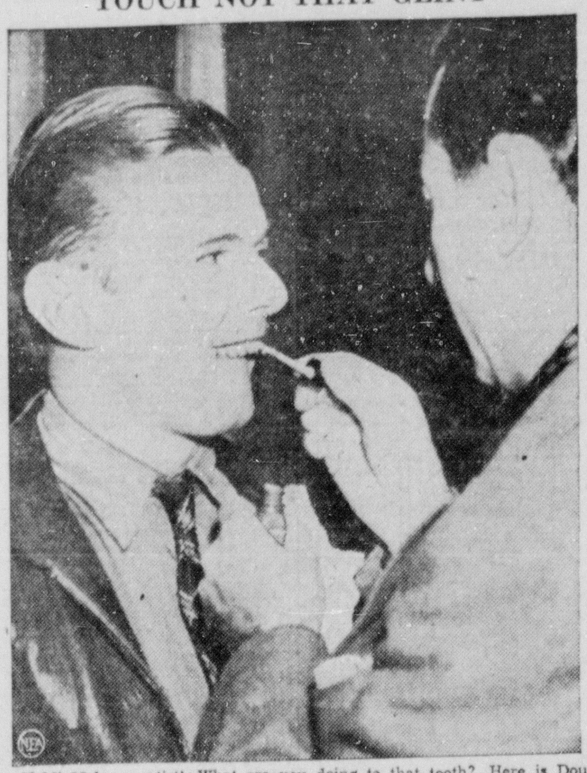
DOLL LAYETTE USED FOR 3-POUND BABY

CHOUDRANT, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—A three-pound boy was born October 2 to Mr. and Mrs. Mack Miller, who live three miles east of Farmerville.

The baby, who was reported healthy and normal in every respect, was so small that a layette of doll clothes had to be used to dress him.

TOUCH NOT THAT GLINT



Hold! Makeup artist! What are you doing to that tooth? Here is Doug Corrigan getting a taste of Hollywood in preparation for a movie based on his air exploits. But will the film seem authentic without that bright and shining incisor?

Monument Man Seeks Post As Little Chicago Coroner

Since he is a monument man, H. A. (Bob) Banta is maintaining he should be elected coroner of Little Chicago, which goes to the polls Thursday to chose municipal officials for the ensuing year.

Says Banta: "I do the last thing that can be done for you, so why not vote for me?"

Banta is an Independent Acrobat. He and Doc Austin, a Super-Plutocrat, are trying to oust A. B. (Doc) Smelser, the Plutocratic incumbent.

Austin, a novelty man, bases his claim for the office of coroner on the fact that he is a man of many records. He fails to mention, however, that they are phonographic records.

Three men are running for the office of justice of the peace—not for the sake of justice, but for the sake of politics.

G. A. Bennett, tobacco salesman being backed by the Plutocrats, can't get away from the lessons he has learned from Dale Carnegie, the Dorothy Dix of salesmanship. Here's how he subordinates himself to one of his products: "If you vote for me, you won't be satisfied, but if you smoke my cigarettes, you will."

A. L. (Luke) Crawford, filling station man on the Super-Plutocratic ticket, and J. L. Reed, furniture man carrying the colors of the Independent Acrobats, are less subtle. They just come right out with their "plug."

Crawford is telling the voters that if they expect justice from him (if he is elected, of course), they'll have to buy his particular brand of gas.

Suggests Reed: "You furnish the votes, I'll furnish the home."

As the campaign entered the final lap, all of the candidates were limbering up their throwing arms for an inning or two of plain and fancy mudslinging.

Several events have been arranged in connection with the annual election:

A carnival on Little Chicago's playground, opening Tuesday and running for six days.

A political rally for all candidates Tuesday night at Three Mile inn, where an inaugural ball will be held following the election Thursday night. Each candidate will be given an opportunity to speak.

A parade through the business sections of Little Chicago, Monroe and West Monroe Wednesday, beginning at 3 p.m.

HOLMES NAMED HEAD OF SINGING GROUP

OAK GROVE, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—At a meeting of the West Carroll Parish Singing association held at the Bayou Macon Baptist church, Mr. Holmes, who had been president of the association for the past 14 years, resigned, and Dave Pearce was elected to the office with J. R. Ruffin, vice-president; Mrs. Cecil Hammon, secretary, and T. I. Head, chaplain.

The next meeting will be held on the fifth Sunday in January.

REVIVAL TO CLOSE

The revival that has been in progress at the First Baptist church in West Monroe will end with the services today. Up to Saturday, there were 36 additions to the church's membership. Rev. John Caylor, pastor of the Highland Baptist church in Shreveport, has brought messages twice daily. Candidates for baptism as a result of the revival will be presented on the night of November 13, stated the pastor, who expressed his pleasure over the outcome of the revival.

LITTLE THEATER PLAYS PLANNED

Two One-Act Performances Scheduled For Thursday Night At Center

The next entertainment of the Monroe Little Theater will be the presentation of two one-act or workshop productions at Northeast Center Thursday at 8 p.m.

The plays will be: "After All These Years," directed by Mrs. H. Thain, a newcomer to Monroe from St. Louis, Mo., and "For Distinguished Service," directed by Mrs. Charles T. Chisholm.

Both plays are said to be of exceptional merit. Miss Lallage Feazel was originally scheduled to direct these plays but because of her absence from the city she could not take part but she stated that the two directors will be able to present first class productions.

The names of the casts were not ready for announcement Sunday.

"For Distinguished Service" gives a new turn to the old triangle story. There are two women who love one man and fortunately one of them possesses a sense of justice which saves them all. The situation is a serious one, but the author's treatment of it is delightfully amusing and his characterizations clever.

"After All These Years," is said to be calculated to meet with a hearty response from every member of the audience for who has not rushed to renew an acquaintance with an old school friend only to find conversation exhausted and dead after a five minute period of brisk inquiry after certain mutual friends and a reminiscing over a few pranks of adolescence?

There is nothing but comedy in this play, and the device used to extricate himself by one of the parties in a painful situation is one which every listener might well note for future use, stated one who has seen the rehearsals.

DRIVE GETS UNDER WAY

HOMER, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—A membership drive by the Claiborne parish farm bureau is now under way with S. P. Meadors as chairman. At the close of the drive November 25, a jubilee celebration will be held. Cash awards will be given those securing the largest number of members as well as free transportation to the farm bureau convention at New Orleans.

NAZARENES WILL HOLD STATE MEET

Convention Will Open Tuesday; Many Delegates Are Expected

Details were completed Saturday for the opening of the state convention of the churches of the Nazarene at the church of the denomination here, opening a four-day session on Tuesday. Fully 150 delegates are expected to attend, as well as laymen from cities of the state. The homes of members of the local church will be thrown open for the entertainment of the visitors. Meals, however, will be secured downtown.

The Women's Missionary society will have its annual convention Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. S. N. Fitken, of Pasadena, Calif., general president, in attendance.

The day's sessions of the assembly will be devoted to the submission of reports and election of state officers. Evangelistic services will be held each night and the public is invited to attend.

Presiding over the assembly will be Dr. J. B. Chapman, Kansas City, Mo., general superintendent, while Dr. A. K. Bracken, president of Bethany-Peniel college, will represent that institution. Dr. J. E. Speaks will represent the Nazarene Publishing house at Kansas City.

On Tuesday night the evangelistic sermon will be delivered by Dr. I. C. Mathis, of Dallas, Tex., Dallas district superintendent.

METHODISTS ELECT BOARD OF STEWARDS

OAK GROVE, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—At the fourth quarterly conference held at the Oak Grove Methodist church, the following were announced to serve on the board of stewards for the ensuing year:

Oak Grove church, J. T. Williams, W. H. Reneau, Sr., G. G. Bardin, T. O. Mitchner, Joel B. Dickinson, L. L. James, M. N. Lipp, J. S. Pollard, R. V. Reeves, Mrs. A. C. Monroe, Mrs. D. W. Kelly, Mrs. Joe T. Kelly, Mrs. Jones Wallace and Mrs. Clyde Turner.

Kilbourne church, John Meeks, R. F. Scott, R. A. Roberts, L. H. Willis and Allen Hardy.

WORKERS BUILD BIG POWER LINE

Will Connect Natchez Tire Factory With Points In Two States

A large crew of the L. E. Mires Engineering company is continuing the work of constructing a large high-power line from Sterlington to Natchez by way of Ferriday and Vidalia, across the Mississippi river.

The Mississippi and Louisiana Power and Light companies have filed application with the war department for permission to construct and maintain the overhead line of approximately 110,000 volts across the Mississippi river between Natchez and Vidalia.

The high power line will also furnish current for the new tire factory of the Armstrong Tire and Rubber company which is building a plant at Natchez, and will continue the line through Mississippi to connect with a high line located at Brookhaven, Miss.

EPISCOPALIANS TO MEET HERE

State Sessions Of Women's Auxiliary Will Be Conducted Starting Tuesday

The woman's auxiliary of the national council of the Episcopal church will meet in annual session at Grace church Tuesday and Wednesday. There will be delegates from all cities of the state.

The subject of the convention will be: "Fellowship With Christ Throughout the World in Faith, Work, Worship."

There will be an executive board meeting Tuesday at 9:30 a.m., and a reception for delegates, officers and visitors at 4:30 p.m. There will be an inspirational service held Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. with Rev. E. F. Hayward, rector, in charge.

The speaker will be Rev. J. H. Alves, rector of St. James Episcopal church in Alexandria. "Fellowship in Faith and Work" will be his theme. He became St. James rector last July, coming into the diocese from Lubbock, Tex.

The Wednesday morning session will be held together with the Holy Eucharist at 9 a.m., and a business meeting is scheduled at 10 a.m., when reports will be given, election of officers will be held and other business attended to. The afternoon session will also be devoted to reports. It will meet at 2:30 p.m.

COUGHS DUE TO COLDS
Musterole is NOT "just a salve." It's a "counter-irritant" containing good old-fashioned remedies for distress of colds—oil of mustard, menthol, camphor and other helpful ingredients.
That's why it gets such fine results—better than the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Musterole penetrates the surface skin, stimulates, warms and soothes and quickly helps to relieve local congestion and pain. Used by millions for 30 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses. In 3 strengths: Regular, Children's (Mild) and Extra Strong. 40¢.

Impressive Ceremony Marks Wedding Of Miss Cook And J. I. Hebert

Nuptials Solemnized At The Frances Hotel

Bride's Attendants Are Misses Gertrude Hebert, Clara Virginia Terzia And Florence Jane Morley

Wedding vows were spoken in a candlelit, improvised hapel on the terrace of the Frances hotel by Miss Sara Anita ook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen J. Cook of Rayville, d Mr. J. I. Hebert, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Hebert of ew Orleans, Saturday night, October 29, at 6:30 o'clock.

The walls of the terrace were cur- ned with southern smilax. A white peted aisle, flanked by tall, white ker vases overflowing with white ysanthemums and linked together h broad white ribbon, led to steps of the chapel hedged in h palms and tall, seven-branched delabra supporting cathedral tap- Tapers burned on the altar cov- with lace vestments and emblaz- with a gold cross.

e cathedralesque atmosphere was ained in every detail with the ence of Reverend Father M. R. million, who officiated, adding ity.

P. Griffon of Baton Rouge, Miss Gertrude Hebert of New Orleans.

The bride changed her wedding gown for a handsome tailleur with corsage of orchids and left with Mr. Hebert for an extended honeymoon.

The bride, a great favorite in younger social circles in this city where she has visited sorority sisters on numerous occasions, attended Sullins college and was graduated from the Louisiana State university. She is a member of Chi Omega sorority.

Mr. Hebert is a graduate of the Louisiana State university and is a member of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity.

Beethoven Club Meeting Held

Miss Margaret Hausher read an interesting paper on the life of Stephen Heller before members of the Beethoven club at its recent meeting in the home of Miss Edwina Slater.

She said in part:

"Stephen Heller was born in Pesth, Hungary, in 1814 and died in Paris in 1888.

"He was one of the most gifted and poetical of all the romantic composers. In the world of pianistic education, he is one of the most interesting. He was the only son of a well-to-do merchant, and it was intended that he should succeed to his father's business. But his call to music, and his love for it, was so irresistible that his father was compelled to permit his musical education to begin at an early age. He made such progress that, at the age of 9, his teacher brought him out as a solo pianist. He played with his teacher the double concerto of Dussek, for two pianos and orchestra.

"The boy made a great impression. This led to his being sent or taken to Vienna, where he studied for two more years. After a brilliant and very successful concert in Vienna, he started at the age of 12 upon his only concert tour. While on this tour, through Germany and Poland, he fell seriously ill and was obliged to stay for a long time. He attracted the attention of a wealthy art-loving family, into which he was practically adopted. His foster mother, the Countess Fugger, was a very enthusiastic and cultivated musician.

"He wrote many charming fantasias, etudes, polonaises and drawing-room pieces for the piano. Since Heller wrote so beautifully and in so refined and finished a style, his 'studies' have become the great repertory of charming melodies to which the young pianist is referred for material for study in acquiring a delicate art of expression."

Current Literature Club Holds Meeting

Mrs. J. M. Menefee extended the hospitality of her home to members of the Current Literature club.

The program included a business session conducted by Mrs. G. D. Holland, president.

"My Son, My Son" by Howard Spring was reviewed by Mrs. William Whitfield. The story given by Mrs. Whitfield includes the life of two fathers and their two sons. From a humble beginning in Manchester it moves to London with the rising fortunes of the fathers, goes on holiday along the coast of Cornwall, feels the shock of the war, reaches a climax in the Irish rebellion. And through it all runs the theme of the fathers' love for their sons, their struggles from poverty to success, their dreams for the boys, and the way in which fate answered those dreams. The dramatic conflict of developing personalities, the charm of the many attractive women whose lives crossed the men's, the excitement of the London theatrical world, the peace of the English countryside, the sharp clash of armed men, bring color and variety to Howard Spring's rich canvas.

At the conclusion of the program a social hour was enjoyed during which refreshments were served to the following club members: Mrs. R. L. Conway, Mrs. G. W. Guerriero, Mrs. F. T. Harkness, Mrs. G. D. Holland, Mrs. Mike John, Jr., Mrs. Raymond John, Mrs. J. C. Kramer, Jr., Mrs. J. M. Menefee, Mrs. Louis Peters, Mrs. Dudley Stone, Mrs. E. R. Whitaker, Mrs. John Best, Mrs. William Whitfield.

MODERN CHARM

Miss Joyce Ward, attractive young debutante, wears a demure, subtly old-fashioned evening gown with full skirt gathered to a plain, wide band about the hips, shirred bodice and puff sleeves. The clip in Miss Ward's hair matches those worn on the heart-shaped decolletage of the gown.

By Eve C. Bradford

THE pious peasants of Nova Scotia call this season of the year the "Summer of All Saints." In England they call it "Michaelmas Summer" and in Devonshire it is known as "St. Luke's Summer." Call it what you may, to us it is the most beautiful of all four seasons. The days are zestful and nobody who loves the out-of-doors can escape the feel of it. It sets the gypsy blood astir and if not on the highway hurrying to a football game, one is most certainly out-of-doors taking deep breaths of wood smoke and kicking crackling leaves underfoot.

By the way, did you know that many football elevens say a prayer before all games? That's why sports writers call the Centre college team "The Praying Colonels." Their prayer is "Oh, God—Help us to win. But, if, in Thy inscrutable wisdom, Thou willest me not to win, then oh, God make me a good loser." The world loves a good loser, as much as a winner, probably a whole lot more, so this prayer would be a good one for any team.

This seems to be the open season for weddings. Of course you heard about Sarabeth Farmer and Douglas Parkes! They went through the marriage service unostentatiously Thursday night and then motored over to Dallas. Sarabeth must have been thinking about this wedding for some time as she had the loveliest tailleur and smart little hat all ready when the hour arrived.

Robbie Lee Hanna and James Dawson will step altarward on the twelfth. Their's will be a quiet wedding but none of the impressiveness or charm of ceremony will be sacrificed.

Memories of a beautiful wedding and a masterpiece in perfection of decor linger in the mind today. Anita Sara Cook, tall, slender, and as blonde as wheat, walked toward a picturesque little chapel on the terrace of the Frances hotel. She gazed over a burden of calla lilies that seemed some how the perfect flower for one as stately and as lovely as Sara Anita. After all, who can describe the radiant, shining delicacy of a beautiful bride at the moment of her wedding.

Perfect wedding ceremonies do not happen by chance you know. A master-hand evidently worked among the flowers at the Cook—Hebert nuptials. Even the soloist Frances Boult of Baton Rouge, in a bouffant white taffeta off-the-shoulder gown, had a part in the perfect whole. She sang divinely "If God Made Only You." The wedding cake with its jewelry like designs of much finesse, was one of the loveliest ever seen. Rose leaves frozen in a great block of ice from which frappe was served was still another master stroke.

Of the guests there is much to be said. There was Vern Terzia, very "femme fatale" in black velvet with black bird of paradise sweeping across hair piled high on her head. There was Lucille Trousdale, looking like an old-fashioned cameo in severe black velvet gowns with narrow black velvet ribbon around her throat. Her hair, black and sleek, was worn high on the head.

Sadye Lou Peters, sheathed in shining satin wedding gown, looked as lovely as a piece of porcelain, so small, so blonde is she. She scurried up stairs when the bridegroom hove into view, as her pet superstition forbade her seeing him in her wedding dress before they met at the altar. A perfect example of how young looking a mother can be while attending her daughter's wedding was shown in this particular case. Mrs. Peters was wearing pale pink chiffon draperies with orchids on her shoulder.

Travis and Lida Oliver never leave home in the summer. They prefer autumnal vacations, so they waited until November to visit Mexico City. They joined members of the executive council of the American Bankers association and their wives, in San Antonio, last Friday and boarded a special train for Mexico. It will be one great, big family party with a program worked out on a rather elaborate scale for their entertainment. Travis will take time off however to prowl around in search for old firearms to add to his constantly growing collection. Tignor Conger recently presented Travis with a queer looking sabre, hundreds of years old, that was sent to him from Peru by his brother. Although not under the head of firearms, it is an old time weapon of defense and greatly prized by the recipient.

Thoughts of Indian summer in Dixie where pumpkins are ripening in the fields, cotton is being ginned, sorghum is flowing in streams, and life everywhere at its best, were too much for Freneau and Floy Surguine in far off Africa. They simply pulled up stakes and boarded a steamer for home. After fifteen days on the Atlantic they landed in France and spent five days frolicking in Paris. New York bound on board the Brittanic they spent a week getting used to the tall buildings, the bright lights and all the gayety denied them for the past five years in Africa. They finally hopped on a train for Pontiac, Mich., where they purchased a new car and traveled over old familiar ground and the glory of the autumn haze to Monroe. They purchased a new home and expect to live and die in Dixie. Freneau got his first glimpse of Missye, his year old daughter who was born after he returned to Africa. Floy left Missye with her grandmother when she was a few months old and joined Freneau in Africa.

Speaking of babies brings to mind something nice that happened in the John Dubuisson family. Their new daughter was born on the birthday anniversary of Elisabeth's mother, Olive Reily Platt, so of course she was named Olive Reily. Those who knew and loved Mrs. Platt are looking forward to seeing this little granddaughter who is quite as beautiful as her young mother, we have been told.

Trust Mina Lee Walker to be prepared to cope with any emergency in her household. It seems that Jacqueline and Gwen were invited to a Halloween party which necessitated special costumes. Garbed in their weird attire they called at the home of their young friend all athrill over the prospects of a hobnobbing with goblins. Imagine their chagrin when they were told there would be no party! Mina Lee promptly built bonfires in the Walker yard and invited the disappointed children to the impromptu celebration. All is well that ends well and tears gave place to smiles all because Mina Lee knows how bitter disappointments can be when one is young and trusting.

Miss Louise Wood Guest Of Honor

Miss Louise Wood, a bride-to-be, was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. Joseph Mundo, Jr., with forty guests present to enjoy the courtesies extended by the hostess and to present Miss Wood with beautiful gifts.

Refreshments were served in the dining room where the table had for central decoration miniature garden encircled with low white fence entwined with pink roses. A beautiful doll, dressed in full wedding regalia, with her two bridesmaids wearing old fashioned gowns, stood in the garden.

Miss Wood was seated at the table where the gifts, beautifully wrapped in pink tissues, were opened and passed for inspection among the guests.

Miss Smith Marries Edwin Richardson, Jr.

Wedding Of Monroe Girl And Ruston Man Takes Place At Minden Presbyterian Church

The affectionate and sincere interest of friends in this section of the state is centered in the announcement of the marriage of Miss Margaret Lucille Smith, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Ernest Smith of this city, and Mr. Edwin Richardson, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Richardson of Ruston, Friday, November 4, at the Presbyterian church in Minden.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Richardson left for a honeymoon in Dallas. Upon their return they will be at home to friends in Ruston, where Mr. Richardson is associated with L. P. I. as head of the photographic department. He is a graduate of the Louisiana State university and attended the New York School of Advanced Photography. He is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity. Mr. Richardson's father is president of Louisiana Tech.

Mrs. Richardson was graduated from Whitworth college and received her degree in art from L. P. I. in Ruston. She is a member of Delta Beta Sigma and Kappa Delta sororities.

Auxiliary Plans Armistice Dance

In a recent message to the Rodney J. Hobbs auxiliary, Mrs. Anna Mae Lochner, national president of the ladies auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, had this to say in regard to her watchword:

"The first letter of our watchword, 'loyalty' signifies 'love.' The love of God, for we are a Christian nation; love of country for the privileges and freedom we enjoy and finally love of our great organization, whose objectives teach love of country and its flag, care of our disabled comrades, their widows and orphans, and the teaching of patriotism to the youth of our nation. It is appropriate that love should be first when interpreting the letters of our watchword, for we must possess a love of God, country and fellowman to make the work of our organization a success. These are the basic principles underlying all our efforts and requisites necessary for fulfilling our obligation as members."

Mrs. Lochner reminds auxiliaries of their duties on Armistice and Thanksgiving by saying, "Loving deeds of service to others are the greatest thank-offerings for blessings received."

The next meeting of the auxiliary will be an important one as plans for the Armistice dance will be completed and arrangements made for the observance of Thanksgiving. The members are indeed proud of the sum raised through the medium of their weekly benefit parties that will help so much in making it possible for Mrs Mildred Duggan, department hospital chairman of Alexandria, to provide treats for the patients at the veterans' hospital in Alexandria on Armistice day. All receipts from these parties go to this fund and nice sums are realized at each party. The president of the auxiliary, Mrs. Blackwell, will serve as hostess at next week's party and all members are asked to attend.

THE HEAD MAN

On trains and 'planes,
In winds and rains,
He flits around the nation.
He's here and there,
'Most everywhere,
From Mars to Timbuc Station.

(Refrain—to the tune of "My Wife's Gone to the Country")

My boss has gone to the market,
Hoo-ray, hoo-ray!
At your behest,
He'll buy the best
He finds there on display.
He took his checkbook with him
He'll shop the mart
For all that's smart
And bring it home to you.

He leads a life
That's truly rife
Of goings yon and there,
Just when you bet
That he is set

(Refrain)

My boss has gone to Chicago,
To buy some desks and tables,
Some beds and springs
And other things
In walnut and in maple
From there he'll go on eastward
Aboard the Century.
In New York town
(This rhyme is plenty lousy.)

And painted muggs—
Copies of Leonardo.

(Sh-h)

While he's away
I'm going to play
And loaf until the morrow

Lovely Simplicity Characterizes Wedding Of Miss Peters, Credille Calhoun

Ceremony Solemnized At Home Of The Bride

Lovely simplicity characterized the wedding of Miss Sadye Lou Peters, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Peters, and Mr. Credille Calhoun, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Calhoun of Bastrop, at the Peters home on Morris avenue, Thursday night, November 3, at 6:30 o'clock, with Rev. L. T. Hastings, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating in the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives.

The wedding vows were spoken in a flowery enclosure at one end of the reception suite where tall wrought iron floor candelabra supporting cathedral tapers of graduated lengths formed a solid background. Wrought iron pedestal baskets, varying in height and overflowing with pink gladioli, white chrysanthemums and pink roses, formed an aisle down which the bride and her attendants walked.

Miss Ella Rose Crawford, wearing a cerise taffeta evening model with shirring of velvet of a deeper shade, presided at the piano. She rendered a pre-nuptial concert and accompanied the singer, Mr. Charles Bigger, who sang "O Promise Me" and "Because."

The flower girl, Mary Agnes Rizzo, wore a satin gown of ashes of roses, fashioned with a hooped skirt and tight-fitting basque. She carried on her arm a basket fashioned of flowers in the pastel shades.

Mr. Calhoun was attended by his brother, Mr. Charles Calhoun.

The bride walked down the ivy entwined stairway on the arm of her brother, Mr. A. L. Peters, Jr., and was met by her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore the traditional white satin wedding gown with long train. The sleeves were long and shirred to the elbow. The bodice, shirred from the high neck line to the waist, was tight-fitting. A finger tip veil of bridal illusion was caught to the hair with a coronet of valley lilies. For something old she wore an antique diamond brooch presented to her by the bridegroom's mother. A bouquet of valley lilies and orchids completed the ensemble.

Following the ceremony additional guests arrived for the reception. Dr. and Mrs. Peters and Mrs. Calhoun joined the wedding party to receive the guests. Mrs. Peters wore a pink chiffon evening model with short pleated cape and a corsage of orchids. Mrs. Calhoun wore a white chiffon model with orchid corsage.

The bride's table in the dining room was overlaid with lace and centered with a gorgeous three-tiered wedding cake with a bell spilling over with valley lilies gracing the topmost layer. The base of the cake was encircled with white roses. White satin ribbons attached to lucky symbols led from the cake to the edge of the table. Wedding ring mints in silver compotes were placed along the board. Ices and individual cakes were served by a group of young ladies in evening attire. They were Miss Mary Eleanor Coverdale, Miss Virginia Brown, Miss Mary Mulhern, Miss Alyce Daniels, Miss Gladys Emma Whitfield, Miss Elaine Carroll of Baton Rouge, Mrs. Shelby Calhoun of Starkville, Miss., and Miss Snow Drew.

The gifts were on display and among them were noted two handsome silver coffee and tea services, a set of Wedgwood china and flat silver in the Chantilly pattern. A set of crystal, linens, breakfast sets and handsome satin comforts, were noted in the collection.

Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun are spending their honeymoon in Florida and upon their return will be at home at 706 Glenmar avenue.

Mrs. Calhoun, popular member of Monroe's younger set, graduated from the state university at Baton Rouge, and is a member of Delta Zeta sorority.

Mr. Calhoun is a graduate of Tyler Commercial college and Southern Methodist university in Dallas. He is a member of Delta Beta Chi fraternity. Mr. Calhoun is identified with the Ritchie Grocer company of this city.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. C. W. Gaisser of Springhill, Mrs. Shelby Calhoun of Starkville, Miss., Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Metoyer of Alexandria, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dunn of Baton Rouge, Mr. W. E. Curry of Winnfield, Miss Claire Carroll of Baton Rouge, Miss Edna Emma Trichel of Shreveport.

Included among the charming pre-nuptial affairs honoring Miss Sadye Lou Peters, who became the bride of Mr. Credille Calhoun Thursday, was the luncheon with Miss Ella Pearl Sutton and Miss Mary Mulhearn as hostesses.

Pink roses were massed in artistic profusion in a flaring Venetian bowl and marking the cover reserved for Miss Peters was a corsage of pink sweetheart roses and valley lilies.

A delicious four-course luncheon was served. Unusually artistic was the dessert course with heart-shaped ices and pink embossed gateaux surmounted with crystalized cupids, served with the demi-tasse.

The hostesses presented Miss Peters with a set of coffee spoons in the Chantilly pattern.

Intimate friends present in addition to the hostesses and the guest of honor were: Miss Sarah Moffett, Miss Dean McKoin, Mrs. William Smith, Miss Gerry Trichel.

ACCENT HEAD AND HANDS

A barrel muff and toque of Persian lamb and bracelets of silver disks make smart head and hand accents to a two-piece black crepe frock. Its skirt is designed with unpressed pleats and its jacket smoothly banded in white.

Miss Martin Weds Wilfred Bingaman

Miss Jewel Martin of Monroe and Mr. Wilfred Bingaman of Clarks were married on Saturday evening, October 30, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Martin, at Kelly. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Paul Jones, pastor of the Clarks Baptist church, in the presence of the parents and near relatives of the couple. Immediately following the wedding ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at an informal reception, at their home.

Soon after her graduation from the Kelly High school in 1937, Mrs. Bingaman accepted a position in Monroe, where she made her home until her marriage.

Mr. Bingaman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bingaman of Clarks. Since his graduation from the Clarks High school, he has been employed by the Louisiana Central Lumber company, in Clarks, where the young couple are now at home to their friends.

Mrs. Bingaman was complimented by Mrs. R. C. Craft, who entertained with a miscellaneous shower in her honor, at her home, in Clarks last week.

After the gifts had been opened and inspected by the guests, a refreshment course was served to the folowing: Mrs. Wilfred Bingaman, Mrs. Lacy Whitington, Mrs. Cecile Price, Mrs. J. N. Hilliard, Mrs. Ludie Autonberry, Mrs. Lonnie Finnie, Mrs. Claude Dunlap, Mrs. Ed Reeves, Mrs. Herman Bratton, Mrs. Leon Emmons, Mrs. J. P. Cupples, Mrs. John Craft, Mrs. Walter Slay, Mrs. Fred Doolittle, Mrs. Paul Jones, Mrs. Newt Gilbert, Mrs. George Piles, Mrs. Holmes Dunn, Mrs. Grady Rintz, Mrs. George Cotton, Miss Fannie Bean, Jackie Bingaman, Mrs. J. Music Guild Holds Meeting

The regular meeting of the Music Guild was held in the home of Mrs. Marvyn Johnson with Mrs. Jefferson Henderson as hostess.

After the reading in unison of the notation from Longfellow which prefaced the program, "Music is the universal language of mankind," the last program on early Italian music was given as follows:

Vocal solo, Caro Mio Ben (G. Giordani)—Mrs. E. E. Lawson.

The choral numbers which were practiced are a part of the group which the Music Guild expects to give on an open program early in December.

Mrs. Henderson, assisted by Mrs. Johnson, served delicious refreshments to the following members: Mrs. E. Everett Lawson, Mrs. Dallas Goss, Mrs. Francis C. Holden, Mrs. Louise Averett, Mrs. J. Norman Coon, Mrs. R. W. Cretney, Mrs. H. M. James, Mrs. Paul Newman, Mrs. Raymond Spence, Mrs. P. A. Poag, Mrs. Raymond T. Watson, Mrs. S. Lockwood Webb and Mrs. Willys Hopkins.

Halloween Festival Is Held By P.-T. A.

Carnival Spirit Reigns Supreme When Georgia Tucker Association Sponsors Affair

The carnival spirit reigned supreme Thursday evening when the annual Halloween festival, sponsored by the Parent-Teacher association, was held in the auditorium of the Georgia Tucker school.

Halloween sprites, witches riding on brooms and dainty ballet dancers, all combined to make the spectacular affair an outstanding success and approximately five hundred spectators witnessed the gorgeous panorama.

Miss Myrtle Rodgers, principal, extended a gracious welcome to the large ad appreciative audience and the school band, under the direction of Mr. Charles Gaushell, opened the program with several beautiful selections. Numbers given by the band were "Stands by the Schools," "Assembly A Overture," and "Lead on March."

Miss Olive Leigh Myatt accompanied the songs and dances of the program.

Bobby Jones sang "Dinah," and Beverly Martin, dressed as a little Dutch girl, sang and danced "In a Little Wooden Shoe."

Cecelia Cascio, dressed in a floor-length frock of net, played the following accordion selections: "My Wild Irish Rose," "Those Endearing Young Charms," "Turkey in the Straw" and "Dixie Land."

The "Witches Song" was given by the following children dressed as witches and riding brooms: Ernest Blumenthal, Patricia Wadley, Alice O'Kelly, Louise Frisbie, Heather Hodges, Ronnie Hendricks, Joe Mary Scobia, Billy Patterson, Rufus Alonzo, Ann Atkinson, Maurine Linquist, Ann Brown, Wilma McCauley, Margot Marx and Johnny Johnson.

"Ghosts" singing a Halloween song were Ann Bornman, Linial Chandler, Betty Jean Woods, Audrey Wilson, Marguerite Richards, Sue Beth Move, Jo Ann Sugar, Edith Walters, Melba Heath, Iris Moore, Sara Ellen Bruno, Carolyn Apperson, Arden Girault, Doris Brown, Edna Lee Thompson, Betty McRoberts, Virginia Battaglia, and Sara Langford.

Another goup, including Minnie Madden, Betty Jo Scoggins, Gwendolyn Chandler and Suzanne Phoebus, also dressed as pickaninnies, sang and trucked "Shortenin' Bread." "Little Orphan Annie" was presented by a group of small girls, dressed as "Raggedy Annes." The participants were Mary Evelyn Johnson, Patsy Sager, Becky Hatfield and Ann Crandall.

Last on the program were two vocal selections, "Smilin' Through" and "When I Grow Too Old to Dream," by Cleta Godfrey, lovely in an old-fashioned costume.

Miss Rodgers expressed her appreciation to Mrs. Elmer Richards, president of the Georgia Tucker association, and Mrs. Preston Fergus, finance chairman, for their assistance in the carnival, and also the merchants who donated generously and the mothers who also made donations.

Committees for the carnival were: Steering committee for the minstrel, Mrs. F. D. Lippman, Miss Mary Trousdale; decorating committee, Miss Alice Florsheim, Mrs. Howard Willard, Miss Annie Wines, Mrs. A. R. Doughty, Mrs. Alex Wilenzick, Mrs. W. R. Hammond, Mrs. E. A. Miller, Miss Gertrude Hart, and Miss Rosa Belle McDonald; ticket committee, Mrs. J. T. Eubanks, Mrs. A. R. Hodges, Mrs. Preston Fergus; bingo, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sandel, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Rainwater; popcorn and peanut stand, Mr. George Lowery, Elmer Richards, Jr.; punch, Mrs. John Atkinson, Mrs. Golman Grant, Mrs. Lee Hodges, Mrs. Joe Kern; candy, Mrs. D. E. Bivens, Mrs. Sam Browning, Mrs. Howard Willard, Miss Alice Florsheim; fish pond, Mrs. W. T. Baskin, Mrs. J. G. Hicks, Mrs. H. B. Cruthirds, Mrs. W. O. Patterson, Mrs. J. C. Stovall; cake walk, Mr. and Mrs. John Birdsong, Mrs. E. Richards, Mrs. J. S. Henderson, Mrs. F. D. Lippman. Miss Olive Leigh Myatt, Mr. Preston Fergus; fruit and grocery raffle, Mr. C. S. Foster.

Attractive posters, made by pupils of the school, advertised the booths and attractions of the carnival.

Play Scheduled

A play entitled, "Friday Afternoon in a Village School," will be given at the Ouachita Parish High school Friday, December 6. The play will be given by the student aid committee of the Ouachita Parish P.-T. A. It is a faculty play and Joe Craig, grammar school principal, and Walter Minniear, band master, will have the leading roles.

Miss Ann Platt, Mrs. John Coon, Miss Gertrude Gregory, F. M. Durham, Courtney Ryland and Vernon Haynes will have prominent roles.

This play was ordered from New York City for this presentation here for the first time and the P.-T. A. urges the public to attend, stated Mrs. Jack Castle, chairman of student aid.

The play will be directed by Miss Lallage Feazel.

Education Week Planned

American education week will be observed by parent-teacher associations in Louisiana this week, with "Education for Tomorrow's America" the theme of the programs which will be presented by associations all over the state.

American education week has for its aims the following objectives: To put children first; to attach importance to the school as an instrument for the improvement of our democratic way of life; to deepen the interest of parents in their children and in the schools; to quicken the educational consciousness of the community; to emphasize the part education must play in the new social economic advance; to unite all forces in the community in a common effort to improve the schools.

In observance of American education week, the following programs have been planned for November 6 to November 12:

November 6—Achieving the Golden Rule.

November 8—Mastering skills and knowledge.

November 9—Attaining values and standards.

November 10—Accepting new responsibilities.

November 11—Holding fast to ideals of freedom.

November 12—Gaining security for all.

Plan Minstrel Show

Members of the Neville High school and Sherrouse Parent-Teacher associations were busily engaged last week in rehearsing and perfecting plans for a minstrel show, "Blue John Entertainers" which will be presented at the Neville auditorium November 16 at 8:15 p.m.

Mr. Charles Gaushell will be master of ceremonies and such noted characters as Magnolia Snooge, Flat Foot Floogie, Lula Belle and Rowdy Dowdy will assist in making the show one of the outstanding hits of the season.

To Submit Posters

All publicity chairmen of Parent-Teacher associations are urged to submit posters for display at the state convention, which will be held in Monroe, in April.

These posters may be 10x15, 15x20 or 16x24 inches in size.

The poster should make an announcement or tell a story of parent-teacher activities.

A short slogan or text is more effective than a wordy one, not to exceed 15 or 16 words.

The colors may be bright and harmonious and the letters should be printed.

Publicity chairmen are also reminded to send two copies of news stories to the state publicity chairman, one to be entered in the state scrap book and the other to be sent to national.

Swartz

Mrs. G. B. Wilson was elected president of the Swartz P.-T. A. at the meeting held last week, and Mrs. T. C. McGlohon was named vice-president. Other officers elected were Miss Opal Davis, secretary; Mrs. John Scarff, treasurer.

Chairmen named for the year were Mrs. H. I. Payne, program; Mrs. C. B. Hammett, welfare; Mrs. R. L. Berry, publicity; Mrs. J. E. Sapp, publications; Mrs. John Scarff, music; Mrs. J. B. Spillers, safety; Mr. J. E. Sapp, playground; Mrs. Fred Patterson, finance and budget; Mrs. Harvey Hare, membership; Mrs. W. T. Turnage, hospitality; Mrs. S. C. Matthews, national P.-T. A. magazine; Mrs. D. Stone, study group.

Mrs. Wilson, president, represented the group at the district meeting held in Lake Providence recently.

Instead of the regular program, the members entertained the children attending the Swartz school with a halloween party, presenting the following program under the direction of Mrs. Matthews:

"Ten Little Pumpkins," Halloween song—Third grade.

"Five Little Chickens" — Second grade.

"Pumpkin Time"—Oneal Batson.

Piano solo—Jamie Smith.

Halloween song—First grade.

"Only One"—Patsy Batson.

Choudrant

A large group of interested parents and visitors met in the Choudrant High school November 1. The president, Mrs. W. M. Bagwell, presided.

The regular business session took place, with reports from various chairmen given. Of interest was the report from the membership chairman, which showed that Choudrant had an enrollment of 75 P.-T. A. members at the time of meeting.

The P.-T. A. was given an exceedingly interesting program, arranged by our program chairman, as follows:

Song: "America the Beautiful."

Trio: "School Days."

Education: Miss Thesta Walker.

Reading: Miss Oliver Trussell.

Address: "The Place of School As a Partner in the School of America," by Dr. Cline from Louisiana Tech.

Benediction; Rev. Moreland.

The prize was given to the room that had the most mothers and fathers present and was awarded to Miss Dorothy Nolan, second grade teacher.

The executive committee of the Choudrant P.-T. A. met October 27 at the Choudrant High school with Mrs. Bagwell, the president, presiding.

A plan suggested by Mrs. J. A. O'Neal was made to give clothes to underprivileged children and to investigate into the "soup kitchen" plan.

The resignation of Mrs. W. G. Kelly as treasurer was accepted and Miss Doris Durrett was elected to fill the vacancy.

Grayson

The Grayson P.-T. A. met with 26 members present. The meeting was called to order by the president and the minutes were read by the secretary.

It was moved and seconded that the P.-T. A. use the funds in the treasury to buy benches for the school children to sit on while eating their lunch. Floyd Johnston, Billy Eglin and Mrs. Mary Hall were placed on a committee to determine the number of benches needed.

Parent magazine and Louisiana P.-T. A. bulletins were passed to the P.-T. A. members.

Room mothers' report was given by Melba Biggs naming the mothers for each room.

Mrs. A. D. Eglin gave a report of the district meeting held in Sicily Island. At this meeting Grayson placed second on attendance, receiving a subscription to the P.-T. A. magazine. Mrs. Eglin also discussed the goals of the P.-T. A.

It was announced that the district meeting of the P.-T. A will be held in Grayson this spring.

Ansley

The Ansley Parent-Teacher association entertained the old graduates of the Ansley High school with a homecoming banquet and program. The entertainment was presented in the beautifully decorated hallway of the high school building.

Ansley High school was established in 1916 with D. G. Armstrong, now of Louisiana Tech, as the first principal. He and Mrs. E. L. Walker of Ruston, who was teaching here at that time, were the honor guests of the occasion.

Every year from 1916 to 1939 was represented by either a graduate or teacher. Duke Clinton, who graduated in 1917, was the oldest graduate present. In all there were approximately 130 who attended the homecoming.

The present principal of the Ansley High school is J. A. McBride, Sr. He has been with the school since 1936, and the present senior class is composed of five boys and six girls, making a total of 11 to receive their high school diplomas in May.

All of the old grads expressed their happiness in being given an opportunity of coming back to their alma mater and some said that it was the best and largest affair of this kind to be held at Ansley. This was the first homecoming program to be held at Ansley in the history of the school.

Watson

The Watson P.-T. A. celebrated Halloween with an interesting program and a cake walk. The program consisted of a play, tap dancing and singing.

A beauty contest was held with Miss Nora Larche winning first place and Miss Genevieve Davis as second most beautiful girl and Mr. Joe Rutledge, first, and Mr. J. C. Jordan, second, as the most handsome man.

Clarks

Mrs. G. N. Harrison was in charge of the program presented at the meeting of the Clarks P.-T. A., presided over by Mrs. Walter Crowell, president.

Two program features of special interest were a talk on "New Trends in Teaching," Miss Penny Cottingham, parish supervisor, and a musical number in which Miss Marie Minard, first grade teacher, presented the pupils in her "Mocking Bird Group." The pupils in this group are Burnette Sellers, Aulsine Coates, Mildred Martin, Raymond Ballard, Bonnie Muriel Benson, Jimmie Nell Gough, Billie Jean McBroom and Evelyn Douglass.

Mrs. U. N. Bradford's fourth grade students were awarded the prize for having the largest number of mothers among the 35 mothers present at the meeting.

Sicily Island

The district Parent-Teacher association recently held a meeting in the Sicily Island High school. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. E. Fay Walter, district director. The principal addresses were made by Mrs. P. A. Blanchard, president Louisiana P.-T. A.; Mrs. W. B. Glover, state chairman, and Mrs. A. L. Price, past director, Tenth district. A luncheon was served in the home economics department. The meeting adjourned after a brief business meeting in the afternoon. The Sicily Island chapter won the prize for having the greatest number of delegates present.

Miss Grisham Weds Woodrow Barham

Miss Jane Elizabeth Grisham, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Grisham of McGehee, Ark., and Mr. Woodrow Barham, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Barham of Bastrop, were married Saturday, October 29, at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Eva Cheatham of Oak Grove, in the presence of relatives and intimate friends with Rev. E. B. Emmerich of the Methodist church officiating.

The reception suits was decorated with baskets of roses and ferns, with southern smilax banking the improvised altar. Mr. C. F. Blanchard, Jr., of Epps and Kansas City, Mo., accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Ellis Womack of Eudora, Ark., sang "Until" and during the ceremony Mrs. Womack played "I Love You Truly."

An informal reception was held and the wedding cake, gracing the lace-covered table, was served with iced punch.

After a brief honeymoon, the young couple will make their home in Oak Grove, where the groom is engaged in business.

Out-of-town guests included: Mrs. Leonard Simms, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Thompson, Mrs. Will Veal and daughter, Bonnie Jean, and Mr. Roscoe Grisham of McGehee, Ark.; Mrs. Ellis Womack of Eudora, Ark.

Art Gallery To Open At Shreveport

Louisiana artists are notified that a finely equipped, modern art gallery is soon to be opened for the permanent display for their paintings.

The gallery will be located in the new state exhibit building in Shreveport. Opening about the first of the year, the art galleries will be the first part of the building ready for public exhibits.

Amos Lee Armstrong, president of the Shreveport Art club, presided over a meeting for all Louisiana artists held in the Shreve Memorial library on Saturday, November 5. The art club, which is assembling the paintings for this gallery, plans to collect about fifty representative paintings in the next sixty days. Artists are asked to submit paintings 20x26 inches in size or larger.

Mr. Harry D. Wilson, commissioner of agriculture, has been placed in charge of the entire building, which will be directly supervised by his assistant, Mr. W. E. Anderson of Baton Rouge.

"We plan to have the finest of Louisiana art by resident and native-born artists," Armstrong said. "Artists interested should address the Shreveport Art club, 304 Majestic building, Shreveport, for complete information."

Miss Fair To Wed Ernest Bluhm, Jr.

Of affectionate interest to friends in this city is the announcement made by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fair of Corpus Christi, Tex., formerly of Monroe, of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Corrine Fair, to Mr. Ernest Bluhm, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bluhm of Robstown.

The engagement was formally announced by Miss Fair's mother at a coffee at the Fair home last week.

Miss Fair, a popular member of Monroe's younger set, attended Neville High school and Northeast Center L. S. U. She also attended Tyler Commercial college.

Mr. Bluhm was graduated from the Lockhart High school in Corpus Christi and attended the San Marcos Baptist academy. He is assistant credit manager of the Abe Klein company of Corpus Christi.

Included among the pre-nuptial affairs honoring Miss Fair, following announcement of her engagement and approaching marriage, was the tea-shower which Mrs. T. H. Peddicord and Mrs. Richard Patty gave at the Peddicord home in Corpus Christi.

The wedding of Miss Fair and Mr. Bluhm will be a prominent event of November 6.

Mrs. Walker Reports On Area Conference

The Altrusa club met Thursday evening for its monthly business meeting at the Frances hotel.

Mrs. Fay Walker, president of the club, gave a comprehensive and interesting report of the Seventh district conference which was held on Saturday, October 22, in the Mirror room of the Hotel Beaumont in Beaumont, Tex. The Seventh district includes Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana.

Mrs. Catherine Neville, of Oklahoma City, presided and the officers elected for the coming year were as follows: Nancy Nettles, of Shreveport, governor; Martha Kirten, of Little Rock, first vice-governor; Mary Jo Hopwell, second vice-governor; Dr. Fleta Clark Thomas, of Waco, treasurer, and Jessie Whyte, of Shreveport, secretary.

After the morning session, the president's luncheon was served at a large T-shaped table adorned with horns of plenty overflowing with fruits and flowers. Miss Mable Meek, of Chicago, international secretary of Altrusa, was the principal speaker.

The afternoon session was filled with reports of district chairmen and a round table discussion of Altrusa projects, led by Dr. Nina Fay Calhoun, of Dallas. An invitation from Little Rock to hold the next Altrusa convention in Little Rock was accepted. The memory service for Altrusans who died during the past year was beautifully conducted by Miss Jessie Whyte.

Dr. Harriett Daggett, professor of law at the Louisiana State university, was the principal speaker at the banquet served at the Beaumont Country club.

The highlight of the conference for the local club was the awarding of the Monroe charter. This was a particular distinction since the Monroe club is one of the few Altrusa clubs to reach its charter requirements of classified membership within its first year.

The local club holds its meetings on the first and third Thursdays of each month in the private dining room of the Frances hotel.

Monroe and West Monroe HAPPY-SIZED COMMUNITIES

THERE is a message for Monroe and West Monroe—for every small city, for that matter—in a recent article, SMALL TOWN, by Ernest Elmo Calkins, in the Atlantic Monthly. Monroe and West Monroe aren't exactly small towns; but they have all the pleasures, the happiness, the contentment and the opportunities of one.

The advantages of a small town are brilliantly enumerated by Mr. Calkins.

"All my business life," writes Mr. Calkins, "I have answered letters from aspiring men and women who sound me out as to the wisdom of dropping everything and coming to New York. Their home is a small town, they urge, and does not offer any opportunity. Patiently I explain that the chances in New York are relatively no greater, the rewards relatively no more satisfying; and, if attained, they seem to lead in the long run back to the country.

"One attraction of the small town is that it justifies the motorcar, which congestion in the big cities has practically nullified. In the small town one starts the ride from the front gate. In five minutes he is in open country, instead of spending the first and last hours of a drive threading congested purlieus.

"Small towns make their own standards of living, and set the price as well as the pace. Not only are the necessities of life cheaper, but there is no occasion for some expenditures that the city renders imperative—transportation, for instance, with its steady outlay of nickels, dimes, and half dollars for subway, bus, and taxi; no constant call for tipping, no $35 a month for car storage."

The best thing about a small town, as Mr. Calkins sees it, is the people who live in it. "The inhabitants of a small town are no worse and no better than people everywhere," he observes, "but in the small town you know them, as friends, neighbors, acquaintances, over a long span of years, and they know you for what you are. Be sure of this: If you find the small town dull, the lack is in you.

"Besides qualifying for the small town virtue of neighborliness, some of the people are distinguished for culture, achievement, experience, and personality far more individual than if their corners had been rubbed off by the friction of metropolitan life. In the big city you might see such famous people, but in a small town, if you are worthy, you are privileged to know them.

"Small towns have culture, often in greater degree, relatively, than any large city. There are fine public libraries extensively used; there are fine private libraries in some homes, and many books and magazines in others; there are study clubs which really function . . . musical societies, little theaters.

"The small towns are our greatest asset. It is time we took stock of them. The movement toward decentralization will give them new significance."

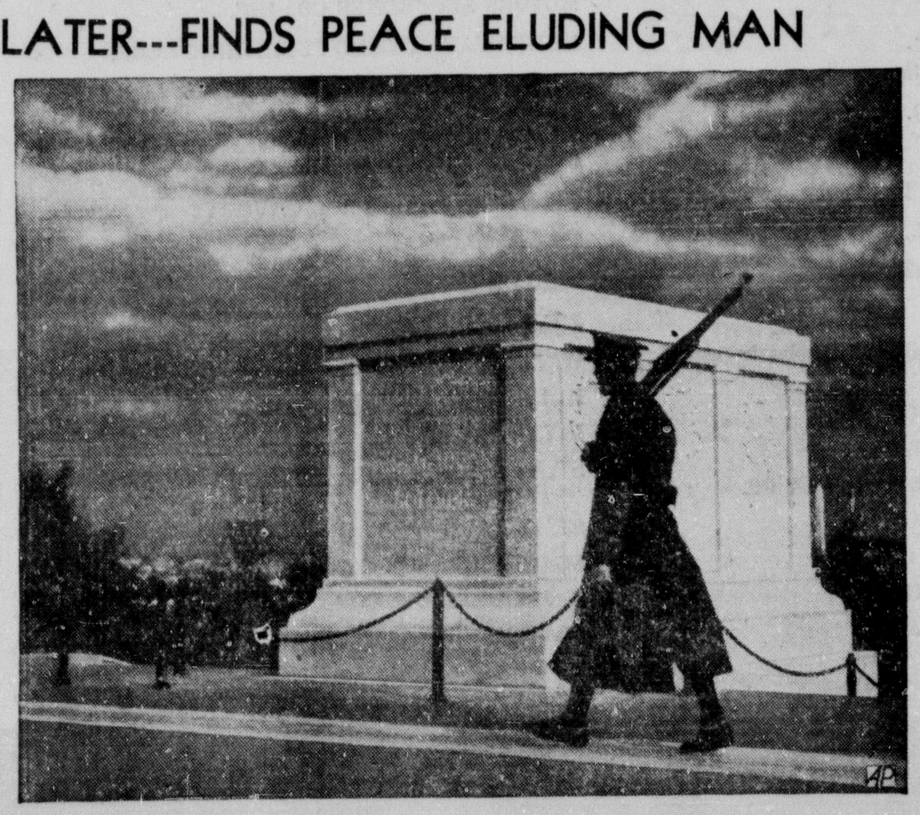
ARMISTICE---20 YEARS LATER---FINDS PEACE ELUDING MAN

PEACE MEN DREAMED OF on Nov. 11, 1918, when armistice ended the great war proved just that—a dream, and of all ensuing years, 1938 brought the gravest threat of a world-wide conflict. Far from peaceful are these recent headlines.



'KNOWN ONLY TO GOD' is the name of the Unknown Soldier whose grave (above) is a shrine in Arlington national cemetery, Virginia. 'Four Daughters' Coming To Paramount Next Friday

Claire Trevor and Wayne Morris find love in "Valley of the Giants," technicolor version of Peter B. Kyne's famous novel, which plays Wednesday and Thursday at the Paramount theater. On the stage Wednesday night "Hair Styles" will be presented.

Jeffrey Lynn, new screen "find," walks away with the hearts of Gale Page, Priscilla Lane, Rosemary Lane and Lola Lane in "Four Daughters," the film version of a famous story by Fannie Hurst, coming to the Paramount theater next Friday.

Stellar Cast Featured In Hurst Drama

Unique Family Problem Told In One Of Best Pictures Of The Year

"FOUR DAUGHTERS," the Warner Bros. picturization of a famous story by Fannie Hurst, will open at the Paramount theater next Friday. A moving tale of four devoted sisters who fall in love with the same man, the film has one of the most unique casts in motion picture history.

Given stability by the presence of such tried and true performers as Claude Rains, May Robson, Frank McHugh and Dick Foran, the cast is made remarkable by a couple of striking circumstances.

First, it marks the only time in motion picture history when three sisters not only played important roles in the same picture but were, in fact, cast as sisters. They are, of course, the Lane girls, Priscilla, Rosemary and Lola. The fourth sister, incidentally, is played by Gale Page, who is said to fit beautifully into the Lane ensemble.

The Warner studio also chose this vehicle to introduce simultaneously two of the most promising young actors it has ever presented in its long history of star-making. They are Jeffrey Lynn, tall, handsome and charming—a promising candidate for feminine-heart palpitator No. 1, and John Garfield, already famous on the Broadway stage as a young character actor.

Lynn plays the captivating youth with whom the sisters all fall in love. He, however, shows a clear preference for the youngest, played by Priscilla Lane. The announcement by Priscilla of her engagement to Jeffrey is a sad blow to the other three girls but one from which they manage to recover easily, especially since they are all so devoted to Priscilla that no question of jealousy is involved.

All seems to be going smoothly until the day that Jeffrey and Priscilla are to be wed. It is then that a down-at-the-heel musician, played by John Garfield, tells Priscilla that her oldest sister, portrayed by Gale Page, is deeply in love with Jeffrey and is broken-hearted over the impending wedding.

The bond between the oldest and the youngest of the girls is so deep that Priscilla cannot bear to be the instrument of her beloved sister's unhappiness. Acting upon a sacrificial impulse, she runs away only a few moments before her scheduled wedding to Jeffrey and marries Garfield.

This starts the chain of circumstances which make the story of "Four Daughters" a rich and human experience. And while the mood is sometimes that of tragedy, it has many gay and light-hearted moments, and it ends, indeed, on a note of uproarious comedy.

The Fannie Hurst original was fashioned into a screen play by Julius J. Epstein and Lenore Coffee, and the production was directed by Michael Curtiz who recently made history with "The Adventures of Robin Hood."

Co-stars of "Army Girl," Preston Foster and Madge Evans with a great supporting cast that includes Ruth Donnelly, H. B. Warner, Billy Gilbert, James Gleason and Heather Angel. "Army Girl" plays today and Monday at the Capitol theater.

Shirley Ross's unwise love for the wrong sort of man, Lloyd Nolan, lands her in a backward and brutal camp in "Prison Farm," which comes to the Capitol theater Thursday. John Howard is co-featured with Miss Ross and Nolan.

Tyrone Power, Alice Faye and Don Ameche star in Irving Berlin's "Alexander's Ragtime Band," which plays a return engagement at the Capitol Wednesday.

The greatest American heart drama of all times ends its run today at the Paramount theater. Spencer Tracy takes the part of Father Flanagan and Mickey Rooney as one of the bad boys in "Boys Town" which the father built on the thought that there is no such thing as a bad boy, and which he proves.

'Army Girl' Now Playing At Capitol

Madge Evans And Preston Foster Starred In Outstanding Film

"ARMY Girl," the Republic picture now showing at the Capitol theater, can readily be catalogued as one of the year's really great pictures. It has everything—a fine story, excellent cast, and direction of the most skillful type.

Julie Armstrong (Madge Evans), the daughter of Colonel Armstrong (H. B. Warner), commander of the 31st regiment, United States cavalry, is tired of the routine post life of an "army" girl. She wants to enjoy life.

The post is visited by Captain Dike Conger (Preston Foster), who is conducting experiments of mechanizing various posts with tanks corps, doing away with cavalry units. He is not exactly welcome, but Julie finds him attractive, if for no other reason than his reputation as a man who "loves and leaves" his women.

Three Star Hennessey (Jimmy Gleason), Dike's pal and mechanic, arranges a date with Julie for Conger. However, he neglects to tell Dike that the young lady is an army girl, as the captain prefers his girls from civilian ranks.

Captain Joe Schuyler (Neil Hamilton), is in love with Julie. He resents Dike's attitude toward her, but there's nothing much he can do about it. All of Julie's friends, including Leila Kennet (Ruth Donnelly), wife of Major Hal Kennet (Ralph Morgan); Riki Thomas (Barbara Pepper); Mrs. Gwen Bradley (Heather Angel); and Captain Bob Marvin, (Ralph Byrd), warn her that she should have nothing to do with Dike Conger. This only serves to make her more interested in him.

An enormous contest is held between the tank corps and the calvary, to determine which is the more efficient. There is then nothing for Dike to do but to wait for an answer from Washington—and to see Julie. He soon forgets his aversion to "army" girls.

The two have a pact that their friendship will be just that—no monkey business. This works swell for awhile. They finally admit they're in love, and Dike goes to Colonel Armstrong to ask permission to marry his daughter.

Complications arise when Armstrong announces that the tanks have won the contest, and that he has orders to turn over his command to Captain Conger. This is more than Dike had bargained for and Julie believes he has double-crossed her father.

On the day Dike is to take command, Harry Ross (Guinn Williams), fixes one of the tanks which he believes will be manned by Dike and Three Star, so that it will get out of control when driven. Instead of Conger, however, Colonel Armstrong and Three Star enter this tank. It is wrecked, and both are killed.

Joe Schuyler is the first to reach the wreck, and as Three Star dies, he tells Schuyler that he had seen Ross snooping around the tank. No one else hears this statement.

Conger is court-martialed for gross negligence. During the trial Schuyler attempts to persuade Julie to marry him. She refuses, and realizing that his is a lost case anyway, Schuyler goes to the court, exposes Ross, and clears Conger.

All ends well as Julie and Dike are reunited.

NORMAL TEACHERS WIN RECOGNITION

NATCHITOCHES, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—Three women members of the Louisiana State Normal college faculty were honored today when official announcement was made that two will have biographies in volume 3 of "American Women," and a third has had several songs accepted for publication in a new state song book for use in the public schools.

Biographical sketches of Dr. Lauretta E. Fox and Dr. Priscilla B. Hussey, both members of the biology department at the State Teachers' college, will be included in the current volume of "American Women," the official "Who's Who" among the women of the nation.

Miss Blanche E. Toy, instructor in the school of music at the State Normal college, has several of her song compositions accepted for publication in "Come and Sing," a publication edited by S. T. Burns, former state director of music in Louisiana. The new book will be used by the public schools throughout the state.

Miss Toy's contributions to the new book range from songs on fun to patriotism and are arranged especially for children of the elementary grade level.

LINCOLN PARISH READY FOR 1938 TAX PAYMENTS

RUSTON, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—Lincoln parish's tax rolls for 1938 have been filed and assessments are now payable at the sheriff's office, it has been announced. The taxes will become delinquent on January 1, 1939, and subject to a penalty of 10 per cent after that date.

Tax rolls for the city of Ruston are expected to be ready for payment about December 1, it was reported from the mayor's office.

The parish assessments for 1938 show an increase of nearly a half million dollars over the total of the preceding year. The amount reported this year is $7,185,414, as compared with $6,734,487 for 1937. Taxes collectable in 1937 amounted to $237,112.92, while the rolls for 1938 total $256,896.94. Homestead exemptions for 1938 are $52,353.88, as compared with $49,393.48 in 1937.

FAMOUS ASPHALT LAKE IN TRINIDAD

Sir Walter Raleigh Used Material To Calk Boats Three Centuries Ago

On the island of Trinidad, lying in the deep-blue, tropical waters of the Caribbean, is one of the most curious of nature's phenomena—the world's famous Trinidad Asphalt lake.

Here, by a process extending over ages and utilizing to the fullest measure the seasoning powers of tropical sun and equatorial storms, is created the material used by Sir Walter Raleigh more than three centuries ago to caulk his leaky ships.

The romance of nature is demonstrated in a striking manner by the Trinidad asphalt lake. Close by the deposit, which covers about 114 acres, luxuriant tropical palms and other vegetations rise to giddy heights. On the expanse of dull, bluish-gray asphalt play the scorching rays of the sun and over it sweep torrential rains, just as they have done for centuries past. As a result the asphalt is the world's greatest waterproofing and weather-resisting material.

Columbus on his third voyage to America in 1498 discovered Trinidad and landed on the island. To it he gave the name it still bears, in honor of the Blessed Trinity.

Like other islands in the West Indies, Trinidad went through a series of conquests. First, the original inhabitants of the island, the gentle mannered Indians, were conquered by the Spaniards. Then the island was harrassed by pirates and later captured by the English who still own the island. Today Trinidad is one of the most important of Great Britain's possessions in the western hemisphere.

The legends of the West Indies recount how the asphalt lake was created by the Great Spirit, as a visitation of vengeance upon the Chaymas Indians. To the early residents of the island humming birds represented the souls of departed Indians. The Chaymas, according to the stories, killed these feathered jewels of the air and made garments from their skins. Aroused, the Great Spirit one night wiped their village from the face of the earth and put in its place the asphalt lake.

Perhaps the most curious feature of the asphalt lake is the apparent overnight replenishing of the supply. The asphalt is dug from the lake by gangs of natives but by the next morning the hole is almost obliterated. This is due, however, not so much to the production of new asphalt as to the gradual settling of the entire surface.

Trinidad Lake Asphalt is used exclusively in the manufacture of Barber Genasco Roofings, Shingles and Sidings which are sold and applied by Superior Lumber company of this city.

CHILD MARVEL WITH EXPOSITION

PLANS FOR EIGHT HOMES AVAILABLE

Superior Lumber Company Offers Special Plan To Home Builders

Announcement was made yesterday by the Superior Lumber company, Inc., that plans and specifications for "Eight Houses for Modern Living," recently shown in Life magazine, are now available to home builders at the company's offices on Louisville avenue.

Eight of the most distinguished architects in the United States drew the plans and specifications for the modern homes, which are designed for representative families earning from $2,000 to $10,000 a year.

Along with the plans and specifications, the Superior Lumber company is prepared to assist home builders with financing. Officials of the company believe that there are many renters in Monroe, West Monroe and vicinity who could afford to build homes of their own, and many home owners who could afford to build better homes, but who do not know how easy it is to finance the building of a home.

The Superior Lumber company invites persons with an established income to call at its offices, look over the plans and specifications of the eight unusually attractive, modernistic homes, and obtain an understanding of the easy financing plans.

Progress in technology and design since the boom years has made the 1938 model home, as well as the 1938 model automobile, not only cheaper but also far better than the 1926 models, it was stated.

In buying a home, not all builders can make a start in the buying as easy as paying rent. But against possible sacrifices at the start, the Superior Lumber company officials ask home builders to weigh pleasanter living, the pride of creation and ownership, the security of substantial investment.

Many young couples, and many families with several children, picture in their thoughts a kind of "dream" home, a home that will make life richer and more satisfying. It is the contention of the Superior Lumber company that this dream can be attained. The company believes that it has the answer in the "Eight Houses for Modern Living."

THEY'D LIKE TO DIP $300,000 OUT OF WISHING WELL

Walt Disney, cartoon king of the movies, seems to be acquiring a fine wardrobe of suits, what with two of them filed against his organization for alleged music piracy in "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" and now two more filed by the singers who warbled for "Snow White" and the prince. Adriana Caselotti (left), the voice of Snow White, and Harry Stockwell (right), the voice of the prince, demanded $300,000 in New York supreme court. They claimed millions of phonograph records were made from the sound track of the film in violation of their contracts which, they say, restricted their voices to the movies alone. The dark-haired Adriana, who reportedly received less than $1,000 for her work, seeks $200,000, and Stockwell, whose pay check was said to be under $500, wants $100,000. The film (a love scene between the prince and Snow White is shown in center) is reported to be grossing around $10,000,000.

M'KENZIE PRINCIPAL SPEAKER AT LEGION ARMISTICE PROGRAM

OAK GROVE, La., Nov. 5.—(Special) Charles E. McKenzie of Monroe, past department commander of the American Legion, will be the principal speaker at the celebration that is being arranged by the Catron-Kelly post No. 53 for Armistice day.

The program will be as follows: Sunrise salute, 9 a.m., at the legion hut; 10 a.m., parade and march to the high school; 10:30 assemble in the auditorium while the band plays "Hail, Hail"; advance colors as band plays "Star Spangled Banner"; song, "America," accompanied by the band; invocation by W. C. Hampton, post chaplain; roll call of parish deceased ex-service men, by R. M. Shillings; address of welcome, D. B. Fiske, post commander; three-gun salute at 11 a.m., followed by 30 seconds of silence in memory of deceased veterans, and three bugle echo taps; introduction of speaker, by Arden B. Smith, fifth district commander; address, Charles E. McKenzie, past department commander; allegiance to the flag, R. M. Millikin, fifth district adjutant; retire colors; announcements, D. B. Fiske; benediction, D. B. Fiske; refreshments at hut at 12:30 p.m.

The flags recently bought by the Catron-Kelly post through the cooperation of local merchants will be displayed in front of the business houses for the first time on this day.

A bee recognizes every other member of its hive, although there may be from fifty to eighty thousand members.

EDUCATION WEEK TO BE OBSERVED

All Schools Of Nation To Have Special Programs Daily

American Education week will be observed in all schools of the United States this week, having been so designated by both the American Legion and the National Education association. Monroe's schools will have special programs in this connection. "Education for Tomorrow's America" will be the general theme.

Each day short talks will be made at the various schools. The topics that will prevail during the week will be as follows: Sunday, "Achieving the Golden Rule"; Monday, "Developing Strong Bodies and Able Minds"; Tuesday, "Mastering Skills and Knowledge"; Wednesday, "Attaining Values and Standards"; Thursday, "Accepting New Civic Responsibilities"; Friday, "Holding Fast to Our Ideals of Freedom"; Saturday, "Gaining Security for All."

President Roosevelt has issued a proclamation urging observance of the week in which he says among other things: "I think it is of happy significance that one of the topics selected is 'Holding Fast to Our Ideals of Freedom.' Upon the maintenance of those ideals depends all of our happiness."

American Education week was inaugurated in 1921 and has been a powerful instrument for acquainting the public with the needs of our schools. With mounting interest in the need to develop an educational system that is abreast of the progress in industrial America, the attention of the public has been centered upon educational problems through American Education week. In 1937, nearly 10,000,000 persons visited the schools and participated in the program for education week.

FRATERNITIES ACCEPT 64 AT NORMAL COLLEGE

NATCHITOCHES, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—With the termination of the regular annual six weeks' rush period, three fraternities at the Louisiana State Normal college here announced today the acceptance of bids by 64 men enrolled in the college.

Sigma Tau Gamma leads in the number of pledges with 26, Lambda Zeta is second with 19 and Phi Kappa Nu is a close third with 17 pledges. Initiation ceremonies will be performed by the Greek letter clubs at an early date, officers of the fraternities stated today.

LIMBLESS WONDER WITH EXPOSITION

Freida Pushnic, 17, Born Minus Arms, Legs; Writes, Crochets

A limbless wonder, so talented in skilled arts that Robert Ripley has featured her in his Believe It Or Not cartoon, is little Freida Pushnic. The 17-year-old girl, able to write, crochet and do other normal tasks without the aid of arms or legs, is one of the feature attractions with the Pacific exposition train that will be on exhibition in Monroe for three days only, starting Friday, November 11.

She will demonstrate to the visitors of the exhibit the feats that amazed thousands of spectators who saw her at the Chicago World's fair where she appeared in the Ripley's Odditorium.

Freida proves that a girl can be happy in spite of a handicap that might discourage the best of us. She learned to crochet and sew, but Freida does not stop there. She learned to write well and actually won a prize for penmanship. Her one ambition is to become a missionary.

The Pacific exposition train will be located on a railroad side track near the Illinois Central passenger station on DeSiard street, and will be open to the public from noon until 11 p.m. daily.

Those applying for the position at Lake Providence are Mrs. Lillian P. Gross, Mrs. Tommy G. Biggs, Charles M. Hart, Mrs. Myrtis W. Wyly, Charles E. Holloway, William C. Lyon, Mrs. Anna R. Pinkston, Mrs. Georgia D. Pinkston, Mrs. Bessie B. Lyon, William J. Grossman, Jr., Mrs. Ethel W. Belser and Mrs. Floramae Merrill.

STUDENTS ORGANIZE COMMUTERS' CLUB

RUSTON, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—Drive-in students of Louisiana Tech, who ride to the college from their homes each day in buses, have organized a commuters' club for the purpose of handling the problems of the drive-in students and also for promoting a spirit of friendship.

A committee, composed of one boy and one girl from each bus, has been elected. Jack Thornton of Winnfield, and Louine Peters of Quitman, have been selected to serve as representatives on the newly organized council at Tech, called the student union.

Among the students on the committee are James Whitten, Monroe, and Beatrice Forrest, Monroe.

LASALLE RED CROSS ROLL CALL SLATED

JENA, La., Nov. 5.—(AP)—(Special)—The annual roll call drive of the American Red Cross in LaSalle parish will begin Friday, November 11, and will close on Thanksgiving day.

The chairman selected for the various communities are: Trout, Mrs. Fred Southerland; Good Pine, J. Davy Tullos, Fern Benson; Urania, Mrs. Q. T. Hardtner; Olla, B. E. Zeagler; Summerville, Mrs. H. M. Davis. W. F. Mackey is parish chairman of the drive.

CLAIBORNE RED CROSS ROLL CALL ANNOUNCED

HOMER, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—The annual Red Cross roll call in Claiborne parish will get under way November 11 and will continue through November 24, with Mrs. Wideman Watson acting as chairman of the drive. The chapter has set a goal of 800 members.

The following officers to serve the Claiborne parish Red Cross chapter during the coming year were recently elected: Mrs. A. Baker, chairman; Mrs. E. A. Campbell, vice-chairman; Mrs. T. A. Brown, secretary-treasurer; H. G. Robinson, George White, Mrs. Lamont Seals, Mrs. E. A. Campbell, Mrs. Melton Oakes, Claude White, Mrs. Henry Horton, M. J. Haynes, V. M. Roberts, Mrs. Joe Marsalis, members of the board of directors.

Department chairmen include Mrs. W. Watson, home service; Claude White, disaster; Dr. Poimboeuf, first aid; Mrs. Henry Horton, volunteer; Mrs. G. W. Tigner, publicity.

HOME HYGIENE CLASS HELD BY MISS PAGE

SARDIS, La., Nov. 5.—(Special)—The home hygiene and care of the sick class, conducted by Miss Frances Page, an American Red Cross nurse, was held in the home of Mrs. L. D. Wilbanks of Sardis Wednesday.

Maternity care and care of infants was the topic of the lesson. Interesting reports were given as follows: The film, "The Birth of a Baby," by Mrs. W. H. Landrum; "The Syphilitic Mother," by Mrs. O. A. Russell; "Midwifery," by Mrs. C. W. Dowdy; "Providing Safe Maternity For All Mothers," by Mrs. W. H. Landrum.

Due to the absence of so many members at the meeting, the maternity care and care of infants will be continued for the next meeting which will be held in the home of Mrs. W. S. Berry Wedesday afternoon, November 9.

DON'T

Look for Printing "Bargains." They Don't Exist

But, at our shop, you DO get the advantages of our superior work at surprisingly moderate cost. We don't cut prices, because we decline to "Skimp" on anything that enters into high grade printing.

A two-cent stamp will carry your message within the reach of your prospect, but—unless your printed matter has that "winning personality"—the kind that attracts attention—it will fail in its mission! Too many offices have waste paper baskets choked with good ideas that failed to reach their man.

Personality counts! Personality in paper, layout, in type, in color and above all, in printing. These attract and hold the prospect's attention and create the desire to hear the story—tell it from different angles through different mediums, then it will never grow old or tiresome, and success will be yours.

Your DIRECT-BY-MAIL literature, if entrusted to us, will have this PRINTING PERSONALITY.

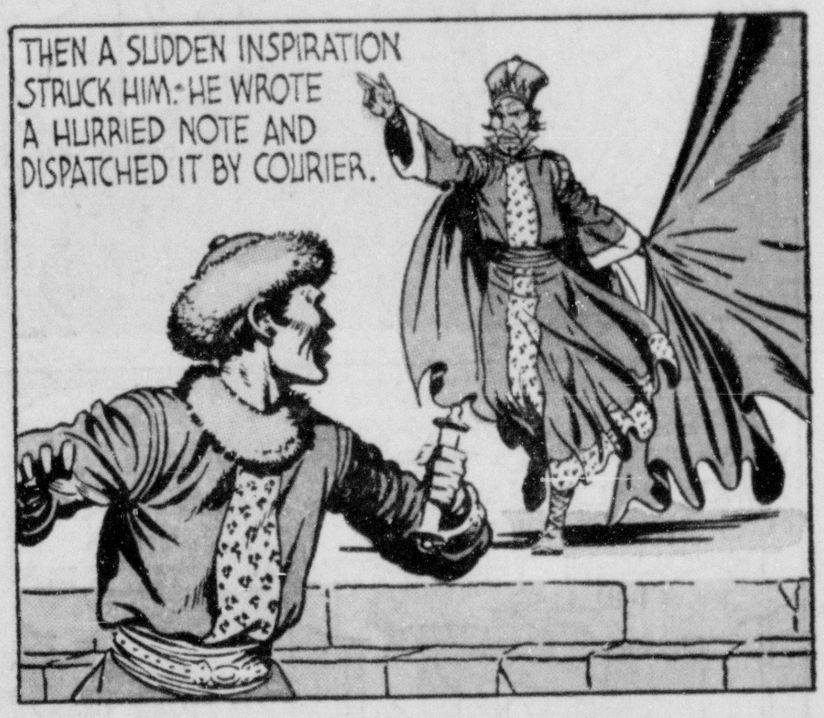
TRAPPED!



LULING HATED FANG, BUT SHE DID HIS BIDDING TO SAVE THE LIFE OF TARZAN, WHOM SHE LOVED.

WHEN SHE CAME TO HIS APARTMENT, FANG ORDERED TARZAN BROUGHT IN TO WITNESS HIS VILLAINOUS TRIUMPH.

FANG LAUGHED. "I'M NO FOOL. TARZAN IS DANGEROUS. NOW THAT I HAVE YOU, I SHALL KILL HIM."

WITH A MIGHTY SURGE OF POWER HE BURST HIS BONDS. IF HE WAS TO DIE, HE'D DIE FIGHTING!

HE LEAPED AT THE VILLAIN: FANG CRIED OUT. GUARDS BURST INTO THE ROOM. "KILL HIM!" SCREAMED FANG. AND THE GUARDS RUSHED TO OBEY!

NEXT WEEK: THE LAST STAND

WE WOULD HAVE HAD YOU OUT SOONER ONLY OUR HORSES WERE STOLEN SO THAT WHEN THE OFFICER STARTED BACK TO TOWN FOR A ROPE HE HAD TO WALK ABOUT 3 MILES.

OF COURSE IT'S OBVIOUS WHO STOLE THE HORSES!

CERTAINLY! COWARDLY KARPSE DID THAT AFTER HIS WOMAN ACCOMPLICE HAD BEEN CLAWED TO DEATH BY THE BEAR.

HER FINGER PRINTS HAVE BEEN FORWARDED TO THE F.B.I. FOR IDENTIFICATION. SHE OBVIOUSLY IS A FOREIGN AGENT.

McCARD JUST CALLED FROM ALTON, AND SAID THE THREE HORSES WERE FOUND GRAZING IN A WOOD NEAR TERRYTON.

GOOD! THAT MEANS KARPSE IS WORKING HIS WAY TOWARD THE CITY AND HE'LL HAVE TO USE THE HIGHWAY THROUGH THE CARBON HILLS.

WE CAN OVERTAKE HIM THERE!

PUBLIC WORKS CREW
